

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels.

Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system. Get it today in the usual liquid form or in the standard tablet form called Sarsatabs.

As a Germicide.
Cool Merchant—Ah, well, we mustn't complain of zero weather. It kills microbes, you know.

Customer (making out a check)—Yes, I notice that in your case it has killed the poverty microbe.

Sneezing is the best brain clearer known. Many persons conclude an attack of faintness, or fainting, with a violent sneeze. Our ancestors took snuff from a belief in the efficacy of sneezing. That tobacco so taken is in part absorbed into the blood and hurts the system.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY

The last figures obtainable show that the per capita wealth of this country is $1,310.11.

The building trade has the greatest number of strikes. The coal and color industry comes next.

New York City hotels are now entertaining 18 per cent more customers than they were one year ago.

The streams of the Himalaya mountains will soon be engaged in the prosaic work of turning wheels.

New York has the greatest number of wage-earners of any State in the Union. Pennsylvania is second.

The public lands vacant and subject to settlement in the United States on the 1st of last July amounted to 774,385,000 acres.

Women as stenographers have been greatly increased in number in New York City during the last year and there are now about 11,200 of them.

A ferry boat in use in the harbor of Glasgow is supplied with a deck which can be raised and lowered seventeen feet. In fact, it is a floating elevator. This feature is necessary because of the difference of the levels of the two land log stages made use of by the craft.

All the women prisoners at the Clerkenwell sessions recently appeared in the dock wearing their hats. The rule of "no hats" was strictly enforced, but their absence in no way troubled the women. Indeed, one balanced a hat more than six feet in circumference without the slightest trace of anxiety. How she did it only a woman could tell.—London Chronicle.

Auction sales of thoroughbred cattle and swine are not uncommon in the West, but an auction sale of "thoroughbred" corn, wheat and oats will be a novelty to many of the visitors at the national corn exposition at Omaha. After the show is over prize corn and other grain and grass seeds will be offered for sale to the highest bidder. The prices for corn, it is expected, will range from $1 an ear up to $150 to $300 for ten-ear samples.

Recently electrically welded chain has been made commercially by automatically cutting the blanks from a bar so as to form a socket in one end and a corresponding taper on the other end of the link blank. This is then bent and joined on one side and these joints welded. This obviates the usual amount of upset in such cases. The laps, or area of contact, are much larger than in the squarely cut ends, and a nice-appearing and good weld is made.

The authorized capital of Japanese electric undertakings in 1903, $14,191,000, rose to $68,724,000 in 1907. The electrical works undertaken chiefly represented lighting and railways. The number of lights supplied in 1903, 305,000, increased in 1907 to 850,143. Tokio and Osaka require each 100,000 lights. Electric railways show equal development. In 1903 the mileage was thirty-eight, which rose to 119 in 1907, and will be largely added to by construction during the present year.

According to a table published in the current number of the Federation Review, 6,225 Immigrant Jews entered the port of New York in September, 1908. Of these, 2,433 were women, 2,001 men and 1,791 children. Russia contributed 4,607; Austria-Hungary, 1,234; Roumania, 273; England, 56; Germany, 23; Turkey, 10; Sweden and Spain, 2 each, and Holland, 3. The record also shows that 1,596 of the immigrants went to homes outside of the metropolis. In the corresponding month last year the number of Jewish immigrants was 3,653 greater.

The revolutionary party in Persia is circulating on postcards and in larger form a picture descriptive of "Persian Justice," which shows three bandits hanging by their feet from the city gate of Tauris. The men, almost naked, are shown suspended from an opening in the wall, the ropes binding their feet being fastened to a pillar, next to which a military guard stands at "attention." "For hours," runs the legend under the picture, "these wretches, the robber Ago and his companions, hung, in their badly wounded condition, before death relieved their agony. Thousands of people of all ages and classes looked mournfully upon these victims of 'Persian Justice.'"

Two veteran journalists of Chicago died together last Thanksgiving, as they have done for a number of Thanksgivings, and recalled their editorial experiences back in the sixties. This year the reunion was of special interest because occurring upon the seventy-fifth anniversary of the initial issue of the first newspaper in what was then known as the "Northwest." "This," says the Boston Transcript, "was the Chicago Democrat, started on Nov. 26, 1833, and both had served in connection with it in its later history. It was at one time owned and conducted by John Wentworth, but in 1861 was merged with the Chicago Tribune. No copies are now supposed to exist, as all the files were destroyed in the big fire."

CATARRH IN HEAD

MR. WM. A. PRESSER.

Mr. William A. Presser, 1722 Third Ave., Moline, Ill., writes:
"I have been suffering from catarrh in the head for the past two months and tried innumerable so-called remedies without avail. No one knows how I have suffered, not only from the disease itself, but from mortification when in company of friends or strangers."
"I have used two bottles of your medicine for a short time only, and it effected a complete medical cure, and what is better yet, the disease has not returned."

