The Natural One.

The "actors" that Lionel knows most about are the sort that do lofty feats in the circus. He has a proper appreciation of the danger of their calling and the means adopted for their safety. Recently, declares a writer in the Buffalo Express, he heard his father mention the name of Sir Henry Irving.

"Who is Sir Henry Irving, father?" asked Lionel.

"He was a great actor," said the father.

"What show is he with?"

"He isn't with any show now. He's dead."

"What happened? Did he miss the net?"

Stung.
The old gentleman went into the parlor the other night at the witching hour of 10:30 and found the lights out and his daughter and a dear friend enjoying a tea-tete in a corner by the window.
"Evangeline," said the old man, sternly, "this is scandalous."
"Yes, papa," she answered, sweetly. "It is candleless because times are hard. Lights cost so much Ferdinand and I said we would get along with the starlight."
And papa turned about in speechless amazement and tried to walk out of the room through a panel in the wall paper.

Recipe for Catarrh.
The only logical treatment for catarrh is through the blood. A prescription, which has recently proved wonderfully effective in hospital work is the following. It is easily mixed:
"One ounce compound syrup of Sarsaparilla; one ounce Tonic compound; half pint first-class whiskey." These to be mixed by shaking well in a bottle, and used in tablespoon doses before each meal and at bedtime. The ingredients can be gotten from any well stocked druggist, or he will get them from his wholesale house.

Changing the Label.
"Marie, who is the young squirt that comes here about six nights in the week to see Beattie?"
"You'd better speak a little more respectfully, John, of the young man who is likely to be your son-in-law."
"All right, Maria; what's the adventurer's name?"

Seems Probable.
They were looking at that celebrated statue, the Venus of Milo.

The dead past was burying its dead.
"It's a perfectly absurd performance," grumbled the d. p. "I'm only doing this because Mr. Longfellow tells me to do it."
A
Back of this seeming reluctance, however, there may have been a conviction that mankind would not begin to act in the living present until the funeral was over.
