

Announcement

All our lines of Spring Goods are now complete and ready for you. The delay in obtaining our goods from Shaniko has been extremely annoying but we have at last succeeded in getting the bulk of our purchases.

We feel sure you will agree that a prettier line of Summer Dress Goods has never been brought to Bend. The line includes Dress Gingham, French Gingham, White Goods, Madras, Dimities, Galateas, etc., in fact, all the new and popular goods for this season's wear.

We have the exclusive sale of "LINEWEAVE," the most beautiful and serviceable white goods ever made.

We are also exclusive agents for the ever popular "Pictorial Review Patterns." Besides carrying a large assortment of patterns, we will have on sale "The Fashion Book," also a complete assortment of embroidery patterns.

The Spring number of "The Fashion Book" will be on sale next week. Notice the color plates illustrating the newest and best of this season's styles—and remember the price is only 25c including any Pictorial Review Pattern you may select.

Tom Roberts, for ten months superintendent of the Pilot Butte sawmill, left last week for Eastern Washington.

Nine and 10-inch envelopes, just the thing for mailing or filing away legal documents, for sale at The Bulletin office.

Lakeview last Saturday voted a bond issue of $40,000 for new school houses. Of 123 votes 113 were favorable.

Two homestead relinquishments for sale. In settled neighborhood All can be plowed. Write to Box 130, Bend, Oregon. 49-52

My office will necessarily be closed for two weeks from March 1 during my absence at Portland. DR. I. L. SCOFIELD.

Mrs. Ora Poindexter was thrown from a buggy while driving in Prineville Sunday afternoon and suffered severe injury.

A. B. Estebenet and W. P. Saunders have opened a real estate office in Shaniko under the name of Central Oregon Real Estate Co.

Elwood W. Roberts of Redmond, came up Saturday and returned Monday, purchasing Elmer Merrill's black team and driving it home with him.

Judge Ellis was at Prineville last week attending the March session of the county court. Mrs. Ellis also went over and spent the week at the county seat.

Mrs. C. S. Hudson this afternoon entertains the Bridge Club in honor of Mrs. L. B. Baird.

The Bend Concert Band will give a St. Patrick's dance in Lara's hall Thursday night of next week.

Charles Sipchen, of Stevenson, Minn., came in this week to look over the country with a view to investing and locating here.

J. H. Wenandy drove down from Crescent yesterday. He reports the snow all gone but an occasional small patch of ice in the road.

Rev. Mitchell will hold services in Bend next Sunday. After the morning service there will be a congregational meeting to consider plans for the coming year.

H. T. Hendryx, of Portland, who is to take a prominent part in reorganizing the old Columbia Southern irrigation project, was in Bend and Laidlaw this week reconnoitering the field.

Miss Williams entertained the Bachelor Maids Monday evening with a hop at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence. There were a dozen couples present. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. A. Boyd left this morning for Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Boyd returned to Columbus some time ago and the family will hereafter reside there. Mr. Rowlee accompanied Mrs. Boyd to Shaniko.

Glenn H. Slack of Spirit Lake, Iowa, writes that he expects to be present to watch the growing of Bend and surrounding country the coming summer. He has a tract south of town under the Arnold ditch.

Two new, high grade hydraulic barber chairs have just been added to the otherwise up-to-date equipment of the Innes & Davidson barber shop—the best place to get your haircuts, shaves, shampoos, baths, shines, etc.

C. L. Hotaling arrived this week from Ashland, Or., with his wife, daughter and son. The family will make their home here. Mr. Hotaling will erect a building on the Triplett lot on Wall street, which he recently acquired.

C. H. Ellis has sold his Powell Buttes ranch to a Mr. Apple and has moved to Bend, occupying the Fry house by the river. Mr. Ellis may go to contracting. Mr. Apple is moving onto the place. He comes from Newport, Washington.

L. B. Baird and wife and daughter arrived last Saturday night from Oklahoma to make their home in Bend. Mr. Baird is to be president of the new bank of The Deschutes Banking & Trust Co. The family is staying at the Bend hotel.

Two Great Northern trains were swept from the track near the west portal of the tunnel through the Cascades, in Washington, by an avalanche in the great storm of last week and 88 persons are missing thereby. Half as many bodies have been recovered.

John Bloss returned Sunday night from the East, where he spent the past five months. He was at his old home in the neighborhood of Scranton, Penn., two months, the first visit in 20 years; and spent two months in Northern Wisconsin. Now he is ready to settle down in Bend.

Among Monday's arrivals in Bend are R. M. Smith and Moul O'Donnell of Wellsville, Mo., who are here to invest and make their homes in Bend. They were accompanied by Dr. J. C. Blaine, a retired physician and capitalist, and C. W. Reed, another substantial citizen of Wellsville, who are looking for investments in this locality.

Ed. White, of Gist, was a Bend visitor Saturday. He has the Gibson ranch under lease and has sowed about 250 acres of it to rye. Mr. White likes to raise rye, which can be done without irrigation. He does not expect to be on the ranch sufficiently to attend to the ditches. In fact, he is looking for a stock ranch and wants to shift from farming to horse-raising.

W. J. McGillvray was in from his ranch in the Arnold neighborhood six miles southeast of Bend Saturday. He says the settlers of that section have started their spring plowing and other farm work. Mr. McGillvray will sow a lot of rye this week. There is no certainty of getting water through the Arnold ditch to this ranch before about July and rye will grow without irrigation.
