LOCAL BITS.

Are you wearing the green today? St. Patrick's day.

Hot water always can be had for bathing at the Pilot Butte Hotel.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Merrill, on Saturday last, a daughter.

The Bend Drug Company got in a fine line of paints and oils this week.

Those baths at the Pilot Butte Hotel are something fine—two large tubs. 1tf

Quite a few mountain sheep (?) are being bagged by Bend hunters these days.

Has it got you? That monster, La Grippe, that seems to be visiting so many of us these days.

Mrs. Grant has ordered a fine line of ladies' spring and summer hats. Wait for their arrival.

Mrs. John Young and family arrived last Saturday from Fremont, Neb., to make their home in this section.

Several Bend families took advantage of the beautiful weather we are having and picnicked on the river last Sunday.

W. D. Benson is having a house built on his ditch land east of town. Jim McCoy went out Tuesday morning to do the work.

The Bend band will give a dance in Lara hall tonight. Tickets, $1.00; gentlemen spectators, 25c. Remember the date—tonight.

Fifteen teams and drivers wanted for scraper work. Wages $4.75 per day for man and team. Apply at D. I. & P. ditch camps east of Bend.

Simple Remedy for LaGrippe.

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes.—Bend Drug Co.

Remember the shadow social next week Friday night, the 26th. It will be given in the vacant room adjoining the Triplett furniture store.

George Bogue, C. W. Richie, M. F. Hawthorn, Charley Findley and George Sly are Rosland people who transacted business in Bend during the past week.

L. T. Smith of Carson, Wash., has been spending a few days in Bend looking over this section with a view of investing either in ditch land or town property.

The Pilot Butte Livery & Feed Barn will be run in connection with the hotel. A new shed with a number of stalls will be furnished to freighters and emigrants. Hay and grain for sale. 1tf

The Whatsoevers will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Redfield. This organization has been prospering, and recently declared a dividend of $15 to each of the three denominations which comprise the association.

The fellow who tries to attract business without advertising is like the fellow who throws his sweetheart a silent kiss in the dark. He knows what he is doing, but nobody else does. See E. A. Smith about your spring suit.

Andrew T. Moore has sold out his possessions here and he and Mrs. Moore have gone to Chilhowee, Mo., their old home. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Moore but wish them success wherever they may locate.

The North Irrigation Company, one of the subsidary companies of the Arnold Irrigation Company, is asking for bids on the clearing of right-of-way for its lateral, construction of which will soon be commenced. This lateral will water land that lies south and east of Bend, and work on it will be pushed vigorously.

The petition that has been circulated at Bend and surrounding towns and which protests against the reclamation service dam in the lower Deschutes, was mailed to Senator Bourne Monday evening. It carried several hundred signatures, and asks the Oregon delegation to do all that they can to secure the speedy approval of the Harriman right-of-way surveys through the Deschutes canyon.

The Hindman-Thorbjornson contest case will not down. This is the case in which Mrs. Martha Hindman brought contest against the homestead entry of Oliver Thorbjornson. The case was carried through to the secretary of the interior, and Mrs. Hindman won in each appeal. She then placed a timber and stone filing on the tract, and when she came to offer proof Mr. Thorbjornson entered a protest on the grounds that he was a bona fide resident on the land, and also alleged perjury on the part of Mrs. Hindman. The testimony in the protest was forwarded to the officials at The Dalles land office, and they have handed down a divided opinion, Register Moore holding in favor of Mr. Thorbjornson and Receiver Arneson in favor of Mrs. Hindman. This necessitates another appeal of the case, and it will undoubtedly again go to the secretary of the interior. C. S. Benson of Bend is the attorney for Mrs. Hindman and W. P. Myers of Laidlaw for Mr. Thorbjornson.

GREAT NORTHERN SEED CO.
1199 Rose St. Rockford, Illinois

For sale—One 3-in Mitchell wagon. Inquire at Aune's livery barn.

Mrs. Grant announces that she will soon have in a fine line of spring and summer hats for the ladies.

Dr. M. V. Turley, who has been looking after his desert claim in the Gist neighborhood, was in Bend Tuesday.

Found—Rug about 2½x5 feet in size. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

Ray Wilkinson and John Ferguson left this morning for the south to cruise some timber south of the Horse Ranch stage station.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carter, on Sunday morning, a 7-lb. son. Marion says he now has a young wood chopper to help him.

Word reaches Bend that Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chapman have moved to Echo, Or., where Mr. Chapman is manager of the Northwest Realty Company.

A Mr. Reed of Wellsville, Mo., is in Bend looking over this section and will undoubtedly invest. Mr. Reed states that a number of people from his town will be in here this spring.

A. C. Lucas will run a livery and feed barn in connection with the Pilot Butte Inn. Patrons of the hotel who drive in from the country and do not care to feed their teams will be given stall room free.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER. 21tf

There was a lively game of ball in Bend last Sunday afternoon when the high school team crossed bats with the "town" aggregation. The game was hotly contested from the start, and closed with a score of 6 to 7 in the town boys' favor. A pretty stiff game for the first of the season.

A CASE OF SUSPENSION.

Home Talent Play Will Be Presented by Young Folks on March 31.

The young people of Bend will give a home talent play in Lara hall on the evening of the 31st. It is entitled "A Case of Suspension," and is a very pleasing little comedy. Miss Nona Richardson and Miss Maude Vandevert have the presentation of this play in charge, and state that they and the young people who will take part are putting on the play simply to provide a means of entertainment for Bend people. It has no connection with the school, whatever, and is not a school affair. A small admission will be charged, although the object is not to make money.

A home talent play is invariably a pleasing one, and Bend people will await this one with interest. The cast of characters is as follows:

Young ladies at seminary:
Dora.....Pearl Brightower
Alice.....Grace Vandevert
Mildred.....Pauline Wiest
Undergraduates of nearby college:
Harold.....Lyle Richardson
Tom.....George Vandevert
Jack.....Steven Steidl
Members of faculty:
Miss Ophelia Judkin....Bessie Donkel
Prof. Emilius Edgerton.....
.....Max Richardson
Kathleen.....Dorothy Schoolcraft
Jonas, seminary man..Claude Vandevert

Notice.

I respectfully request all stock and poultry owners not to allow same to run at large, according to ordinance covering same. The ordinance will be strictly inforced.

J. D. DAVIDSON, Mayor.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy."—Bend Drug Co.
