LARA'S

There is always SOMETHING NEW AT LARA'S, but this time I am going to tell you about something very DECIDEDLY NEW.

Have you ever gone into a store to do your shopping when you felt cold and tired, only to find the one stove in the place surrounded by men, and every chair occupied? And haven't you felt just like turning around and leaving? Of course you have, and every other woman has had the same experience. But "IT'S DIFFERENT AT LARA'S" I have provided a "REST ROOM" for the ladies, with a grate fire, easy chairs, and a table with magazines on it. I have done this for the COMFORT OF THE LADIES, to make their shopping in my store pleasant, comfortable and satisfactory.

Bring the children in to get warm, wait for your husband and met your friends at "THE REST ROOM."

"It's Different at Lara's"

This evening there will be a meeting of the Bend Board of Trade at eight o'clock in the office of Hunter & Staats. It is particularly requested that all members be present, as important matters will be taken up for consideration.

A letter from Mexico City, received by the Board of Trade, asks for a subscription to The Bulletin, the writer desiring to "post himself on the opportunities of your section of Oregon." No one is too far distant to be interested in the Bend country, these days of development.

The big New Year's number of the Oregonian will have much to say regarding Central Oregon. This was learned from G. P. Putnam who recently has received from that paper a letter explaining that the Oregonian desired to devote much space to the development possibilities of this country, asking for suggestions as to suitable articles from representative men, and announcing that at an early date a photographer would be sent up the Deschutes to obtain a large supply of pictures for the big boom number.
