

is the wish of
THE BIG STORE ON THE CORNER
 to everybody:

A. M. LARA = Bend, Oregon

LOCAL BITS.

Remember the dance in Lara hall Christmas night.

Fred Sherwood was transacting business in Bend Tuesday.

See J. H. Bean for nursery goods. Agent for The Dalles Nursery Co.

J. B. Heyburn was down from the homestead and spent Sunday in town.

John Steidl returned home Monday from a three weeks' business trip to Portland.

A. M. Lara was a business visitor at the county seat the latter part of last week.

Let The Bulletin do your job printing. Neat and up-to-the-minute in every detail.

Joe Buckholz left yesterday morning for Worcester, Ohio, for a visit with home folks.

J. E. Sawhill is spending several days in town from his homestead on the upper Deschittes.

H. J. Overturf left last week for the old home in Nebraska to spend the holidays with friends and relatives.

Fascinating Pyrography—150 page illustrated catalogue No. 2 free Woodard, Clarke & Co., Portland Oregon. 391f.

The boys of the town have been enjoying quite good skating for the past week or ten days on the Swaley ditch pond.

A. O. Walker was transacting business in Bend Saturday, having come in from his farm in the old river bed section.

Monday the new road between Bend and Laidlaw was opened to travel, and the Bend-Laidlaw stage was the first rig to pass over it.

Now is the time to lay in your winter's supply of apples. We have them—four varieties—at $2.75 a box.—KELLEY & ALDRIDGE. 341f Sylvester Staats came in from Salem the first of the week to spend Christmas at home. Sylvester is studying law at Willamette University.

J. D. Davidson has accepted a position for the winter with the Winck Drug Company at Pineville. He will return to Bend about March 1.

Miss Baldwin, who has spent the past six or eight months on her ditch land in this section previous to making final proof, left Tuesday morning for Portland.

Strayed—From road south of Bend, an old gray mare, weight about 1,300 lbs., large joint on left hind leg. $5.00 reward for returning to Anne barn, Bend. 40-42

There will be a dance in Lara hall on Christmas night, next Friday. Those who have it in charge promise good music, a good time, and everything else good.

Mrs. Allen, who has been visiting in Bend for several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Heyburn, and her son, H. R. Allen, left on Monday morning's stage for her home in Spokane.

Bend men to the number of about fifteen have organized a band. F. F. Smith, who has had much experience as a band instructor, has agreed to instruct them. Here's wishing them success.

The K. P. lodge will have work in the third degree tonight, at the close of which a modest banquet will be served, to which the wives of the knights and other guests have been invited.

Mrs. C. W. Hall and daughter were in Saturday from their farm at Pleasant Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have recently moved into a fine new house which they have had built on the home place.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHNER. 211f

The Review has it from authentic sources, that when George Myer, of the Lippman Furniture House, returns, there will be one other aside from his sister who will accompany him back to old Oregon.—Review.

John E. Ryan has returned from Shaniko, where he delivered 200 head of beef cattle at the notably high price of 4 cents a pound f. o. b. cars Shaniko. These beeves were fed at Trout creek before selling. He will have 1,000 more ready by spring.—Journal.

L. G. Tillery, who was so seriously injured by being kicked in the forehead last week, is in a very critical condition, and there is practically no hope for his recovery. Inflammation has developed in the wound and he has been delirious for two or three days. He has been moved to town into rooms in the Chapman building.

Uncle Sam has been doing a prosperous business through his Bend postoffice during the past few days, due to the large number of Christmas packages that are being sent through the mail. Monday's business was so brisk that Postmaster Merrill stated he feared he would run out of mail sacks.

Bend got its first touch of real winter weather the latter part of last week, when the temperature was rather wintry-like for three or four days, the thermometer dropping to 6 or 8 degrees below zero one night. However, the cold wave has now passed and the weather is quite balmy again.

Glenn H. Slack, who has a homestead adjoining the Philip Francis place southeast of town, will spend the winter at the home of his parents near Spirit Lake, Iowa. Mr. Slack has secured a school to teach there, and will employ his time while absent in instructing the young and growing Americans. He plans to return to Bend next summer.

A shotgun and a .22 caliber repeating rifle were raffled off at Kelley & Aldridge's place last Sunday, the guns being the property of Wm. Stephens. Henry Whitsett was the lucky man to get the shotgun with number 26, and H. H. Davies got the rifle with number 16. The shotgun was a double barrel 12 gauge hammerless La-Feuvre and the rifle a Marlin.

Practically all the farmers in the vicinity of Redmond are putting up ice this winter. They first pile up the ice, then lay a wall of lava rock around it with sawdust packed between the wall and the ice, and with a board roof over all. The ice keeps in first-class condition, and is a great convenience during the summer in keeping butter, eggs and milk in proper condition.

More people are taking Foley's Kidney Remedy every year. It is considered to be the most effective remedy for kidney and bladder troubles that medical science can devise. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities, builds up worn out tissues and restores lost vitality. It will make you feel well and look well.—C. W. MERRILL, Druggist.

Santa-Claus Will Come to You

Buy
CHRISTMAS GOODS

OF
 The Merrill Drug Company
 in Postoffice Bldg.

Candies, Toys, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass, Books—all kinds of Holiday goods—Something for Everyone Come and see: then you'll buy DRUGS, WALLPAPER, NOTIONS

C. W. MERRILL
 BEND, OREGON

HARDWARE

Our line excels. I carry everything you may want in the hardware line, including paints, and oils, doors and windows, step ladders, lime and cement. Nowhere in Bend can you find so complete an assortment, and then you know, our prices are fair.

Children's Coasting Sleds and Express Wagons for Christmas

I also carry a full line of Staple and Fancy
GROCERIES--
 Just what you need for the Christmas dinner.
S. C. Caldwell Oregon

The Central Oregon Banking & Trust Company
 Bend, Oregon.
 CAPITAL $25,000 FULLY PAID.

3 and 4 per cent. Interest paid on Six Months and One Year Time Deposits.

A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.

WOOD FOR SALE

From now until February 1, all who get five loads of wood from me I will give

One Load Free

If you will pay for hauling. Same old price $4 & $3.50 per cord. Phone me. F. M. CARTER.

MICRO
 ITCHING SCALP
 DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR

are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasites, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth. Save your hair before too late. Micro prevents baldness. It is a delightful dressing for the hair, free from grease and sticky oils. Ask your druggist for free booklet. HOYT CHEMICAL CO. PORTLAND, OREGON