CROPS YIELD FINE

REPORTS C. S. SEGREGATION

Improvements in and about Laidlaw, Movements of People, General News of the West Side Neighborhood.

Laidlaw, Or., Sept. 5.—J. N. B. Gerking is hauling lumber from Bend to his ranch for some new improvements. Mr. Gerking has an excellent crop of oats that before cutting stood 6 feet high and is very heavy.

The Anderson brothers are harvesting their crop of clover. It is making over three tons per acre.

The petition of George S. Young of Bend for surveyor was circulated here and secured a number of signatures.

Mr. Campbell, of Grants Pass, a grandson of Grandpa Wiener, passed through here last week on his way to Tumalo.

Mr. Meister, of Portland, was looking over our land prospects last week, and was so well pleased that he will locate here.

G. W. Horner is making decided improvements in his store building, on both Cook avenue and Fifth streets.

O. C. Young, of Culver Junction, got away from the rush of business a few days ago long enough to say "Howdy," to his friends here.

S. C. Schlattman of Montana, a civil engineer, is here looking up work and a homestead, both of which looks promising. He thinks this country is about right.

Mr. Ringo and family, with Mr. Moore and family, of Madras, returned here and hearty, and happy from their mountain trip. They brought out over 30 gallons of huckleberries. They report the mountains swarming with Indians getting their share of the berries. They experienced a snow storm on Sunday.

W. P. Myers, of Portland, this week brought in parties who are interested in finding a home, who were well pleased with the country. Mr. Myers has issued a pamphlet on Laidlaw and vicinity which is the best advertising matter ever brought out about this country. Copies may be had at the Laidlaw office.

Earl Benton and L. H. Hunt, of Redmond, representing the Law and Order League, held a meeting here in the church Saturday evening.

Fruit from Wheeler County.

Mrs. W. A. Bates has returned from a two weeks camping trip to her old home on Taylor creek, in the southwestern part of Wheeler county. Her father, E. W. Taylor, for whom the creek and valley are named, is a pioneer of that region. Mrs. Bates brought back specimens of fruit—Gravenstein apples, pears, peaches, prunes and plums—to show what that part of interior Oregon is doing, and to spur the Deschutes country to efforts in the same line. Mrs. Bates was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. A. D. Morrill and children, of Powell Butte.

Miss Carrie Taylor, sister of Mrs. Bates, returned with her to attend the Bend school the coming year.
