BITS ABOUT TOWN.

A canoe has arrived for Frank Robertson.
Miss Iva E. West left yesterday for a week's visit to Prineville.
Mrs. C. M. Redfield and children returned from Condon last Saturday.
Lattin & Herrington are now well established in their offices on Bond street.
C. H. Ellis expects soon to go to the Willamette Valley to live, this climate being unsatisfactory to Mrs. Ellis's health.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lucas left last week for the Willamette Valley by auto over the Santiam route. They will return via Portland and The Dalles.

L. L. Fox left yesterday with his family for a ten-days' outing on the Upper Deschutes.

Sherritt & Woolley are installing shelving and counters in the new store to be occupied by the Siegel & Son drug store.

Following the masquerade Saturday Miss Veda Williams entertained a number of friends at a chafing dish supper.

Allen Wilcoxon and Dr. Wright were in Bend Monday on their way to Crane Prairie and the mountains for a bear hunting trip.

H. H. Houghton, who was injured last week by a dynamite explosion on the railroad work, is in the Bend Hospital, and is doing well.

A modern plate glass front and entire new shelving equipment will be installed at the Patterson Drug Co.'s store immediately upon the arrival of the glass.

Y. Numano, for several years Japanese Counsel at Portland, and who was a visitor here early in the summer and a Bend enthusiast, has been recalled to Japan.

On August 7th the middle peak of the Three Sisters, just west of Bend, was scaled by a party of four mountain climbers with the Mazama Club of Portland.

On Friday evening Miss Iva E. West gave a dinner in honor of Miss Ewing. The Misses Williams, Gertrude Markel, Robinson, Wilson, and West attended.

N. G. Fischer of Lyle, Minn., arrived last Tuesday. Mr. Fischer's family soon will join him here, to take up residence on an irrigated "80" five miles northeast of town.

Ralph Spencer has purchased lots 7 and 8 of block 3 in Deschutes from G. P. Putnam and will erect on them a house immediately. He now is tearing down his old house on "Garden Row."

R. B. Mutzig, who was called to Pittsburg June 11 on account of the serious illness of his mother, who died there last week, writes that he expects to return to Bend early in September.

An auto party comprising E. J. Jeffrey, G. Luders, W. J. Lions and J. F. Cahalin of Portland were guests at the Pilot Butte Inn Saturday on their way through the Deschutes Valley to Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Wakefield, their four-weeks-old son, and S. S. Wardwell came from Silver Lake in the latter's auto on Monday. From Bend Mrs. Wakefield started for Portland, her husband and Wardwell returning south Tuesday.

Robert Inness, son of Joe Inness, has launched a canoe on the pond which he built entirely himself. To him belongs the distinction of having constructed the first canoe made in Bend. "Red Wing" is the name of the new craft, which is 11 feet long.

J. N. Hunter and Carl Hunter have returned from Hood River after a 12-days' absence. With them is James Hunter, Mr. Hunter's father, who left Bend in 1905. According to their reports the Hood River apple crop this year will surpass all former records.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Frame have purchased from the Townsite Co. lot 2 of block 5, southwest of the Pilot Butte Development Co.'s office. It is their intention to erect a large dwelling there at once. It will be 36x30 feet feet, with an addition 14x24, of stone, with a cellar, furnace and hot and cold water in every room.

Frank C. Rowlee has been circulating a petition issued in the interests of the Oregon Home Rule Association. This organization would leave the decision of all matters pertaining to the government of towns to the option of the voters of the municipality itself. It is understood that Mr. Rowlee has secured a large number of signatures.

C. P. Niswonger, M. S. Lattin, John Vreidt, J. S. Dimick, Fred Van Matre and John Smith camped near Lava Island over Sunday on a fishing trip. Lattin, while fishing along the lava, came upon a family cougar, according to his companions, and having never seen one before was throwing stones at them when Vreidt happened along, saw what was going on and advised a hasty retreat to camp.

W. E. Scott, who came from Seattle with his family last November to take up residence on an irrigated "80" eight miles east of town, is fencing his entire place. He has five acres under cultivation. E. M. Thompson of Minneapolis with his family has just moved upon his "40" near Mr. Scott and is erecting a handsome bungalow, intending to make it his permanent home. R. H. Palmer is doing the carpenter work.
