

DID YOU ENJOY THE 4TH?

If you didn't it is your own fault—everyone else did and you ought, too.

To our visitors one and all we can say "We are glad you came and we hope you will come again."

For my part I want to personally thank each of you for the very liberal patronage given my store during your stay here. I assure you it was much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sellers are enjoying a visit from Mr. Sellers' father and mother of Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Lewis P. Foss, who has been living at Bend and vicinity for some time, has left for his former home at Walla Walla, Wash.

C. L. Gist of Gist was one of the many visitors in Bend last Saturday. He reports crops looking very well in his section.

June broke all records at the Bend public library. There were 438 visitors, and 192 books borrowed. The library is a growing institution of which the town should be proud.

T. J. Connor of Chippewa Falls, Wis., spent a few days in Bend the first of the week. He is an old acquaintance and friend of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sellers.

W. B. Sellers has bought the two Overturf houses on Ironwood avenue. He will move into the one now occupied by L. L. Fox as soon as Mr. Fox can vacate it.

Judge Ellis received a message from The Dalles Saturday stating that his father, who is in the sanitarium there, was unconscious and very low. The Judge and Mrs. Ellis left for The Dalles at once.

Sunday's Oregonian had a full page of scenes along the line of the proposed Deschutes railroad, with an article stating that the scenery along the new railroad would be some of the most beautiful in the world.

A matched race is scheduled for a week from next Saturday to be run in Bend, between "Funoy," the Wimer pony of Tumalo, and M. J. Kelley's roan pony. Fifty dollars has been put up by each party to the race.

Will Taylor was down from his ranch near Rosland to spend the Fourth in Bend. He says that he and his two brothers are taking out a ditch to water 320 acres of land. The ditch when finished will be nine miles long. Work on it is progressing quite rapidly this summer.

Those baths at the Pilot Butte Hotel are something fine—two large tubs. 1tf

You Are Too Wealthy To Wear Poor Clothes

Did you ever stop to think that it's false economy to go poorly dressed—that a shabby, slovenly appearance may keep you from securing a good position; that it leaves a poor opinion concerning you in the minds of the men who "do things" today—who accomplish results—who make good—the sort of men you want to associate with.

Now, this doesn't mean foppy, dudish dressing—It means that the wise man will be neatly and tastily dressed—JUST WELL DRESSED.

And in this I can help you. Select the fabric you prefer from my large list of samples; I will take your measure; and a fit is guaranteed.

One of my well-fitting, made-to-order suits will cost you no more than a shabby, hand-me-down.

Concert by the band Friday night at 8 o'clock in the pavilion.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake will leave the last of the week for Portland where they will join a party of friends in an automobile trip to Seattle.

Tuesday night a band of sheep which was passing through Bend overran, ate and destroyed L. H. McCann's early garden, also a strawberry patch. The owner of the sheep has promised to pay for the damage done.

Portland may be the city of roses, but just at present this section is the country of roses. Thousands of wild roses are now in bloom along the Deschutes, and the fragrance that fills the air is the sweetest of perfumes. They make one of Nature's most beautiful scenes.

L. H. McCann is beyond doubt the first man to harvest new potatoes here this year. Sunday evening he presented The Bulletin family with a mess of this season's crop, which were fine ones, indeed; also with some of those extra fine strawberries which he is now harvesting. The berries were large, red, and delicious, and that tells the whole story.

The band boys' negro minstrels drew a crowded house last Friday evening. The boys had worked hard to put on the production, and well deserved the liberal patronage accorded them. The gross receipts were just an even $100. The receipts from the minstrel, together with those from the bowery dance, will just about pay for the band's uniforms, which was the object the band had in view.

Felix Linster, well known in Bend, in a letter to The Bulletin, written from Revelstoke, British Columbia, says: "I am doing well in Canada, but still I remember the Deschutes river now and then and long to be back there, for its scenery and climate can not be beaten any place north of it. I saw 59 degrees below zero last winter, and that kind of weather made me think of the good country I had left."

J. B. Wimer and bride of Tumalo came to Bend last Saturday to take in the celebration. This young couple were recently married at Prineville, the bride having formerly been Miss Caroline F. Umphlette, of Grants Pass. The groom is interested with his father and brother in a large irrigated ranch on the Tumello, and is an energetic young farmer. The Bulletin extends congratulations and best wishes.

D. C. Henny and E. G. Hopson, engineers in the employ of the reclamation service, were in Bend on a flying trip last Friday. They were here only a very short time, and then left for Prineville. The Bulletin was unable to learn the object of their visit. Messrs Henny and Hopson were the engineers sent out by the reclamation service to report on the dam site and railroad right-of-way controversy on the lower Deschutes.

John Thyen, who has been on his ranch east of Bend since last March, left on July 1st for his former home at Waukon, Wash. Mr. Thyen stated that he had the best field of wheat that he has seen in this section, standing as high as his waist, and of a rich, deep green color. He says that plowing here should be done in the summer and the field let stand until the following spring, thus allowing the vegetation to rot and the soil to settle. His wheat was seeded this spring. He is most enthusiastic over the Bend country, predicts a great future for it, and will return next winter or spring. He is having an additional acreage cleared this summer.

BEND'S CELEBRATION.

was a very interesting ball game between the nines of Bend and Prineville. The Bend team proved the winner, with a score of 14 to 8. For the first three innings it was a close game, neither team scoring, but in the fourth inning the Bend boys ran five men across the home plate and followed these in the fifth by scoring seven times. From then to the close, it was easily Bend's game. Prineville didn't score until the fifth, when one runner tallied. They scored again, one in the sixth, two in the eighth and four in the ninth.

While the game was very interesting from start to finish, there were no spectacular plays, and each team had many errors marked up against it. Kulp, pitching for Bend, plainly had most of the Prineville boys hoodooed. They showed they were afraid of him in the manner in which they swung at his twisters, very few safe hits being made. While Kulp did not strike out very many, the batter's effort generally ended in a little pop-up that was easily fielded in time to shut out the runner at first. VanMatre was there with the goods behind the bat, and played a very good game. Ketchum, in the box for Prineville, threw a very creditable game, but "went to pieces" rather badly in the fourth and fifth innings. Hinckle, Prineville's catcher, performed his part of the game with credit. Dr. J. T. Guerin acted as umpire. The line-up and score were as follows:

Broncho Busting.

Immediately following the ball game, there was a broncho busting exhibition on the diamond for a purse of $25—$15 by the committee and $10 raised in the crowd. John McKinney of Gist was the only contestant and while he rode well, those who know say it was rather a tame exhibition of bucking. There was another really "mean" horse ready to be ridden,

Our Money is Safe. Is Yours?

We keep our money in a steel chest, incased in a steel fire and burglar proof safe, which is kept in our fire proof, stone vault—all doors protected by key, combinations and triple time lock.

Should burglars break in and take all our money, the Bank would not lose a dollar. Why? Because we carry Burglar Insurance, covering loss either by daylight hold-up or theft by night.

We belong to the American Bankers Association, the thief's greatest enemy. In case of burglary they immediately send Pinkerton Detectives, at their own expense to run down the thieves.

Our active officers and employees are all under heavy Bond thereby affording depositors security against dishonesty.

The United States Government has supervision of this Bank at all times; requires us to publish in The Bulletin five times each year, sworn statements of our condition; a special National Bank examiner examines the Bank twice each year, carefully and thoroughly.

The Policy of the Bank is carefully directed by our Board of Directors, who are all local, well known business men, who hold regular meetings and keep in close touch with the Bank and its progress.
