

Lara's

THE BIG STORE

Specials Until the 4th!

Fancy Dress Gingham

Choice of our entire line, all colors, and over 30 different styles—per yard only 12½c

Fancy French Gingham

A very fine piece of goods, pinks and blues, plain colors and fine checks—Per yd., only 25c

Fancy Eclipse Cheviots

A fine quality goods of exceptional wearing qualities, 15 beautiful patterns—per yard 17½c

36-Inch Percales

Nothing better to be had—Fast colors, staple patterns—Per yard 12½cts

Fancy Lisle Hose

Plain and embroidered—black, white, pink and blue—per pair Only 50cts

Pure Silk Shirts

The best to be had and good enough for anyone. Special until the Fourth—only $3.00

Silk Shirts

White with fancy stripe, a beautiful shirt—Special until the Fourth, at only $2.10

Mercerized Chambrey Shirts

All colors—steel gray, pink, blue, white—all fast colors—Special until the Fourth, only $1.65

Tan Oxfords for Men

A swell shoe, wing tip, swing last, cool and comfortable. Special until the Fourth $3.75

4-in-hand Ties

A beautiful line of the latest styles and colors—Choice of entire line, only 55cts

The above are just a few items from our immense stock. And new goods arriving almost daily.

Lara's

THE BIG STORE

THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES.

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

FOR SALE—Good milch cow. See L. D. Wiest.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole Smith were in town Saturday.

The Whatsoevers will meet at the Church on Saturday.

East or West it is the best. Cleveland's Baking Powder.

FOR SALE—Two big horses. Inquire of F. F. Smith, Bend.

Floyd Dement has put in a steel ceiling in his new hardware store.

Some good clean oats hay for sale at $30 a ton.—P. H. Dencer.

Mrs. Parks and son of Laidlaw were business visitors on Saturday.

The balance of the millinery stock in Mrs. Libby's store will be sold at cost. 15-16

Mrs. J. E. Sawhill has been visiting Mrs. A. M. Drake for the last week.

WANTED—Cook on ranch 15 miles east of Bend. Address M. C. Miller, Bend. 15-16

It is reported that a week ago Sunday 66 people were at the Fish Traps.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davenport drove in to town to attend church Sunday.

WANTED—Four men to work on cellar excavating at $3 a day.—A. M. Lara.

There will be an Episcopal service in the church Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m.

The Star Bakery is making a lot of fine bread these days in its big new bake oven.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Allen have been visiting at the Heyburn homestead on Big River.

Four barbers are now busy at Innis & Davidson's shop. They all do the best of work.

G. B. Sheritt has severed his partnership with C. H. Ellis, and is now operating alone.

Pure milk delivered at your door at 10c per single quart. Leave orders at Kelly's confectionery. 16-18

H. SPINNING.

The corral south of the Aune barn has been removed and sidewalk installed in front of it.

The Ericson building on Bond street, now occupied by the Star Bakery, has been repainted.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Roy Williams entertained friends at a bridge party. Two tables played.

Gooseberries and currants for sale. On the bush, 30c a gallon; picked, 50c a gallon.—Mrs. L. D. Wiest.

Cal. Eaton was in Bend the last of the week from his ranch east of Bend. He predicts fine crop yields this year.

E. J. Merrill has bought from W. B. Sellers the house in which A. A. Aldridge has been living, and moved in yesterday.

Miss Iva West, daughter of J. I. West, returns on Friday from Portland, where she has been during the winter studying music.

Mrs. B. F. Small from Long Beach, California, arrived last Thursday and will spend several weeks with Mrs. L. D. Wiest.

Messrs. E. T. Shaffer and B. M. Cole of Phoenix, Ore., are looking over local possibilities. They drove all the way from Phoenix via Klamath.

Irvin Reed returned to Bend the latter part of last week. As previously reported while in Seattle an operation was performed restoring his sight.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hobbs of Powell Buttes visited friends in Bend last week. Mr. Hobbs says he will have 250 tons of hay to harvest this year.

Rev. J. C. Elliott, late pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church, Albany, and Prof. Hans Flo, of Albany College have been in town during the week.

Will the person who purchased the box of apples at the Dutch market last December please remit to Mrs. Lucas?

THE WHATSOEVERERS.

