Roscoe Howard has returned from Portland after quite an extended visit to the metropolis looking after D. I. & P. Co. matters.

The Bend Drug Store is making some substantial improvements, having purchased several handsome new show cases and other necessary paraphernalia.

A good work is going on over the town these days by many cleaning up the refuse about their yards and alleys. More should follow suit in this good work.

M. F. Hawthorn was down from Rosland last Saturday to make proof on his homestead before Commissioner Ellis. He was accompanied by Fred Smith of the same vicinity.

The Pilot Butte Livery & Feed Barn will be run in connection with the hotel. A new shed with a number of stalls will be furnished to freighters and emigrants. Hay and grain for sale. itt

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Rourke were in Bend last Thursday on their way to Prineville from their home near Rosland. Mr. Rourke has made application to offer commutation proof on his homestead.

Dr. C. W. Merrill is spending a few days at Union looking after timber interests there. During his absence, F. O. Minor is assisting in the postoffice. The doctor will be home the latter part of the week.

Among the Masons from Prineville who attended the session of the local lodge last Saturday were T. M. Baldwin, M. E. Brink, Carey Foster, Dave Adamson, Frank Johnson and Claude Smith.

W. P. Vandever came down from his ranch Friday to meet Tom Sharp and a few of Mr. Sharp's friends from Portland, who were on their way to the Vandever ranch for a hunting trip in that vicinity.

Father Hickey writes to his parishioners in Bend that he is planning to make a visit here in a few weeks, and there is a possibility that he may be accompanied by Bishop O'Day, who is the bishop of this diocese.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hall and children drove in from their ranch at Pleasant Ridge to be present at the educational meeting last Saturday. They remained over night and spent part of Sunday visiting with Bend friends.

The postoffice building is resplendent in a new coat of paint, and the building occupied by the Bend Drug Company will soon enjoy the same improvement also. Carlyle Triplett and Barney Lewis are doing the work.

The dance given by the Ladies' Library Club Monday evening was a large success, especially from a social standpoint, a large crowd being in attendance. The receipts amounted to about $45, and the ladies cleared about $20.

A petition has been circulated around town and freely signed asking the city council to move one of the hose carts from the present hose house and station it nearer the business section, thereby affording better protection to the business property.

About 15 Masons from Prineville came over last Saturday to be present at the session of the local lodge, which had work in the third degree. Later in the evening a banquet was served in the hall, and a most delightful evening spent by those present.

C. N. Martin has received a letter from Cecil Waldron since his arrival at his home in Maine, stating that he stood the long trip very well, though was somewhat weakened by the journey. He expressed much gratitude for the kind treatment accorded him by Bend people and said he hoped to recover and return to Bend to repay the good people who helped him.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER, 2111

County Superintendent Ford was in Bend Tuesday returning from a visit to the schools in the Rosland neighborhood. The superintendent is keeping in close touch with the various schools of the county, and is endeavoring to awaken in the general public a keener school spirit, a greater interest in school matters. This he is doing in various ways, one of which is the holding of educational rallies similar to the one held in Bend last Saturday. Superintendent Ford is doing good work.

It will be remembered that some time ago when M. F. Hodson offered proof on a timber claim, Joe Buckholz entered protest claiming a prior right to the tract, which lies in section 7-20-12. Mr. Hodson's proof was accepted by the officials of The Dalles land office, whereupon Mr. Buckholz appealed. Attorney Benson, who represented Mr. Buckholz, has just received word that the General Land Office has reversed the decision of The Dalles office and holds in favor of Mr. Buckholz.

George Woods, while on his way from Shaniko recently with a load of freight, had one of his horses killed in a runaway. When a few miles from Antelope, and while working around the load, he uncoupled the leaders. They became frightened and ran away. One of them ran into a stay-wire used to brace a telephone pole, stretched from the top of the pole to a "dead man" in the ground. Both front legs of the horse were broken just below the body and it was necessary to kill him. The other horse ran into a wire fence but escaped with only a slight cut.

M. J. Kelley was up the river fishing for dillies one day recently, and had a very singular experience with a large one which he hooked, or rather didn't hook. He had a strike and began to reel in what he declares was the king of the colony—but he only succeeded in getting the fish to the surface when he slipped off, leaving on the hook a 10-inch whitefish, which he had swallowed whole some time previously, and in which the hook had caught when he swallowed it. Anyhow, this is what Kelley is telling. He says when the unfortunate white fish parted from the hungry maw of the funny monster it made a noise like a cow pulling her foot out of the mud down in Tillamook, and when he lashed the water with his tail in his downward plunge after escaping from the hook, it caused a tidal wave that rushed upon the shore and all but overcame poor Kelley.

Why a National Bank?

The Government of the United States, is in a sense, a silent partner in every National Bank.

It inquires into the character and financial standing of all applicants before granting a charter for a new Bank.

Sends a special Examiner twice a year to make a thorough examination of all assets, and to advise with the officers and directors.

Requires five sworn statements, showing the exact condition of the Bank at different times each year, which must be published in your home paper.

In fact we are required to live up to the high standard exacted by the Government in all its departments.

MONEY DEPOSITED WITH your home Bank does double service. We loan it to your friends, neighbors and customers and they spend it with your business men.

To Establish a Union High School.

A petition is being circulated in school districts No. 12, 34 and 72 which asks the district boundary board to establish a union high school district out of these three districts with the location of the high school at Bend. Under this plan there will be no additional tax burden on anyone, but all school taxes collected from these three districts will go to the union high school to be thus established at Bend. Entrance to said school will be free to all children residing in either of these three districts. The districts involved are the Bend district, the Lava district, and the one east of town which takes in the Davenport-Stanley ranch neighborhood.
