

Mid-Holiday REMNANT SALE

at LARA'S

December 27th to 31st Only

The Holiday Business always leaves a Broken Stock, with many Desirable Remnants, in all departments. These Remnants I intend to clean out before my January Inventory, at prices that will open your eyes. The original cost will have nothing to do with the prices at which I will offer these goods.

They Have Simply Got to Be Sold.

Be sure to get in on this. You know that my Special sales in the past have been different from any ever before held in Crook county. I intend to make this "MORE DIFFERENT" than the others.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Kuykendall, a 9 lb. girl, on December 15, at Grandview, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall were former residents of Bend.

The Bulletin was misinformed last week in its item regarding the dance supposedly given by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Lara. Mrs. Lara reports that she was not one of the hostesses, and at the time was ill at home.

Miss Florence Young has been elected to teach the new room in the Bend schools which will be fitted for occupancy during vacation. Miss Young has been teaching the Arnold school and will be succeeded by Miss Fern Hall.

Ole Erickson received a letter from Homer Boggess, in which Homer said that his brother was slowly recovering from the injuries he received while playing football. He had been in the hospital for weeks and had suffered great pain.

Miss Hazel Caldwell, who recently resigned her position as teacher in the school here, was given a farewell reception Monday night at the Tewksbury restaurant by her young friends. Music, games and refreshments served to pass the evening pleasantly.—Chronicle.

Noteworthy improvements have been made in the Hotel Bend by carpeting all the lobbies on the second floor and likewise all the rooms. Another improvement that will be made in the near future will be the placing of linoleum on the office floor.

W. F. McNaught, who recently came to Bend from Pomeroy, Wash., has bought 80 acres from J. S. Parmenter which lies under the Arnold ditch. He also has purchased the former Noland place six miles east of town and plans to improve both properties.

Ranchers who live in the vicinity of the new county bridge on the upper river—in the John Peters neighborhood—report that the recent high water resulted in damaging the bridge so that it has sunk about four feet in the center, and the caps are resting on the water.

A. M. Drake returned last Wednesday evening from a business visit of several weeks at Portland and other points. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Williams and their three children, who will make their home in Bend. Mr. Williams is a nephew of Mrs. Drake.

George and Claude Vandeventer arrived home Monday to spend the Holidays, after their first term at Willamette University. As another indication of the worth of the Bend schools, George states that they had no trouble in matriculating and that he enrolled as freshman without any difficulty.

The five pieces of embroidery, made by Mrs. Will Bates, and which were raffled at Lara's store, were won last Saturday by Miss Florence Young, 23 being the lucky number. In this instance that revealed number must have lost its hoodoo. The pieces were very pretty specimens of French embroidery.

Miss Sarah Wornstaff was taken quite ill last Thursday evening while playing basket ball, and passed from one fainting spell to another for some time. She was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Allen, where she is staying while attending school, and Saturday was taken to her home east of town.

The Whatsoevers desire to thank the members of the band and the people of Bend for their liberal contributions and support to the Dutch Market. About $90 was realized (gross receipts), which will be used to meet the general expenses of the church, for the assistance of the sick and needy and like worthy purposes.

Lara's store was the scene of a small fire last Friday evening. In lighting the gasoline vapor lamp, which hangs over the south show window, one of the mantles became loosened and dropped among the Christmas decorations. The fire was extinguished in a few minutes and there was but little resulting excitement. The damage was slight.

MONEY

FOR OUR HOME PEOPLE

We believe that the people who deposit their money at home should have the benefit of it.

We believe in taking care of home interests always.

The farmer who has necessities to buy for winter and wishes to hold his crops for better prices, should be taken care of by his home bank. The merchant who wants money to take advantage of low prices should be able to enlist his home bank in his enterprise. The man who desires to purchase a home, a farm, or advance his business interests should feel free to call upon the Home Bank for whatever help he wants.

The First National Bank of Bend adheres strictly to the above principles. The money deposited with us by the people will be employed to supply home demand.

We do not believe in buying foreign paper and then be compelled to refuse our home people when they require a loan. Our policy is to be able at all times to give the people such service as satisfies their demands.

Give your business to The First National Bank of Bend, the Home Bank; the Bank that does you favors, your friends and neighbors.
