sale at Lara's, Sather's and Grant's.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. P.
Downing, this morning, a 11½ pound girl.
If your face doesn't suit get one of those in Lara's window—for the masquerade dance.
Delicious punch served all the evening FREE to everybody, at the masquerade dance.

Foley's Orino Laxative cures constipation and liver trouble and makes the bowels healthy and regular. Orino is superior to pills and tablets as it does not gripe or nauseate. Why take anything else?—Bend Drug Co.

We handle the genuine A. A.
Cutter shoes. Send to us for your size.—FOSTER & HYDR, Prineville.
"Six Cups of Chocolate" will be served in Lara's hall Monday evening. If you like chocolate, better be present.
The Whatsoevers have ordered new glass for two windows in the church, which have been broken for some time.
Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes are sold by the one up to date clothing house in Crook county, at Foster & Hyde's, Prineville. 48-51

There is business of special importance to be transacted by the Knights of Pythias at their meeting tonight, and a large attendance is urged.
Judge Ellis is spending a few days at The Dalles, where his father is taking treatment in a hospital.
The judge expects to return about the 13th.
Rev. Mitchell will hold services in Bend next Sunday both morning and evening. In the evening the subject of his discourse will be "Abraham Lincoln."

Word reaches Bend that E. F.
Batten is seriously ill at his home at Hood River. The nature of his illness was not stated in the letter that brought the news.
Bishop Paddock, Episcopal bishop for Eastern Oregon, will be in Bend to hold services the latter part of this month. The exact date is not known at present.

I am prepared to do all kinds of family and gentlemen's laundry work. Wagon will call at any part of town every Monday morning. Please call on me.—Mrs. O.
H. Erickson. 47-49

From the manner in which Jim McCoy and his corps of carpenters are rushing up that Wenandy barn it will be finished in ample time for the Anarchists to dedicate it with their dance on the 22nd.

Miss Cora Ferguson went to Prineville Saturday where she acted as one of the board of the county and state examiners, the duty of this board being to officiate at the county teachers' examination.

F. Milo Lobdell remits to The Bulletin for another year and writes that he wishes to keep in touch with Bend as he expects to be back here when the railroad comes.
Milo is now at Fish Haven, Idaho.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER. 217

C. W. and J. W. Hoeck and R.
M. Elder have been hauling lumber during the past week for the erection of houses on their ditch lands east of town. Each of them is building a one story house 24x26 feet.

The Settlers' Co-operative Telephone Co. has connected its line with the local exchange, and now you can talk to eight or 10 families living on "The Burn" east of town, among them I. J. Wilkinson, E. A.
Richardson, Dr. Dencer, and others.

Frank West has sold his ranch on the river and a timber claim to J. E. Ryan, the consideration being $5,000. Mr. West and wife will leave soon for a visit with relatives in Indiana and Michigan, after which they will return to the Bend country.

There is a large number of settlers moving into the vicinity of the Cort Allen and W. P. Vaudevert ranches. Where 13 months ago there were only these two families

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears.
Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package.—Bend Drug Co.

Prineville. 48-51

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Library Club on next Tuesday, the 16th, at which there will be the annual election of officers.
It is especially desired that all members be present at this meeting.
Hereafter the library meetings will be held on Tuesday afternoons, instead of Thursdays.

A telegram brought the sad intelligence to Mrs. A. D. Morrill yesterday that her father had died Monday at his home at Easton, Wash. The cause of his death was not conveyed in the telegram, but it is supposed to have been heart trouble, as he had suffered from that affliction for some time.

Little Frank and Ralph Haner are the proud and happy owners of a riding horse recently given them by Mrs. J. E. Ryan of this city. It is sometimes difficult to know which one of the boys is entitled to the "next" ride; but the pony realizes that he is pretty much employed most of the time.—Paineville Journal.

The state fish and game warden has acknowledged receipt of the petition sent in from Bend asking that fish ladders be built around obstructions in the Deschutes so that salmon can come up the stream. He asks for an estimate as to what it would cost to blast out a fish way over the falls that cause the trouble.

Mrs. Jack Ferguson left Saturday for Bellingham, where she will enjoy a visit with brothers and sisters. She was accompanied by W.
J. McGillvray's little daughter, whom Mrs. Ferguson has been caring for since the death of Mrs.
McGillvray. They went by way of Prineville, Mr. Ferguson driving to the county seat with them.

P. B. Poindexter announces that hereafter his skating rink will be open on Mondays and Tuesdays in the room formerly occupied by the City Meat Market, adjoining the Millard Triplett furniture store.
Mr. Lara concluded that skating injured the floor of his hall, and refused to rent it for that purpose.
Hence there was no skating in Bend this week, but hereafter the rink will be conducted as above announced.
