Let everyone help to keep our city clean. JAS. D. DAVIDSON, Mayor of Bend.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have bought all the stock and interests of the former stockholders in the Rosland Lumber Company. I will pay all bills against said company and collect all accounts due it.

I wish to say that I will continue the business at the old stand, and keep on hand a complete stock of lumber, shingles, mouldings, etc. I also wish to say that any orders sent to me will be fully appreciated and will receive prompt and careful attention. Respectfully,

THE ROSLAND LUMBER CO.,
By J. N. Masten,
President and Manager.

J. M. Lawrence arrived in Bend last Thursday and is looking after business matters here.

Mr. and Mrs. Itney Wormstaff were in from their ranch Tuesday attending to business matters.

Ed S. Grindelund was in from his farm east of town Tuesday. The Bulletin acknowledges a pleasant call.

The Pilot Butte Livery & Feed Barn will be run in connection with the hotel. A new shed with a number of stalls will be furnished to freighters and emigrants. Hay and grain for sale. 11f

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER. 211f

Ice cream Saturday afternoon and evening.

Dance Saturday night in Lara's hall. Tickets, 50 cents.

C. W. Allen of Laidlaw was a business visitor in Bend last Friday.

Misses Lilly and Gladys Lynes have returned to Redmond to reside.

Ice cream in the Triplett building next Saturday afternoon and evening.

Those baths at the Pilot Butte Hotel are something fine—two large tubs. 11f

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan were down from their ranch at The Tules last Saturday.

D. L. McKay, representing the Mueller Lumber Co., arrived in Bend Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wenandy went to Madras Saturday to look after stage matters, returning Monday.

Mrs. George Brosterhous entertained a few lady friends Tuesday. The ladies report a very pleasant afternoon.

L. D. Wiest left Tuesday morning to do some surveying in the neighborhood of the W. P. Vandeventer ranch.

Hugh O'Kane reports that Billy Robinson, with his father-in-law, has engaged in the furniture and undertaking business at Lakeview.

Road Supervisor Richardson is doing some very good work on the road to Prineville. He is widening and straightening the road and blasting out rock ledges.

The Whatsoevers will give an ice cream social next Saturday afternoon and evening in the Triplett building, adjoining the furniture store. Remember the date.

C. N. Marten left Saturday morning for Portland and Astoria to take up his work as sales agent for the D. I. & P. Co. His territory embraces western Washington.

Mrs. J. E. Sawhill and two sons returned to Bend Monday evening after a visit of six months at the old home in Ohio. Mr. Sawhill went out and met them at Shaniko.

Work has commenced on the foundation of J. N. Hunter's new bungalow, and the carpenters will begin on the superstructure as soon as they finish W. H. Saats' new residence.

Viola Brown met with a painful accident last Saturday. She set a stick of stove wood on end and then stood on it while trying to tie a rope for a swing to a branch of a tree. The stick on which she stood tipped over, letting Viola fall on a pile of wood, breaking off the point of the bone of the left elbow.

Rev. J. T. Moore delivered a very able sermon Sunday morning. The pulpit was occupied in the evening by Rev. Cook of the Powell Butte section, who likewise treated the audience to a very helpful discourse.

One of the features at the dance to be given Saturday evening will be a May pole dance by a number of school children. An admission of 10 cents will be charged all spectators. For those who dance the admission will be 50 cents.

Mrs. George Brosterhous has received the news that a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Neil on April 12. Mrs. O'Neil, formerly Miss Amy Troutner, is a sister of Mrs. Brosterhous and visited in Bend something over a year ago.

Attorney and Mrs. Jesse Stearns, accompanied by Mr. Stearns' mother, reached Bend Monday evening for a stay of several months. Mr. and Mrs. Stearns will take up residence on their ranch east of town preparatory to offering final proof as required by law.

John White's team, which was tied at the meat market, became frightened at the new stage company's automobile Tuesday morning and ran away. After running around a few blocks, they brought up against a tree, the only damage being a broken wagon tongue.

Hereafter fishermen will be required to take out a yearly license the same as hunters, the cost therefor being $1.00. Every fisherman over 16 years old must arm himself with a license or run the chance of paying the penalty for non-compliance with the law. That will mean quite a little revenue from Bend and vicinity.

J. I. West returned Saturday from an extended visit with relatives in Michigan and Indiana. He visited at Cold Water, Mich., with his son, Bert West, and also met Frank and his wife, who are likewise visiting in the East. He reports having had a fine time, but was glad to get back to Oregon—too much rain and snow east of the Rockies.

The Ladies' Library Club will be entertained next Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. F. F. Smith and Mrs. E. D. Wilson at the home of Mrs. Smith. There is only a little business to be transacted, after which the afternoon will be devoted to social features. The ladies are requested to bring their sewing. All members of the club as well as those who are interested in the library are cordially invited.

The First National Bank
OF BEND

The Financial Hub of the Community.

Y OUR HOME BANK is the hub to which is attached the various spokes of the whole business community. Closely and securely connected, the different interests of the community work well together.

The Bank is dependent upon the people; its success is due to the success of the people. The customers of this Bank are more generally successful than people who have no Bank connections whatever.

The people are dependent upon the Bank; they receive benefits made possible only by the existence of the Bank. The people can better afford to be connected with a strong, safe and successful Bank—the spirit of the enterprise is contagious.

Men come to our Bank to borrow, to leave money and papers for safe keeping and for active use; when they wish to send away money and for a hundred and one various and important reasons.

This Bank strives to give each customer a personal service that will suit his individual business interests.

We appreciate the business our customers give us and aim to make every transaction satisfactory.
