In and look over our list of irrigated land. We have the largest list in Crook county and are satisfying investors every day. If you have anything to sell, let us sell it for you. We have more buyers than land. Come in and list your city property with us. Our list is almost exhausted and we have buyers waiting. Why pay rent when we can loan you money to build a house of your own. The interest is less than rent and, when you pay, you are paying for something of your own. Come in and let us explain the proposition to you. You will be glad you did it. We are agents for the Harney Valley Oil & Gas Company, the best stock proposition in Eastern Oregon. You had better investigate this.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

The Bend teachers attended the bazaar Friday night in a body and bought their suppers of the ladies.

The grades are preparing a program to be given Friday afternoon, the last day before the Holiday vacation.

Owing to severe illness, Miss Sarah Wornstaff was taken home and will not return until after the Holidays.

The basket ball girls are elated over the fact that they have gained one victory over the boys, the score for the first game Thursday night being 6 to 7 in favor of the girls.

Miss Lita Richardson and Mrs. Innes were visitors at school last week. We are very glad to welcome visitors at any time and cordially invite them to come, especially the parents.

The eighth grade also debated on the question, "Resolved, That the streets of Bend should be graded." The affirmative was taken by Claude and Lloyd Kelley and Harry Spining; the negative by Luetta Wornstaff, Bessie Main and Elma Schultiz. The affirmative won.

The seventh grade had a debate last Thursday. "Resolved, That summer affords more pleasure than winter." Those on the affirmative side were Robert Innes, Clarence Sather and Willie Linster. On the negative, Ruth Caldwell, Gladys Brandenburg and Fay Deyarmond. The negative side won.

Ledford-Williamson.

William Ledford, commonly known to many throughout this section as "Kentuck," was married last Wednesday to Miss Jennie F. Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Williamson of Prineville. The honeymoon will be spent at The Dalles and Portland.