"I can most emphatically recommend Peruna to all sufferers from this disease."

Read This Experience.
Mr. A. Thompson, Box 65, R. R. 1, Martel, Ohio, writes: "When I began your treatment my eyes were inflamed, nose was stopped up half of the time, and was sore and scabby. I could not rest at night on account of continual hawking and spitting."

"I had tried several remedies and was about to give up, but thought I would try Peruna."
"After I had taken about one-third of a bottle I noticed a difference. I am now completely cured, after suffering with catarrh for eighteen years."

"I think if those who are afflicted with catarrh would try Peruna they would never regret it."
Peruna is manufactured by the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio. Ask your druggist for a free Peruna almanac for 1909.

Motive Power.
"Yes, indeed; I've had many a good time taking my motor boat out for an all day fishing trip."
"About how much fluid do you use in a day?"
"Aw, don't ask a man that! How do you suppose I know—O, you mean how much gasolene? About four gallons or so."

FILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Files in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 5c.

Uncle Allen Demurs.
"It has always seemed to me," said Uncle Allen Sparks, "that it is unjust to call 'em 'Ananias clubs.' It isn't quite fair to Ananias. He didn't actually utter any lies; he only lied by implication. He wasn't really eligible himself to membership in an Ananias club."

Those Loving Friends.
Nan—I saw poor dear Lill Garlinghorn's young man the other day. He looks as if she had picked him up at a bargain counter.
Fan—Yes, and she got only a remnant, at that.

Her Kick.
"I don't mind finding a gray hair or two in my own hair," sighed the bachelor girl, who shows some few signs of the sore and yellow leaf, "but when I pay $3 for a nice bunch of lovely brown curls and have to pick them out of those, too, it isn't fair. Do you think it is?"

Why, Cert!
The customer had handed over a check in payment of his long overdue milk bill. "Is it a certified check?" asked the collector.
"No, and it doesn't need to be; I'm perfectly good. That's an impudent question to ask."
"I guess you'd better get it certified," said the collector. "You insist on having certified milk."

Noblesse Oblige.
The youthful George Washington had just declared that he couldn't tell a lie. "How would it look," he said, "for a future President of the United States to be eligible for membership in an Ananias club?"
Thereupon he trimmed the cherry tree he had cut down, and proceeded to make a big stick out of it.—Chicago Tribune.

CECIL RHODES' MEMORIAL

Typical Statue Erected to the Great Empire Builder.
There was recently placed in position in South Africa a monument to Cecil Rhodes, the great empire builder, who conceived the Cape to Cairo railroad, and whose ambition was to paint all of South Africa a British red. More than any other man of his time he foresaw the possibilities of South Africa, and had he lived the federation which is now being discussed would probably long ago have been an accomplished fact. Rhodes was a man of almost reckless daring and of indomitable energy, and the monument erected to him is truly typical. In the statue of rider and horse the artist, G. F. Watts, depicts physical energy—the leading characteristic of the great colonial developer.

The statue is erected at Groot Schuur (great barn), which was Mr. Rhodes' favorite residence at the Cape, and in which he lived when he was premier of Cape Colony. The building was burned, but was restored, all of its original details being preserved. It is not at Groot Schuur, however, that Rhodes is buried, but far away among the Matopos hills, of Matabeleland, in a region which he rescued to civilization.

TURKISH ARMY OFFICERS.

They Are Neither Loved Nor Respected by Their Men.

Very seldom if he can help it does the Turkish army officer appear on horseback, and when not on duty he looks upon his horse merely as a method of locomotion. He has no affection or understanding for the horse. The superior officers have no horses of their own, and, being generally bad riders and without military qualities which would raise them in the estimation of their men, they are neither loved nor respected by them. Married officers keep entirely to themselves, such things as invitations to one another's houses being unknown, and the only occasions upon which officers meet together at all are on the days of assembly, when they are called together for the sultan's birthday or accession celebrations.

The pay of the lower ranks is as small as that of the superior officers is high. The young cavalry officer who makes a good impression on his entry into the service soon falls to pieces through want of occupation either of mind or body. The greater part of the morning and evening he sits over his coffee and cards or dominoes. There are but few newspapers, and those that do exist are so severely censored by the government that they contain little but weather statistics, gazettes and announcements of the bestowal of decorations.

What the Turkish officer really thoroughly enjoys is a gramophone. Instruments playing the waltzes and reproducing the music hall songs of all the cities of Europe are in the greatest possible request, chiefly because they make music without any personal trouble.—Chicago News.

A Paradox.
"Since Footlight inherited a fortune he is a paradox."
"What's the answer?"
"He is both the richest and poorest actor on the stage."
Every time a woman gets a new gown she goes around with a chip on her shoulder.
When a man's house burns down, seven men out of ten believe he set it on fire.
