Big Returns from Small Expense.

Two hundred and thirty-four inquiries from prospective settlers and investors from an advertising expenditure of $20 is the result achieved by Albany, Oregon. The advertising was placed through the Chapman Advertising Company of Portland. The Chapman Agency selected the publications and the advertisement was worded by Bury I. Damsel, the secretary of the Albany commercial club.

The Bend Drug Company is attracting quite a large number of people to its place of business every evening, the attraction being a concert consisting of numerous pleasing selections rendered by one of Edison's peerless phonographs. The company has a new machine and a large number of records.

Rev. Mitchell received a 'phone message Tuesday morning to the effect that Squire Bell of Prineville had passed away, and requesting Rev. Mitchell to conduct the funeral services. The services are to be held today at 2 o'clock. The deceased was the father of former county judge W. A. Bell, and for many years had taken quite a prominent part in Prineville life.

The home talent play, "Carl Johnson, Woodman," which will be given by the local M. W. A. lodge next Saturday evening, promises to be a very pleasing affair. The play itself is a comedy, which will furnish lots of laughter, and the band has agreed to furnish music between acts. There will be plenty of seats for the big crowd that is expected. Admission, 15, 25 and 35 cents.

BEND WILL CELEBRATE.

Triplett, Chas. D. Rowe and A. M. Lara.

There is only one sentiment prevalent in regard to the matter and it can be summed up in the terse expression, "Why, of course, we should celebrate." And of course we are going to celebrate, and will hold out the glad and welcome hand to every man, woman and child who will be so kind as to visit Bend on that day. The program in detail and other arrangements will be announced in The Bulletin as the work progresses between now and the day of celebration.
