Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have bought all the stock and interests of the former stockholders in the Rosland Lumber Company. I will pay all bills against said company and collect all accounts due it. I wish to say that I will continue the business at the old stand, and keep on hand a complete stock of lumber, shingles, mouldings, etc. I also wish to say that any orders sent to me will be fully appreciated and will receive prompt and careful attention. Respectfully,

THE ROSLAND LUMBER CO.,
By J. N. Masten,
6-9 President and Manager.

Remember the band concert Friday evening. The boys are improving rapidly under Prof. Throne's instructions and their concerts are certainly a treat. There should be more people out to hear these concerts.

The little two-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Purcell was buried last Thursday morning in the Bend cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell live on ditch land east of town just at the forks of the Bend-Prineville and Redmond road.

The Bulletin was in error last week when it announced that J. B. Heyburn was one of the ranchers who were planning to build a canal to divert water from Fall river. Mr. Heyburn writes that he has no connection with the undertaking.

L. H. Metke has received word from State Engineer Lewis that is quite favorable to the project of diverting water from Fall river, as reported in last week's Bulletin. Mr. Lewis said there would be no reason to object to the plan as outlined by the homesteaders who have undertaken the project.

J. B. Baumgartner of Olney, Or., and J. Johnson of Astoria, Or., were in Bend yesterday on their way to the Christmas Lake country, where they own land. busy with the circuit court, that it was very difficult for the commissioners to transact any county business, so they adjourned to meet the 17th.

Those baths at the Pilot Butte Hotel are something fine—two large tubs.

Last Friday young Geo. Woods, while stealing a ride on an automobile, had the finger nails torn from the first two fingers on his right hand. He was holding on to one of the springs, and as the auto ran over a bump the spring came together, smashing the tip ends of George's fingers and tearing off the nails. It made quite a painful wound.

A number of Bend ladies joined in a very pleasant "surprise" on Miss Anna Johnson last Wednesday afternoon at Miss Johnson's home. The surprise was in the nature of a farewell party as Miss Johnson plans to leave soon for an extended visit in the East. Each lady brought as a gift some article that would be of use to Miss Johnson on her journey. During the afternoon refreshments were served, and a most delightful time had by those present.
