part of the state and its depredations will exceed these of any former years on account of its increasing numbers. It is estimated that the coyotes dur-ing the past year have done over $1, 000,000 damage to the flocks of the state, and the sheepmen believe that the only way to exterminate the pest s to provide a bounty to make their killing worth while.

order to get the matter before the egislature the Oregon sheep commis-sion in its annual report will embrace a recommendation of a bounty of $1.50 to be paid for each animal killed. It will point to the success with which that plan combatted the evil some years The sheepmen of the state will also urge through their organization that such a bounty be given.

One half of the sum paid, according a the plan now under advisement, will e paid by the sheepmen through special tax levied upon them for that purpose. This is in line with the old

LEGISLATION NEEDED.

Water Code Passed.

Salem-Need of water legislation in this state occupies considerable space in the biennial report submitted to the legislature by the attorney general. Mr. Crawford agrees with State Engineer Lewis that a water code is one of the important matters affecting Oregon which the legislature will have to take up at its approaching session. This report touches upon many things, among others, the recent squabble between this state and the state of Washington over the fish laws. The attorney general makes no recommendations, but suggests that an attempt be made to agree with the sister state on uniform legislation for the protection of the salmon industry along the Columbia river.

QUAKES IN DEATH VALLEY.

Three Weeks of Quiverings Drives Out the Miners.

San Bernardino, Cal. Nov. 11-Seath valley and the surrounding ountry are in the throne of a series of earthquakes, which began three weeks ago, and the most violent of which occurred last Wednesday mornng before daylight, causing consternation among the mining camps, and resulting in many miners and prosectors fleeing from the district.

Immense changes in underground rivers which intersect the great sink are believed to have taken place, and ome of the miners believe the waters which once gushed through the valley will again within a short time be lowing over the now arid sands.

Samuel Lawrence, one of the first miners to reach here with details of the earthquakes, said that for three weeks past there had been one or two temblors daily. They had all been light with the exception of the one on Wednesday.
