Rosland News.

ROSLAND, Jan. 15.—Frank Hogue has been building a bridge across the river at Rosland and has it all completed with the exception of the planking.

A. G. Anderson went to Bend Saturday. He will make final proof on his homestead Monday.

We have a little more snow every night, but it all counts as it falls in the roads every night.

Mrs. Beasley now has the Rosland hotel and from reports is giving excellent service.

Mr. Corbin intends to make a trip East for his daughter in a short time. Mrs. Richie will stay with Mrs. Corbin while he is away.

Hay has become a scarce article in this country.

Joe Howard drove a bunch of beef cattle through town today.

CROOKED METHODS.

beled 'One of the Irrigation Projects Near Hillman.' This scene might have been at some of the work being done by the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company, in the vicinity of Bend, but is not tributary to the Hillman locality in the sense that the promoters convey. Neither of the other two pictures is of any work near Hillman, and they are wholly misleading.

More Deception.

"On still another page is a picture of the Baldwin Sheep & Land Co.'s home ranch on Hay Creek, the label under it being 'On County Road Between Hillman and Prineville,' which is false. On another page is a thrilling scene, which bears the title, 'O'Kelly's Threshing Outfit, Near Hillman.' This is a photograph taken of a wheat field and threshing outfit near Madras, many miles from Hillman.

"The most deceptive of the homebuilder is found on next to the last page, where there is a great stack of wheat sacks, bearing the title, 'Sacked Wheat Ready for Shipment near Hillman.' The nearest point where this picture could have been taken, say the Crook county people, is Sherman county, possibly 100 miles from the Hillman townsite.

"Another photograph on this page shows an alfalfa field, with a white peak rising above the horizon, which is said to be an impossible picture in Crook county, and another picture is of a great cornfield, which, if not impossible, is at least improbable, and has nothing to do with the Hillman location."

Messrs. Cooper & Taylor defend their literature by saying that "Near Hillman" may be construed to mean miles and miles away. They also insist that they purchased the photographs used from a special photographer, as having been taken in Crook county. And finally they say that they are boosting Crook county and Central Oregon, that they have been the most progressive and that rival and jealous interests are making complaint.

Objections have also been made to the literature put out by the Opal City promoters, but the objections are mild compared to those made against Hillman.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

W. A. Bates is enjoying a visit from his brother, T. W. Bates, of Seattle, Wash. This is the first chance the brothers have had in 27 years for a good visit, and they report they have been embracing the opportunity to the fullest extent during the past week.

The firm of J. C. & M. A. Robinson of Madras has this week completed the sale of its store and mercantile business to the Central Oregon Mercantile Company, which is composed of R. T. Olson of Seattle as general manager, who is associated with other Seattle gentlemen.—Pioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Persons are recent comers from the irrigated sections of Idaho. Mr. Persons has bought the Barney place on the upper river, and will make his home there. He thinks that part of the Deschutes valley will make a great dairy and stock country, and undoubtedly is correct.

Dr. H. P. Dancer attended the meeting of farmers in Laidlaw last week and put in his order for a ton of landplaster. He stated that 75,000 pounds of this fertilizer has been ordered, and many farmers will give it a trial on their land the coming season. The price paid is $9.00 a ton delivered at Shaniko.

Monday the Home Land Company closed a deal whereby the former Frank Glass property nine miles north of Bend was sold to Frank Fitzgerald of Pomeroy, Wash., the consideration being $3,800. The tract comprises 160 acres and lies under the Swalley ditch, is fenced and has 50 acres under cultivation.

W. B. Sellers is circulating a petition praying the county court to condemn the old county road known as the Bear Creek and Paulina road insofar as it does not coincide with the streets of Bend. The road, running east of the Pilot Butte Inn, cuts up some town property quite badly, and of course there is no need of this within the city limits.

Joe Howard and Z. M. Brown, who have the contract for supplying beef for Porter Bros., were in town the latter part of the week and are making arrangements to build a large slaughter yard near Madras. They have leased a piece of land southwest of town and will begin the construction of the buildings as soon as material can be placed on the ground.—Pioneer.

The Bulletin is in receipt of a copy of "The Student Engineer" in which is an interesting article relative to railroad construction in Central Oregon, and which is entitled "The Great Race for Central Oregon." The Student Engineer is published by the students of the state school at Corvallis, and the copy was sent by J. McKay, who is now attending that institution of learning.

Porter & Conley, who have a sub-contract under Porter Bros., arrived in town last Thursday with 10 or 12 wagonloads of camping outfit and equipment. Yesterday morning the party started for the Deschutes canyon, where camps will be pitched a short distance below the Ed. Campbell place. Porter & Conley's contract reaches from the Campbell place to near the mouth of Trout Creek.—Pioneer.

J. E. Morson, president of the Deschutes Land Company, writes from Portland to the Bulletin as follows: "I see by your issue of January 5 that your Board of Trade has very patriotically purchased 5,000 copies of the Oregonian New Years edition. Permit me to say that this company has purchased for free distribution 10,000 copies of the same edition, and I would thank you to say through your paper that if any of your readers will send the names and addresses of any persons whom they wish to have a copy, we will be glad to mail to such persons, without cost, that part of the paper which deals with the Deschutes river and Central Oregon."

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Grimes returned the latter part of the week from a New Year's visit at the old home at Salem. They went out during the stormy weather of the latter part of December, and had quite a hard trip out to Shaniko. Mr. Grimes brings in the same report that all others do, namely, that when it becomes known that one is from Bend, he is simply besieged by people who are interested in this section. He says there is great interest in the Valley concerning Bend, and that many will come over in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Grimes enjoyed the visit very much but say they are glad to get back. Mr. Grimes is local manager of the large ranch of the Pilot Butte Ranch Company.

Tumalo News.

TUMALO, Jan. 15.—The snow is slowly going off in these parts and a few days' chinook will take it all.

Frank Arnold of Gist was in these parts one day last week.

P. A. Wooley and wife made a business trip to Laidlaw yesterday.

There is some talk of a new sawmill being installed in the vicinity of Tumalo.

P. A. Wooley is expecting some friends from Washington who intend to locate in this country.

Chas. Wimer was at Bend yesterday on business.

I. H. Root went to Shaniko last week after freight for Mr. Horner of Laidlaw.

Dr. Coe of Bend passed through here one day last week in his auto.

I. E. Wimer killed a wild goose last week that measured 5 feet 8 inches from tip to tip of its wings and was fat as butter.

Several flocks of geese have passed over here in the last week, going south. About 40 of our young people meet last Friday night at Mr. Root's and proceeded to Mr. Mock's where they gave them a complete surprise. Games and other amusements were indulged in until 12 o'clock, when a delightful lunch was served. The merry makers enjoyed themselves until 3 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Mock showed their appreciation of the pleasant surprise by turning the house over to the merry makers and joining with the crowd, and to say they had a jolly good time is only telling the least of it.
