"TRIFLES MAKE PERFECTION AND PERFECTION IS NO TRIFLE."

THIS IS NOT ORIGINAL—I think Ben Franklin first put it on the market. And it is a mighty good thing to remember. Try to look out for the trifles. For instance—how many times have you started home with a bundle and have had the paper tear and cause you all kinds of trouble. Cheap paper—that's all. I use the "Sulfiber," tough and strong—the best I can buy. If you know of a better one tell me—I'll buy it. I want every package that leaves my store to reach your home—whether you go one block, one mile or 10 miles—in perfect condition. It is not very profitable to buy $1.00 worth of sugar and when you get home find most of your sugar in the bottom of your wagon because it was put up in a cheap sack.

This is one of the "trifles" that is worth watching.
