

What is a Good Store?

Everybody has their own idea of what a "good store" really is. I want to tell you what I think about it and see how near I can come to your idea.

A GOOD STORE is one that buys the right goods and sells them at a reasonable profit—a store that stands ready to cheerfully correct any mistakes that may happen and will refund the money at once on all purchases that are not satisfactory and do it without grumbling.

A GOOD STORE is a store that looks out for trifles because

"Trifles Make Perfection and Perfection is no Trifle."

A GOOD STORE is a store that is kept neat and clean—the stocks well arranged and in order—the goods marked in plain figures and ONE PRICE made to all.

A GOOD STORE is one where the clerks are prompt to attend to your wants—are courteous and polite at all times and are ready and willing to show you the goods.

This is my idea of what makes a good store and this is the way I try to run my store. I would like to have you tell me what you would do if you tried to run
"A GOOD STORE."

A small crop of trout flies were out, along the Deschutes at and near Bend during the past few days and the trout have been "jumping."

A. B. Baines left Thursday morning for Eugene to look over that bustling city and see how he likes it there. The family will remain in Bend.

Milt and Elwood Roberts were in town last Saturday attending to business matters. It is understood that they will move to Bend soon from their fine ranch in the Gist section.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER, 2111

A. Harryman has given a contract to Henry Hedges for the building of a house on Mr. Harryman's land two miles east of Bend on the Prineville road. The building will be a five-room house, 28x32.

Work on J. H. Wenandy's new barn is progressing with due diligence, and Mr. Wenandy expects to be able to move in during the coming week. As the plans showed, as given in The Bulletin a few weeks ago, the barn will be one of the largest and best in Central Oregon.

L. B. Charles and C. W. Rice were in Bend last Thursday on their way to Newberg from their homes in the Fort Rock country. They report that a large number of settlers are moving into that section and taking up homesteads, and state that practically all the land about the Rock will be taken up this spring.

A Mr. Long of Tacoma has been in the Bend country during the past week looking over this section. He has traveled over a large part of Washington and Idaho looking for a country in which to locate, and says that the Bend country suits him better than anything he has seen. He plans to move here and make his home.

J. N. Hunter has suggested that petitions be circulated through the various towns of this section and many signatures secured thereto, said petition being addressed to the Oregon delegation in congress and asking them to use their influence to secure the approval of Harriman's right of way maps on the Deschutes. If Harriman is bluffing, this action might show his hand; and if he intends to make good, the Oregon delegation might be able to hurry up the approval of the maps. The petition idea is a good one.

Frank Orcutt and his mother returned Thursday evening from spending the fall and winter at Payette, Idaho. That is a great fruit section and Mr. Orcutt says large sums of money are being made from orchards thereabouts. He picked fruit for one man who sold 7,300 boxes of apples from a nine-acre orchard, and the proprietor claimed that he cleared $2.00 a box on the crop, or a profit of $14,600 from nine acres. Many believe that the Bend country will produce as fine winter apples as are grown anywhere when our orchards come into bearing, and the above gives one a fair idea what Bend country land will be worth when that time comes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Heyburn are moving onto their up-river homestead this week.

T. W. Triplett was sick in bed eight days with la grippe but is up and about again.

Judge and Mrs. Ellis were at Laidlaw Tuesday taking depositions in the case of Gerking vs. Laidlaw.

L. B. Warner, a cousin of Elmer Niswonger, arrived last Friday from the East for an extended stay in these parts.

J. H. Kelley reports that H. H. Davies is laid up with rheumatism at Los Angeles, where he went several weeks ago on a mid-winter outing.

Henry Hedges recently sold a 100-foot lot in Lytle to J. M. Dobbins for $550. It is understood that Mr. Dobbins plans to put up a house on the lot soon. Mr. Hedges also sold an adjoining 50-foot lot to James Breen, consideration $250.

Miss Katie Dunsmore has accepted a position as stenographer with the D. I. & P. Co. in Bend. The Prineville Review says: "She will be greatly missed by her large circle of young friends here, with whom she was deservedly popular."

The Bend Drug Company, composed of two or three local business men, took over the Merrill drug store Monday, and the business is now in charge of J. D. Davidson and T. W. Triplett. The Bulletin wishes the new firm success, and there is no doubt that it will be given a liberal patronage.

Mrs. Henry Hedges has been called to Plainfield, Ill., by the serious illness of her only brother, Geo. W. Flagg, who is not expected to live. A Plainview paper recently printed a cut of Mr. Flagg and told about his giving to his two sons, the first of the year, a valuable 640-acre stock farm worth close to $100,000. He has considerable other property and is rated as a very wealthy man.

Last Monday night the residence of Frank Kulp was burned at Madras with everything that the house contained. Their loss includes an expensive piano and everything that they had, leaving them only the clothes that they were wearing at the time. Mr. Kulp was in Bend and Mrs. Kulp was at a dance when the fire occurred. Mr. Kulp is a brother of Mrs. J. H. Wenandy, and he and his wife were in Bend for some time last summer.

The Bend band have the work cut out for them now of raising the salary for their new instructor, E. C. Thorne, formerly of Myrtle Point. They plan to give a dance in Lara hall on the evening of March 17, and of course are very desirous that there be a liberal attendance. In view of the fact that the town is assured one of the best bands in Central Oregon, it is only fair that the people turn out and patronize the boys liberally.

A common remark at the barn warming Monday night was that Mr. Wenandy would be called upon frequently for the use of his loft in which to hold a dance. He said it could undoubtedly be arranged at certain times of the year to use the loft for a dance or two by allowing the supply of hay on hand to run low—say, just before harvest—and then clean out the center of the barn, which would leave a fine large hall in which to dance.

Poley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package.—Bend Drug Co.
