Over Her Head.
"Where are you going to spend your honeymoon?" asked the prospective bride's girl friend.
"O, it will not be a mere honeymoon!" exclaimed the prospective bride. "It will be a honey cycle!"
"So you're going to take your wedding journey on bikes, are you? How perfectly delightful!" gurgled the other.

HOUSEHOLD TALKS

Ironing Cabinet.
Another man has answered the housekeeper's question, "What shall I do with the ironing things?" This man, a Philadelphian, has invented a cabinet which holds the board, irons and all the other incidental paraphernalia. This cabinet is a tall, narrow affair which does not take up much room and will scarcely be noticed in the corner. In the top is a shelf to hold the irons, while on the inner sides are runways with slides operative in them. One end of an ironing board is pivoted to the runner carried between the slides, and on the other end of the board is pivoted a supporting leg. When the board is to be used the closet door is opened and it is swung out into place. The irons and wax are there ready to hand, and there is practically no time lost in getting ready. Another advantage of this cabinet is the fact that it is not necessary to clear the kitchen table to get a space to support one end of the board.

English Cottage Pie.
Boil and then mash with a little milk and butter three pounds of potatoes, and line a deep pie dish with them, leaving enough only to cover the top of the dish. Chop a sufficient quantity of cooked or uncooked meat to fill the dish, season with pepper and salt, and add a grated onion. Pour half a cupful of stock over the mixture and cover with the remainder of the mashed potatoes. Brush over with milk or the yolk of an egg, and bake till brown. Serve with gravy and green peas.

Chicken Fried in Cream.
Put a pint of rich cream in a frying pan over a moderate fire until it begins to color, dip the different parts of the chicken in flour, season with a teaspoonful of salt, fry in the cream on each side till it is a delicate brown. When done put it on a hot platter, pour another half pint of cream into the pan, let it boil one minute, add a saltspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper, then pour it over the chicken. Serve garnished with sprigs of parsley and a dish of puffed potato slices.

Pineapple Pie.
Put half a pineapple through the meat chopper. Beat the yolks of two eggs stiff, stir in a cup of sweet milk, a tablespoonful of melted butter and a cup of sugar. Last of all add the pineapple ground fine and bake immediately in an open crust. Make a meringue of the whites of the eggs and two teaspoonfuls of sugar, spread it on the pie as soon as done and return to the oven just long enough to brown the meringue.

Cranberry Fudding.
Moisten two cups of bread crumbs with one-half cup of melted butter, put a thin layer of these crumbs into a buttered pudding dish, add a layer of stewed and liberally sweetened cranberries, a dozen large seeded raisins, a little grated lemon peel and a sprinkling of sugar. Continue in this way until the dish is full, having the last layer crumbs. Cover the dish and bake for twenty minutes. Serve warm with a hard sauce.

Baked Apples.
To save gas, instead of lighting the oven when desiring baked apples, cut apples in halves and place them cut side downward in a pan on top of stove. Place in pan a little water, sprinkle apples with cinnamon and sugar, cover, and let cook slowly. When soft remove carefully, so as not to break skin.

Peach Foam.
Pare and cut up half a dozen peaches, strain through a sieve and mix the pulp with a half-cupful of powdered sugar. Beat the whites of three eggs to a stiff froth and add to it the peach pulp and beat until smooth and velvety. Pour into a mold, which must be placed on ice. Serve with a sweetened whipped cream.

Tomato Soup.
To three pints of soup stock add one quart of stewed or fresh tomatoes and a cupful of rice, and boil for one hour. When the rice is thoroughly done, add a lump of butter the size of an egg, season with pepper and salt and a tablespoonful of sugar.

Lemon Bouillon.
To a quart of strong beef broth (may be made from extract) add two tomatoes, half a lemon, six cloves, a pinch of thyme and sweet marjoram. Boil ten minutes, strain and serve.

Voice of the People.
"Colonel, what will be the overshadowing issues of the next campaign?"

No matter how long your neck may be or how sore your throat, Hamlin's Wizard Oil will cure it surely and quickly. It drives out all soreness and inflammation.

A Secret Society.
Carrie—I've got a dandy idea for a girls' secret society, Belle—A secret society! Do you think it would be practical? Carrie—Surely. We wouldn't keep secrets; we'd swap them.—Puck.

One Distinction.
Irate Caller—Your paper accused me this morning of running over a man with my motorcycle. It isn't true. It was an automobile.
Editor—Well, what's the difference?
Irate Caller—The difference? About $500!

Nipped by a Late Frost.
"Pulsatilla, I've been coming to see you for several years, and I think it's high time for me to—"
"Quit and give some other young man a chance, Mr. Siocum? Thanks; so do I. Don't stumble over the rug in the hall as you go, Mr. Siocum."—Chicago Tribune.
