STOP!

In and look over our list of irrigated land. We have the largest list in Crook county and are satisfying investors every day. If you have anything to sell, let us sell it for you. We have more buyers than land. Come in and list your city property with us. Our list is almost exhausted and we have buyers waiting. Why pay rent when we can loan you money to build a house of your own. The interest is less than rent and, when you pay, you are paying for something of your own. Come in and let us explain the proposition to you. You will be glad you did it. We are agents for the Harney Valley Oil & Gas Company, the best stock proposition in Eastern Oregon. You had better investigate this.

Insurance—Strongest Companies.
Notary Public—Neat and accurate.
Homestead location—Satisfaction guaranteed.
Loan Agency—Best and cheapest.
Timber lands bought and sold—Best vicinities.
Stenographic work, all kinds—Reasonable rate.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

NOVEL WINDOW.
A real estate firm at Klamath Falls has a novel window display in the form of a miniature ranch, all under irrigation. There is a ranch house, barn, garden, ditches and fields of grain. Irrigation is now a most important matter and the real estate men are at the front in demonstrating it.

CEAR BUYS ORCHARD.
The czar of Russia will have a private orchard in the Rogue river valley. Emissaries of his royal nibs, after searching the country, have decided on this location. There will be 10 acres of pears and the same of apples. All the work will be done by trusted employes of the monarch, who will be imported, and the shipments will be guarded to prevent poisoning of the fruit.

BETTER LUCKY THAN RICH.
On last Friday morning, a Mr. Stewart, who is working at the Embury sawmill in some manner got in the way of a log which was near 36 inches thick and it rolled entirely over him. Dr. Thom was immediately sent for and he hastily drove to the mill, and strange to say, instead of finding a man with the life crushed out of him after going through such a thrilling experience, he found him only badly bruised, with no bones broken or injured internally so far as he could ascertain. Surely it is certainly better to be born lucky than rich.—Silver Lake Leader.

WOOL GROWERS IN SESSION.
The 12th annual convention of the Oregon Wool Growers' Association is being held at Pendleton yesterday and today. It is said that the program is the best and most instructive yet arranged and prominent and expert men were to be present to address the convention on subjects most vital and important to the sheep and wool industry.

NEAR BEER OR NO?
The referendum election on the "Near-beer" ordinance will be held in Prineville on December 20th, that being the date of the regular annual city election. City Recorder M. D. Powell is now puzzling out all the crooks and turns of the law regarding the acceptance and printing of the ordinance, the ballot title, and the arguments for and against the measure, all of which must be printed in a pamphlet and mailed or delivered to each voter in the city several days before the election.—Prineville Journal.

REDMOND BOOSTERS ORGANIZE.
Redmond boosters have organized a commercial club, with the following officers: President, Editor W. C. Walker, of the Oregon Hub; vice-president, F. W. McCaffery; secretary, L. K. Macpherson, and treasurer, G. L. Ehlers. The club will begin at once the important work of advertising the Redmond section. As a starter, the club will purchase each week several hundred copies of their local paper, to be distributed on passenger trains between Biggs and Skaniko. The Hub says: "No slight mistakes, no petty differences shall stand between the people of Redmond and success. But overlooking any slight differences the members of the Redmond Commercial Club will continue to work as one man for the further development of our natural resources."

COUNTY BUSINESS GROWS.
October was a banner month for receipt of money's for recording and other fees in the county clerk's office, the total reaching the sum of $564.45. The usual run of receipts from the same sources rarely exceeds $400.—Prineville Journal.

LAKE COUNTY'S WEALTH.
The 1909 assessment roll shows Lake county to have $8,609,139 worth of assessable property, which is about the same as Crook's assessable valuation. The figures of the assessor show that there is in Lake county 171,735 acres of tillable land and 816,043 acres of non-tillable land. There are 6,778 head of horses, 46,136 head of cattle, 105,236 head of sheep and 1,114 hogs. The county has only 385 miles of telephone line.

JEWELER'S SHOP AT REDMOND.
There is a rumor here to the effect that Mr. Harvey Cyrus of the Sisters neighborhood and a jeweler, formerly of Prineville, is expecting to open a shop in Redmond.—Hub.

SURVEY ELECTRIC ROAD.
County Surveyor Fred A. Rice has the contract for the completion of a survey for an electric road from Opal City, the new town on the north side of Crooked river, on the Oregon Trunk and Harriman line surveys, to Prineville, by way of Lamonta gap and McKay flat.—Redmond Hub.

BIG PRICE FOR YEARLING COLT.
H. A. Myers sold his one-year old colt while at Prineville for $250.—Redmond Hub.

MADRAS HAS BRICK YARD.
C. C. McNeely of Prineville has opened a brick yard at Madras, and already has mounded 30,000 bricks.

BOARD OF TRADE BOOSTING.

secretary of the Board of Trade, has the following poem, boosting the Bend Country:

Oh, things are sure a-doin'
In the long-neglected land,
And development 's a-brewin'
Now the railroad 's took a hand.
From Shaniko to Prineville,
From Biggs right up to Bend,
The prospects are durn fine, Bill,
For prosperity without end.
Yes, you let your bottom dollar
The country 's on the go,
And the knocker 's ceased to bother
Cause now they've got no show.
All the real estate 's a-climbin'
While the settler 's jumpin' in,
With the first investors smiling
And the locators on the grin.
Some are sleeping on the tables,
Some are dozing on the wall,
All are eating where they're able,
Or like cutting out at all.
For now the railroad 's coming,
Crook County 's on the boom,
And the homesteaders are running
To get in while there is room.
It's the end of the open range,
The bronco and wild 'rivo tain't
For we'll see some startling changes
When they lay them iron rails—
All the sage 'll be plowed under,
They'll tame the branded steer,
An' say, I shouldn't wonder
If they kicked about near here.
For that's how progress works its way,
Mixing the whole blame pack,
So take a hunch, if you want to stay
And look to the front, not back—
Sweep your ground for a nice town lot
That lies near the railroad line,
An' mighty soon (if you pecked the right spot)
You'll own a young gold mine.
So if you want to see a land
Where things is movin' quick,
And 'd like to make a head
For to turn a right good trick—
Just you pull your freight a-hummin'
In on the Shaniko stage,
To the land where the railroad 's coming,
The land that's all the rage.

For the Season of Long Evenings.
There are no lonely winter evenings in the homes where The Youth's Companion is a weekly visitor, and there need be no idle hours. The variety of the papers contents appeals to every member of the household, and before one issue is exhausted, the next is waiting at the postoffice. During the winter season The Companion prints nearly a hundred complete stories of considerable length, besides the absorbing serials, some 25 articles by men and women of renown, and about twice as many short character and humorous sketches as there are winter nights. Such an article as "Winter Gardening" suggests an interesting occupation which can be carried on in Alaska with snow twenty feet deep, and without the cost of a dollar. It is well "worth while" to read a paper so carefully and ably edited.
Send your subscription ($1.75) at once so as to receive free all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1909, as well as The Companion's "Venetian" Calendar for 1910, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold.
