KEPT BLOODY OATH.

Moro Bandit, Jikiri, Had Sworn to KIII 100 Men.

Manila, July 19. - When Jikiri, the More bandit chief who was killed with Japan Tries to Obtain Peaceful all his followers in a desperate battle with troops and constabulary near Patian, on Jolo island, July 5, began his career as an outlaw, he swore he would kill 100 men before he died.

The record of the murders he con mitted is not complete, but it is stated in a dispatch received today from Zamboangs that the bandit probably made good his oath, as the partial record at hand chows he took the lives of nearly a hundred persons.

From the latest reports of the fight, all but one of the several women in the cave where the outlaws made their last stand were wives of Jikiri.

But one of the women escaped. was the wife of one of the Jikiri followers and accepted the safe conduct offered by the Americans before the assault on the cave began. Lieutenant Joseph A. Baer, of the Sixth cavalry, is agreed by all who saw the fight to have been the hero of the battle. He was armed with a Winchester pumpgun with which he did great execution. His timely rescue of Lieutenant Arthur H. Wilson, who was struggling with Jikiri and already desperately wounded, when Baer shot and killed the bandit, and his certain sim, which brought down three other outlaws, are the talk of army circles.

Baer killed four of the eight bandits

China Refuses to Reconsider Matter and Japan May Abandon All Effort to Conciliate.

Tokio, July 20.-The Kokumin, one of the most influential of the Japanese newspapers, and which is generally regarded as the mouthpiece of Marquis Katsura, the premier, in matters pertaining to the government's policy, in an article today discussed the situation between Japan and China and strikes a somewhat alarmist note.

It was expected, says the article, that the withdrawal of the proposal to refere to The Hague arbitration tribunal the differences between China and Japan, preceded the adoption of what was hoped would be a conciliatory policy by China. But this expectation has not been realized. China new prorefuses to reply to Japan's request for reconsideration. The article concludes:

"The Japanese government is exer-cising all possible patience, but is not carrying its endurance to the point of sentimentality. Unless China's mood changes before the conclusion of the current month, Japan will be obliged to assume a different attitude."
