

Celebrate the 4th

AT BEND!

OF COURSE YOU WILL---Everybody will---except a few "dead ones", and those don't count. We want you and all your friends to join us and we will make it a really, truly GLORIOUS FOURTH. There will be something doing every minute for everybody---old and young. When you get here we will give you the best time you ever had. If you don't come---well, we will both be the loser. And now about "fixing up" for the Fourth. Everybody will want something. The Ladies a pretty light dress, white canvas shoes and hose and all the little things that you know so well how to use effectively. The Men---a nice soft shirt with tie to match, a pair of tan shoes with hose to match, and a dozen other things that every man needs. The Children---lots of firecrackers, torpedoes, cap pistols, of other things to make a noise with. But we won't have these until Saturday before the Fourth. All these and more you will find in large chunks at "THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES." We are going to give you some SPECIAL VALUES---much better than usual---and these prices will be good until the night of the Fourth.

FOR SALE—Fine Jersey cow. Price $50. Property of Dan Smith, of Laidlaw. Cow at Aune's Barn, Bend; inquire there.

Relatives in Bend have received word that a girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Boyd, in Akron, Ohio, last week.

C. D. Brown has resigned his position at Lara's store and is associated with Elmer Niswonger in the Central Oregon Realty Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith and their daughter of Tacoma have come here to prove up on their irrigated ranch three miles to the east.

FOR SALE—One Economy Chief Separator, medium size. One Single Section harrow. One 12-Inch plow. Address P. C. B. care Bulletin. 13-16

Mrs. Schulte's bakery, hitherto on Bond street near the Bulletin office, has moved. Hereafter her bread, cakes and pies will be on sale at the O'Donnell meat market.

The weather record shows goodly showers on Friday the 10th and Wednesday Thursday and Sunday, the 15th, 16th and 19th. The heaviest rain of all fell this morning.

C. D. Brown and S. C. Caldwell went to Portland last Saturday as local delegates from Deschutes Lodge 103 to the Grand Lodge of the K. P. now in session at Portland.

Hugh O'Kane returned last week from a ten-days' trip to Portland. He says that the Rose Carnival was the best ever held, and that the city was crowded to capacity.

Miss M. E. Kershaw, who has been absent in Portland and elsewhere during the winter, has returned and is visiting Mrs. Drake. She will go to her homestead on Big River soon.

O. M. Patterson of Seattle has leased the old Postoffice building on Wall street and will establish a drug store there as soon as he can install his stock, which already is on the way.

Dr. W. W. Faulkner, a skilled Douglas county dentist, has decided to open an office in Bend and locate here permanently. He will probably be ready for business within the coming two weeks.

The law firm of Bergland & Parker which occupied an office in the First National Bank building, has dissolved, Parker retaining an office in the Bank building, Bergland one in the Johnson building.

FOUND—A small sorrel horse, weight about 700, branded O. D. on right shoulder. Strayed onto Davenport & Stanley ranch. Owner may have by proving ownership and paying keep.—J. D. SIMS. 10-15

James Turner has sold his Powell Butte ranch to J. S. Parminter of Bend. The property embraced 160 acres, 100 irrigated and the rest dry farming, just east of the River Bed. The consideration was $4000.

Mrs. C. B. Allen and her daughter Ethel returned yesterday from Corvallis, where the latter has been attending school during the winter. Mr. Allen met them here and took them to their home at The Meadows.

G. T. Rowan, of Culver, was in town yesterday. On his return to Culver he intends to start out in a wagon for California with his family, to spend the winter in that state, returning early enough for spring planting.

G. W. Triplett is down from his homestead for supplies this week. His place is in the forks of the river above Vandeventer's.

The strawberries supplied for the Methodist social last Thursday were all home grown, coming from the Wilkinson ranch. The Wilkinsons have marketed a considerable quantity of first-class berries this season and are still at it.

Miss Marie Dewey, daughter of Col. Dewey, of Nampa, Ida., arrived Saturday. The car in which Miss Dewey came from Shaniko to Bend, belonging to the Central Oregon Auto Co., left Shaniko at 7:30 and arrived in Bend at 1:30.

C. B. Williams, of Chicago, brother-in-law of Miss Coleman, returned to the east Saturday, after having established his wife and her sister on their ditch land near the Johnson ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Kerr, also of Chicago, have taken up residence on ranches near by.

John F. Taggart came to Bend last week with his daughter, Miss Tot, who has taken a position in the First National Bank. Mr. Taggart has been busy about the new fruit store and bakery of his brother, in which he is interested, and examining somewhat into the progress of the country.

W. H. Courtney of Laidlaw was a Bend visitor Thursday, bringing for some of his friends substantial evidence of the success of his strawberry patch. He also has a number of apple trees and plum trees well loaded with fruit this season, their first bearing demonstrating that the locality is suited to the production of such fruits.

Glen H. Slack, who has 160 acres 3 1/2 miles southeast of town, has returned from a long visit to his home in Iowa. With him is his wife, formerly Miss Eva Sphon of Winifred, North Dakota. Mr. Slack says that in Iowa there is a great interest in this section and within a few months many families will move to Central Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Caen, who occupied a tract of Columbia Southern land near Laidlaw two or three seasons and then went East, have returned from Grand Junction, Colorado, and will make their home on their irrigated land. With the development agencies now at work in the Deschutes Valley, making a market for farm products, they are convinced this is the place to make a home.