Mrs. Schulte's bakery, hitherto on Bond street near the Bulletin office, has moved. Hereafter her bread, cakes and pies will be on sale at the O'Donnell meat market.

Last Friday eight automobiles passed through Bend on their way from Portland to Reno with passengers for the "Big Fight." There is a direct road from here via Lakeview.

Ask your grocer for the 3-lb. and 5-lb. cans of Cleveland's Baking Powder. They have the screw top metal handle under regular cover. Always air tight and useful when empty.

W. F. Carson, who for some time has been working with the Bend Townsite Co., left yesterday for Portland. It is understood that his connection with Bend is severed permanently.

Mr. Henry Whitson of Kansas was in Bend over Monday, coming with a letter of introduction from Tom Richardson who, says Mr. Whitson, is boosting Bend with a vengeance.

Foundation work has commenced on a residence for Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lara. The building is the first to be erected in Park addition. Hunnell and Niswonger are doing the masonry work.

Lost—Dark overcoat; a battery-tester in pocket. Lost between Bend and Redmond from auto last Friday. Finder please return. Suitable reward.

H. H. DAVIES.

FOUND—Bay horse, star forehead, weight about 1150, branded B6 on left shoulder. Now in Aune's Barn. Owner may have by paying city pound charges and feed bill. S. M. SCOTT, City Marshal. 17

The front of the old postoffice building on Wall street has been torn out and new store windows installed, preparatory to the moving in of a new drug store under the management of O. M. Patterson.

C. B. Swalley reports exceptionally fine crops on his ranch near Laidlaw. Oats are ten inches high and "cover the ground like a mat." He predicts this as a remarkably productive alfalfa and wheat season.

Hugh O'Kane reports that he and John Ryan have picked out a suitable location for the proposed Catholic school, etc. just east of the Sismore barn. The tract, which may be secured, embraces about 5 acres.

Messrs. F. A. Robertson, J. H. Blakeley, S. Stavton and J. King arrived yesterday noon, having driven over the mountains from Salem in a Ford car in a day and a half. They are on their way to Reno.

The parents and a brother of Mrs. F. M. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wheelock and son of Watertown, S. C., arrived in Bend the last of the week and expect to remain here. Mr. Wheelock was in business in Watertown but sold his interests there.

FOUND—Bay Horse—2½ miles east of Bend, on Bear Creek Road; weight about 1100 pounds, no brand, three shoes, white star in forehead, both hind feet white. Owner may have same by calling, proving ownership and paying expenses.—G. L. Moore. 16-18

"Roxy" Warford went temporarily insane last week while on his way in from Shaniko with Frank Woods, as a result of a drinking spree. After trying to kill himself he was taken to Prineville. "Roxy" formerly worked for the D. I. & P. Co. and is well known in Bend.

Postoffice Is Very Busy.

Postmaster Minor announces that owing to the great demand for lock boxes, box rent must be paid by the first of the month, otherwise boxes will be given to others. He says the number of registered packages has increased 50 per cent over that handled last year.

The Wise Farmer Buys a

McCormick Mower

BECAUSE---

They are heavier in construction, and will last longer under hard usage than other mowers.

The bearing surfaces are larger and the motion of the running gear is slower than on other machines. They cost no more than inferior mowers. Price..... $75

All ordinary repairs can be made at our store.

Bend Hardware Co.

Buy The "BRISTOL"

REMEMBER, THE

Fishing Season

Commences April First. We carry a full line of the very best

Tackle.

Big new shipment just in. Rods, Flies, Leaders, etc.

S. C. Caldwell

EVERYTHING for the Fisherman.

WHEN IN BEND STOP AT THE PILOT BUTTE INN

Table always supplied with the best that the town affords.

Neat and Comfortable Rooms.

BEND, OREGON

SATHER

CAN SUPPLY THE WANTS OF EVERYBODY

Enamelware

JUST IN.

THE VERY THING FOR CAMPING.

NEW STOCK OF

CROCKERY AND GLASSWARE

LAMPS, CAP JELLY GLASSES, HANDSOME

SETS OF

White and Gold China.

IT'S ALL WORTH SEEING AND IT'S ALL WORTH BUYING.

The Old Reliable Store.

E. A. SATHER

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

BEND, OREGON