

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Acts directly and peculiarly on the blood; purifies, enriches and revitalizes it, and in this way builds up the whole system. Take it. Get it today.

In usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs. 100 Doses $1.

One Successful Case.

"Doctor, you're not so foolish as to think you can make people good by performing operations on them, are you?"

"That depends upon what you call making people good. You can check their disposition to commit crime."

"As, for example?"

"Well, I once knew a man who was cured, by a simple operation, of a tendency to rob banks and hold up railway trains."

"Did you perform it, doctor?"

"No; I was merely called on to verify the result after the operation was over."

"Well, who did perform it?"

"A frontier sheriff."—Chicago Tribune.

To-Day and To-Morrow.

Happy men are full of the present, for its bounty suffices them, and wise men also, for its duties engage them. Our grand business undoubtedly is not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand.—Edward Fitzgerald, "Poisonus."

Save This Recipe for Colds.

Mix half pint of good whiskey with two ounces of glycerine and add one-half ounce concentrated pine compound. The bottle is to be well shaken each time and used in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours. Any druggist has these ingredients or he will get them from his wholesale house. This is wonderfully effective.

The concentrated pine is a special pine product and comes only in half ounce bottles, each enclosed in an air-tight case, but be sure it is labeled "Concentrated."

Died at Eighty-eight as Predicted. Prophesying early in life that she would live to see her eighty-eighth birthday, Miss Julia H. Hancock, of Brockton, Mass., died a few days ago on the day she had previously set for her death. Infirmities of age are given as the cause. She gave no particular reason for her prediction, although she seemed imbued with the belief that her prophecy would come true.

The next time you feel that swallowing sensation, the sure sign of sore throat, gargle Hamlin's Wizard Oil immediately with three parts water. It will save you days and perhaps weeks of misery.

What's in a Name?

An amusing story has been told concerning Mr. Phillip's classic drama, "Elizium." When it was being played in America, two young girls were sitting together in the stalls at a matinee performance, and before the curtain rose the following conversation was heard: "Say, Maude, I know this play is going to be funny." "What makes you think so?" asked Maude. "Why, anybody could tell that from the name!" was the reply.—M. A. P.

Good for Sore Eyes.

For over 100 years PETTIT'S EYE SALVE has positively cured eye diseases everywhere. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

Point of Difference.

"Yes," said the bride of three short months, "I had made up my mind to remain in the spinster class, then John appeared upon the scene and I accepted him because he was so unlike other men."

"Oh, of course he's different," rejoined the envious lady friend. "He proposed."—Yonkers Statesman.

Your Hair Contrary?

Is it inclined to run away? Don't punish it with a cruel brush and comb! Feed it, nourish it, save it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula. Then your hair will remain at home, on your head, where it belongs. An elegant dressing. Keeps the scalp healthy. Does not change the color of the hair.

We certainly believe this, or we would not say so. Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula is a great preparation for the hair and scalp. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff. Promotes the growth of hair. Made by Dr. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Shear Nonsense

"Did your new chauffeur turn out all right?" "No; that's why he's in the hospital."—Puck.

"Talk," said Uncle Eben, "is sumpin' like rain. A certain amount is welcome an' necessary. But doggone a deluge!"—Washington Star.

Peter and John (seeing a large plate-glass pane being put in)—"We may as well go home. They are not going to let it fall."—Fliegende Blätter.

"How do you overcome insomnia?" "By the multiplication table up to twelve times twelve." "But I can't get the baby to learn it."—Cleveland Leader.

Mrs. Lapling indignantly repudiated the idea that her cousin Henry was an atheist. "He isn't anything of the kind," she said. "He's what they call an agnostic."—Life.

"I wish I owned an aeroplane instead of an auto." "Why?" "I could then look at my neighbors without feeling that everyone of them was wishing that I would take him for a ride."—Detroit Free Press.

Railway Guard (to man smoking)—"You can't smoke. Smoker—So my friends say. Guard—But you mustn't smoke. Smoker—So my doctor says. Guard—Sir, you shan't smoke. Smoker—So my wife says.—Punch.

"So you think that woman's first husband treated her badly?" "I should say so," answered Mrs. Fleming. "He employed lawyers to cut down her alimony in a way that was positively niggardly."—Washington Star.

Her—Richard! Why on earth are you cutting your pie with a knife? Him—Because, darling—now, understand, I'm not fluting any fault, for I know that these little oversights will occur—because you forgot to give me a can opener.—Cleveland Leader.

The old lady had had a severe illness, and she was relating its vicissitudes to a friend or two in the grocer's shop when the minister came in. "It's only by the Lord's mercy," she piously declared, "that I'm not in heaven to-night."—Argonaut.

"I'm sure I don't know why they call this hotel the Palms. Do you? I've never seen a palm anywhere near the place." "You'll see them before you go. It's a pleasant little surprise the waiters keep for the guests on the last day of their stay."—Pick-Me-Up.

Mrs. Hardcash—I want you to get me a divorce from my husband and an allowance of $1,500 a year. Lawyer—How much is his income? Mrs. Hardcash—It's about that. I wouldn't ask for more than a man makes. I am not that kind.—New York Weekly.

"Your political antagonist is calling you every name he can think of," said the agitated friend. "Don't interrupt him," answered Senator Sorghum; "it is better to have a man searching the dictionary for epithets than going after your record for facts."—Washington Star.

