GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

SURVEYORS IN WARNER VALLEY.

Surveyors are at work in Warner Valley, near Lakeview, in southern Lake county, and the Lakeview Examiner believes they are in the employ of the Hill railroad and that a branch from the Oregon Trunk, now building up the Deschutes, will be extended through Lake county.

CENTRAL OREGON SPUDS AGAIN.

A farmer at Summer Lake, in Lake county, found a potato in his garden which was 13 inches long and weighed six pounds. He was so elated that he took it to show one of his neighbors who, after eyeing the huge tuber contemptuously, went down into his garden and dug a few hills, returning in a few minutes with two potatoes, one of which weighed six and the other six and a half pounds.

SHOOTING AT SAGE SPRINGS.

A few nights ago a shooting affray took place at Sagebrush Springs between two men, Matheny and Akeyson, and the latter's wife, who are said to be running a "blind pig joint" at that point. The trouble arose over money matters. Matheny left the joint but returned later in the night and fired several shots into the house, one of them coming very close to a man said to be boarding there. Mrs. Akeyson fired a couple of shots in return and the excitement was over—nobody hurt.

THE REASON.

Why do people pay $1,000 and $1,500 an acre for fruit land?

W. H. Brown, who lives on Roosevelt avenue, just outside the city limits of Medford, recently harvested his crop of Newtown Pippin apples from his three acres of 22-year old trees, and the following figures graphically tell the story and answer the above question:

Mr. Brown has gathered 2650 boxes of choice Newtowns off three acres of trees and will realize at least $2 25 per box, and more than likely $2 50, making the three-acre orchard net him an income for the single year of about $6,000.

BIG PRIZE FOR LAND.

The top price to date, ever paid for farm or orchard land in this section was when J. D. Heryford, last Friday bought the H. C. Fleming ranch at New Pine Creek for $20,000 spot cash. The tract contains 160 acres, and was sold at $125 an acre.—Lake County Examiner.

The Examiner says that people are just awakening to the agricultural and horticultural resources of Eastern Oregon land.

AFTER ARTESIAN WATER.

Powers Bros. passed through the latter part of last week with 18,000 pounds of well drilling outfit for the Christmas Lake country. There is still at Shaniko, some 28,000 pounds, consisting of engine, casing, etc., which they will return for immediately. It is confidently expected everything will be gotten in and start drilling for artesian water by the middle of December or the first of January at the latest.—Silver Lake Leader.

THE DOG CAME BACK.

The Review office has a spaniel collie that it cannot shake. The dog has been given away time and again, but like the cat he always comes back. Two weeks ago we presented him to Mrs. A. M. Jolly, who took him to Fort Rock, where her homestead is. The dog stayed there about a week when, becoming tired of ranch life and needing exercise, Sunday noon he struck out for his city residence. He arrived at this office the same night at 10 o'clock, having made the trip of 86 miles in ten hours and without a drop of water until he reached Powell Buttes—Prineville Review.

SUCCESSFUL S. S. CONVENTION.

After three days session the Crook County Sunday School Convention adjourned its fourth annual session here Sunday night. At the last session Sunday evening a crowded house listened to an excellent address by Rev. Chas. A. Phipps of Portland. The session just adjourned is looked upon by the Sunday School workers of this county as one of the most successful ever held in this part of the state.—Redmond Hub.

MAILS RIFLED.

About Oct. 20 a registered letter containing $1,000 and other registered matter disappeared from the mail sack enroute from Madras to Shaniko, and U. S. Postoffice Inspector Durand has just succeeded in unraveling the case. The Crook County Journal says that Inspector Durand refused to give out any definite statement when interviewed but it was ascertained that the records of the offices through which the letter passed showed that it went to the Madras office and was dispatched from there in usual form to Shaniko in a through pouch that is not opened enroute to Shaniko, and when the sack arrived at the railroad town it was without lock, which was a brass one of the usual type, and also minus a part of the contents.

Willie Craig, the young man who was carrying the mail from Madras to Heisler, the transfer point to the main line for Shaniko, came to the Grizzly station and asked a young lady there to help him count a sum of money, the total of which was suspiciously near the amount missing from the mails. This thread of evidence was followed for a few hours by the officers with the result that young Craig was arrested, charged with rifling the mails.

Craig's father is mail contractor from Grizzly to Lamonta and his uncle has the contract from Madras to Heisler, and had his nephew employed when the theft occurred.

DESCHUTES VALLEY AT OMAHA.

The Deschutes Valley will be represented at the National Corn show at Omaha by the best exhibit ever gathered from the large dry farming section. G. Springer of Culver has been appointed to go to Omaha and arrange for the installation of the display. The determination to make a display at the corn show followed the unexpected success of the exhibit at the dry farming congress at Billings, where the Deschutes Valley captured a beautiful silver loving cup offered by James J. Hill, the railroad magnate, and five premiums, two second prizes, and one third.

All the Deschutes exhibits have been sent to St. Paul, where a permanent exhibit will be made by the Great Northern railroad company. The Deschutes Valley display will be removed from St. Paul to Omaha for the National Corn show December 6 to 18. The Madras Pioneer says:

"G. Springer was in town today from Culver. Mr. Springer is very enthusiastic over the showing made by the Deschutes country at the dry farming congress, and is very anxious that this section send a creditable exhibit to the Corn Show at Omaha next month. He says there is a very creditable class of people in the Middle West, and a good agricultural and educational display from this section will place the Deschutes Valley before their eyes in a favorable light, with the result that a thrifty and industrious people will be attracted to Central Oregon. Mr. Springer thinks that he will not be able to attend the Corn Show, but hopes to be able to secure a delegate to attend from this county."
