LAIDLAW LOCALETTES.

Mr. Bailey's family moved into Walter May's cottage on Cook avenue last week. Mr. May had the house painted and papered anew preparatory to their occupancy.

Miss Mollie Nichols, who has been confined to the house the past week, is somewhat better at present.

A son was born to Mrs. Jesse Harter Sunday evening.

Rev. Radford of Prineville preached to the people of Laidlaw Saturday eve and Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Radford expects soon to leave for southern California.

The Socialists held their regular meeting in the school house Sunday afternoon. Before the meeting the members partook of a basket lunch together.

Mr. Stiles, an ex-postmaster and old-time business man of Laidlaw, is in town and will remain indefinitely. He was accompanied from Portland by his daughter-in-law and grandson, who left Tuesday morning for the Matoles country with Mr. Updike, father of Mrs. Stiles.

Frank Murk returned Sunday evening from a trip to Shaniko with a load of seed peas and land plaster.

Mrs. Rena Andrus spent Sunday with Mrs. Bailey.

Mrs. John Bell and daughter left Monday for Trail Crossing where she will take up the duties as cook for Mr. Bayley and his workmen on the road at that place.

W. Perry, agent for the Capital City Nursery, was in town last week delivering his orders to his customers in this vicinity.

W. P. George of New Mexico is spending a little time in Laidlaw visiting old friends and looking after his property in this vicinity.

The Development League is putting up the street signs this week.

Sherwood Bros. are preparing for spring seeding. They have two tons of seed and land plaster.

Fred Wallace sent his teams to Shaniko for land plaster.

The farmers in this vicinity have just received a large consignment of clover and field pea seed.

Chauncey Becker is clipping the coupons from his ranch this year in the form of forty dollar day.

Wm. Hall has a new team, cow, flock of chickens and is settled down to farming again.

Mr. Sirey has Dayton's plainer in shape for work and as soon as the engineer can be installed, we shall hear the wheels of industry hum.

Jack McCormic sold his place this week and bought some timber land.

Manager Hendryx of the Columbia Southern Irrigating Co., will be in town in a few days. Much satisfaction is expressed with the new management. Such preliminary work as has been done could not have been executed better. Engineer Seeley is a very able man and speaks very favorably of the project.

The Tumalo Neighborhood.

TUMALO, April 12.—F. N. Wallace was in Tumalo today on business.

I. R. Wimer and Chas. Spaugh are clearing and plowing 20 acres of new ground, which will give them about 200 acres in crop this year.

Geo. W. Wimer & Sons have about finished their spring plowing and will put in about 110 acres of oats this spring.

P. A. Woolley & Sons are busy plowing and putting new land in shape for spring seeding.

Water is now running in both the C. S. I. and Wimer & Woolley's ditches, having been turned in last week.

John B. Wimer was one of the lucky winners in the Laidlaw rebus contest of a third prize of a check for $50 offered by the C. W. Davis Co. of Portland, some time ago.

H. T. Hendryx, manager of the Oregon, Washington & Idaho Finance Co. of Portland, who has taken over the C. S. I. Co. works here was a pleasant caller at Tumalo last week. Mr. Hendryx is very well pleased with the progress the surveyors are making with the reservoir site and stated they hoped to have a crew at work on the dam and new feed canal soon.

Jess Root and Chas. Wimer were in Bend today on pleasure and business.

A Tumalo hen yesterday thought she would break the record for large eggs, so laid one that measured 8½ inches around the long way and 6½ inches the other way and weighed four ounces. That was going some!
