Ray Wilkinson and J. D. Davidson have each ordered cornets and Fred Triplett an alto horn, which will add three new instruments to the local band. Music racks for the entire band have also been ordered.

The fellow who tries to attract business without advertising is like the fellow who throws his sweetheart a silent kiss in the dark. He knows what he is doing, but nobody else does. See E. A. Smith about your spring suit.

W. H. Reed, who had been looking over this section during the past week, left this morning for his home at Wellsville, Mo. Mr. Reed expressed himself as favorably impressed with this section, and may invest in property here later.

While Dr. Dunsmore was on his trip to Bend he spent Monday night as a guest of Tom Langdon, the D. I. & P. engineer, at the ditch camp. That evening the workmen insisted that the doctor preach to them, and he did, there being between 40 and 50 men in the audience.—Journal.

Taxes are being paid this spring in a manner to break all records. Nearly 80 per cent of the tax payers have taken advantage of the provision that allowed a three per cent discount if their taxes were paid by March 15. That would indicate that there is considerable ready money in the county.

D. A. Findley and wife arrived in Bend Monday evening on their way from Portland to their ranch home near Rosland. Four months ago Mr. Findley was taken to Portland for treatment, and at that time was in quite a critical condition. We are glad to report that he has improved greatly in health and feels "like himself" again.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Castner, Wis.—Bend-Drug Co.

H. A. Myers of Redmond was in Bend last Friday showing the handsome black Belgian stallion owned by Myers & Company. The horse, known on the French stud books as Puissaint de Lioux, is a very large animal and weighs 2300 pounds. Judges of horse flesh say he is one of the best horses ever shown in this country, and he certainly shows up in fine shape.

Those who were privileged to listen to the open air concert given by the Bend Concert Band Sunday afternoon enjoyed quite a treat. The band is making most satisfactory progress under the instruction of Prof. Throne, and Bend people are insured the enjoyment of some very good music during the coming summer. The band will give these concerts every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the people should turn out and hear them.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package.—Bend Drug Co.

Glenn H. Slack, who has been spending the winter at his old home at Spirit Lake, Iowa, writes to The Bulletin as follows: "Enclosed please find $1.50 for The Bulletin. I appreciate more than ever that 'The Bulletin publishes the news—all of it.' I feel 'the call of the West' and of the Bend country as I look at a snow-covered landscape while writing this—some of the drifts eight or 10 feet deep. Here's looking forward to a return at an early date."

ITCHING SCALP DANDRUFF AND FALLING-HAIR
are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasite, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops
it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth.
Save your hair before too late.
Micro prevents baldness. It is a delightful dressing for the hair,
free from grease and sticky oils.
Ask your druggist for free booklet.