A love-smitten youth, who was studying approved methods of proposal, asked one of his bachelor friends if he thought a young man should propose to a girl on his knees. "If he doesn't," replied his friend, "the girl should get off."—Everybody's Magazine.

An Irishman fell from a house and landed on a wire about twenty feet from the ground. After he had struggled a moment the man let go and fell to the ground. Some one asked his reasons for letting go. "Faith," was the reply, "I was afraid the damn'd wire would break."—Medical Summary.

"That is a tender old poem." "Is it?" "But what did the poet mean here where he speaks of the children's hour?" "Why, I s'pose under the terms of the divorce decree each parent was entitled to have the children at certain hours. The judges don't usually draw it so fine, though."—Kansas City Journal.

"That woman next door is really dreadful, John," said a young married woman to her husband. "She does nothing but talk the whole day long. She cannot get any work done. I'm sure." "Oh," remarked the husband, "I thought she was a chatterbox. And to whom does she talk?" "Why, my dear, to me, of course," was the reply. "She talks to me over the back fence." Mr. Brown (rushing excitedly into the room)—"Marie, Marie, intelligence has just reached me—Mrs. Brown (calmly interrupting him)—"Well, thank heaven, Henry.—Brooklyn Life.

A Peep Ahead.

They were about to open the Panama canal in due form. "What are we waiting for?" asked the man who was to deliver the oration.

"We are waiting," answered the master of ceremonies in a husky whisper, "to see if we can't scare up a few American built ships to go through first!"—Chicago Tribune.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY

Buenos Aires has the finest opera house in the western hemisphere. It cost $10,000,000.
Statistics just compiled show that the average is 318 car rides a year for each inhabitant of New York City.

Five Chinese government schools are teaching railway engineering, and a sixth probably will establish a course.
The five largest office buildings in New York contain 2,309 miles of telephone wire and almost 10,000 telephones.

When dusting or cleaning the new tungsten lamps the lamp should be burning to prevent accidents to the delicate filament.
The average person does not experience any sensation from an electrical current until the pressure reaches about thirty-five volts.

The largest electric sign in the South advertises the city of Montgomery, Ala. The sign is 75 by 85 feet and contains about 2,500 lights.
Since Manchuria was converted into a province its expenditure has increased rapidly. Its balance sheet last year was six million taels on the wrong side.

Rio Janeiro, with a population of 900,000, spent more money for public improvements last year than any city in the United States, excepting New York.

The submarine cables of the world cover a total of 278,208 miles, distributed among 2,053 cables. Three-fourths of this total mileage is owned by private companies.

There has been much dispute as to whether whales can utter any sounds. A writer in Kosmos says that he and forty other persons who witnessed the throwing of a harpoon at a whale off the Brazilian coast heard a distinct groan when the animal expired.

Public watering troughs for horses were condemned as disseminators of disease by the State veterinarian of Missouri, Dr. F. D. Luckey, and by Dr. Schoenleben, of Kansas, at the session of the Interstate Association of Live Stock Sanitary Board in Chicago.

Mrs. Wyman, age 70, of Pittsfield, Mass., recently broke all records in her pie-making career. She made seventy-two pies of nine different varieties as follows: Custard, apple, coconut, prune, raisin, squash, chocolate, blueberry and lemon. Mrs. Wyman did the work alone and had it finished by noon.

A shell which will hit two marks will be tested this fall. The solid steel head of the shell contains a charge of high explosive which is detonated on impact. Back of this is the shrapnel chamber, containing 120 bullets and a charge of high explosive. The shrapnel portion can be timed to explode above a body of troops, leaving the solid head of the shell to pass on and strike elsewhere.

A woman in Worcester, Mass., was surprised at receiving extra large bills for gas used the last two months and on investigating the matter found that her new maid was keeping a teakettle singing on the gas stove all day long. In answer to her query as to the reason the maid informed her that she felt more like working while the kettle was singing. The maid now works without accompaniment.

Japan can boast of the most luxurious prison in the world. It is about fifteen miles from Tokyo. In the midst of gardens, where flourish medlars and cherry trees, encircled with ponds bearing fine crops of water lilies, rises the mass of spacious and airy cells. Lighting throughout is by electricity. Among other features are bathrooms with marble baths, hot and cold water, dressing rooms and reading rooms.

In olden times thumbscrews were used to torture prisoners into confession, and thus gain from them secrets that only intense bodily pain would bring forth; but this, with many other fiendish means of torture, was left behind by advancing civilization. Now, however, it has made its appearance again, but as a means of self-inflicted torture, says Popular Mechanics. It is the newest altdo-beauty fad of Europe, and its enclision is to squeeze the tips of the fingers until they change from fat and pudgy to long and tapering.

Lions are said to walk about the palace of Emperor Menelik of Abyssinia and injure no one, and are docile at the least sign from their master. A Russian visitor demanded of Menelik how it was that his gentle pets respected such and such a visitor. "They have scent," replied the emperor. "They know the smell of an ambassador. They know they must not cause trouble between me and the foreign powers. They are diplomatic lions." The queen added: "They once devoured before me an Italian consul. It was afterward found that he had not his letters of credence. He was not in order, and I excused the lions."
