The First National Bank OF BEND BEND, OREGON

Dr. U. O. COE, President
O. S. HUDSON, Cashier
Capital fully paid $25,000
Stockholders' liability $25,000

Depository for { CROOK COUNTY,
CITY OF BEND,
THE PEOPLE.

The First National Bank of Bend has been designated a depository for Crook County, and part of the County Money will hereafter be deposited in the Home Bank.

We now have the City account and that of the majority of the local people.

Money deposited at home does double service. The opening up of Central Oregon, of which Bend is the natural distributing point for this entire section, means much for Bend; will create many demands from our farmers and merchants to improve their farms and business enterprises.

We desire to assist each and every one, but will not back or finance any unsafe or questionable enterprise.

Safety should be the first object in conducting a bank and we solicit your business on that basis.
