An Easy One.

"Tommy, do you know the meaning of 'prehensils'?"

"No, ma'am."

"It means 'adapted to seize.' Do you think you can remember that?"

"Yes'm."

"Give me a sentence in which the word is correctly used."

"See the good ship, how prehensils it is!"

No Appetite

"I took Hood's Barasapilla when I was a very sick woman, had no appetite whatever, and could not sleep more than three hours a night. I was persuaded by a friend to try it, took two bottles of it, and it greatly benefited me, gave me a good appetite and sound sleep." Mrs. John Edens, 220 W 3rd St., Davenport, Iowa.

Hood's Barasapilla restores the appetite and makes sleep sound and refreshing by building up the whole system. It purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, aids and perfects digestion. Take it this spring. Get it today in usual liquid form or tablets called Barasatals. 100 Doses One Dollar.

A Skillful Aviator.

"Are you interested in these aviators?"

"Intensely. I watched one this morning who was an adept. He rose, dipped, circled, turned corners and alighted without trouble and without a mishap."

"Well, well! He must have been a bird!"

"He was; of the sparrow variety."—Washington Herald.
