

COMPARISON

BY HONEST and fair-minded comparison is the only way anything may be judged. One article is better than another only by comparison. One Store is better than another only by comparison. In comparing one store with another there are many things to be taken into consideration. To compare prices without comparing quality of merchandise is not fair, either to yourself or to the Store. As the famous Mr. Dooley says, "The sweetness of low prices never equals the bitterness of poor quality." An article of poor quality is never cheap at any price. No Store can build up a permanent business by selling poor quality goods, sold at apparently low prices. The very rapid increase in our business speaks volumes in regard to the quality and price of our merchandise. There's a reason, and comparison will show you why "THE BIG STORE" is universally regarded as
