SOCIAL EVENTS ARE MANY.

visitation last Thursday and spent the evening very enjoyably in dancing and social good cheer. Refreshments were served and a jolly good time had by those present. It was a very informal affair and was conceived and gotten up in a few moments, but was a very pleasant event, as these informal gatherings always are.

A Birthday Remembrance.
Monday was the birthday of both Miss Ruth Reid and Mr. J. M. Lawrence, and in order to grace the occasion with some form of remembrance, Mrs. Lawrence phoned to a few friends and invited them to spend the evening as her and Mr. Lawrence's guests, Miss Reid being one of the number. Music and merry chatter passed the time away very rapidly, and added another pleasant evening to the week's festivities.

Prineville Stockmen Fined.
In offering their pleas of guilty in the United States court yesterday, three Prineville citizens informed Commissioner Cannon that they did not take the newspapers and had never heard that anyone had been fined in Oregon for surrounding the public land with wire fences.

The citizens who threw themselves on the mercy of the court were C. J. Houston, J. J. Ferguson and Oscar Faught.
Judge Cannon pointed out that they had profited enough from the exclusive use of the lands to pay annual subscriptions to the leading newspapers of Oregon for the rest of their natural lives, and imposed a fine of $100 each.—Oregonian.
