J. D. Davidson, president of the Bend band organization, announces that there will be no concert by the band next Sunday. The boys have several new selections that they wish to "spring" on the people, have gotten tired playing the old ones over and over again, so decided to skip one Sunday and then present the town with a real treat. So remember, there will be no concert next Sunday.

A. M. Lara has made a marked improvement in the stage in his hall during the past week. New wings have been made, a new drop curtain put in and a new roller made for the curtain, besides other marked improvements. We will not tell you about them because you can see better for yourself by attending the play tonight, but will say that Bend now has a very creditable stage. The work was done by N. P. Weider, Wm. Orcutt and L. M. McReynolds.

Deputy Sheriff Millard Triplett received word from Prineville yesterday to arrest "Lucky" Baldwin on the charge of horse stealing. Consequently Mr. Triplett did so and took his prisoner to Prineville. Baldwin is accused of the old trick of putting his brand on other men's horses running on the range. Monday night Baldwin was pretty well intoxicated, and in some unaccountable manner fell out of a second story window in the Hotel Bend, the only injury therefrom being a sprained wrist.

Mayor Davidson has appointed Henry L. Whitsett fire chief. Monday evening a meeting of the company was held in the hose house. There has not been much interest manifested in the fire company during the past year or more and the object of the meeting was to get the company again duly organized. An election of officers was held, which was a spirited affair according to those present. The election resulted as follows: President, E. A. Sather; secretary, C. D. Brown; treasurer, C. C. Triplett; foreman, N. P. Weider; 1st assistant foreman, M. J. Kelley; 2nd assistant foreman, S. C. Caldwell.

Louis R. Robertson, special agent of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, was in Bend Tuesday. At the request of the Pioneer Telegraph & Telephone Company, he has come in to take charge of that company's system for a short time, being an expert telephone man. said he would make a very liberal proposition to the various farmers' lines whereby they could connect with the Pioneer's central offices in the different towns, thus securing service over all lines in the county, and at a very reasonable rate. Mr. Robertson said the Pioneer company had a fine property and one that would prove a good payer. He is making his headquarters at Prineville.

At the recent session of the city council City Attorney Benson was instructed to notify the Bend Water, Light & Power Company either to bridge the open ditch in the alley in the rear of the E. F. Batten place or remove it. This action was taken by the council because the ditch, as it now is, closes one end of the alley and makes it very inconvenient for teamsters to get out of the alley when they drive in at the other end with loads of wood, etc. As the open ditches just barely pay expenses and no profit whatever, the company refuses to do anything in the matter, and says it will shut off the water before it will go to any additional expense. This would be quite a serious thing, as the ditch involved supplies the town with water for irrigation through open ditches, and if this ditch is closed it will do away with lawns and gardens in Bend. Of course, that could not be allowed. Mayor Davidson, who was absent in Portland when the action was taken, is of the opinion that a compromise can be effected. He believes that, with a very small expense, the ditch can be moved to one side of the alley, thus allowing room for teams to drive through, and is advocating that solution of the difficulty.

Everybody Invited.
Tuesday, April 6, is the anniversary of the opening of the Bend library and is also a regular meeting day. Instead of meeting at the library rooms, Mrs. A. M. Lara and Mrs. Chas. Rowe will entertain all the members at Mrs. Lara's home. When we organized a little over a year ago, there were 36 members. For some unknown reason all seem to have lost interest but eight or ten. And the work of these few has been appreciated by the public calling them grafters. Now, stop and think. Who is benefited by the library? The public. Not one of the active member gets a book from the library even once a month, and many not at all.

Now, if the town does not want a library where their children as well as themselves can spend many hours reading or can take books home, why just say so and we will cease our efforts toward keeping it up. Some seem to think that the only expense is the librarian's salary. Where are our books coming from? Who is to pay for them?

Every mother and father ought to appreciate what a help the library is to their children sufficiently to be willing to assist in keeping up the interest, and the only way you can do this is for the mothers to attend the meetings and for the fathers to assist all they can. All start in fresh Tuesday, April 6, by meeting at Mrs. Lara's. Bring your fancy work and let's talk it over. We will have a business meeting the first of the afternoon, making final arrangements for the dance on April 11. The remainder of the afternoon will be spent socially. Mrs. Lara and Mrs. Rowe extend a cordial invitation to everyone who is at all interested, either active members or those who are not members at all. April 6 at 2 p. m. LADIES' LIBRARY CLUB.

Why a National Bank?

The Government of the United States, is in a sense, a silent partner in every National Bank.

It inquires into the character and financial standing of all applicants before granting a charter for a new Bank.

Sends a special Examiner twice a year to make a thorough examination of all assets, and to advise with these officers and directors.

Requires five sworn statements, showing the exact condition of the Bank at different times each year, which must be published in your home paper.

In fact we are required to live up to the high standard exacted by the Government in all its departments.

MONEY DEPOSITED WITH your home Bank does do able service. We loan it to your friends, neighbors and customers and they spend it with your business men.
