What are the farmers doing toward raising cattle and hogs for next season's market? A Redmond man paid $20 for pigs last spring. He has already sold enough to bring him $100 cash and has five hogs left. Their care and feed is a very small item in connection with a general farm.

Now that Jay Bowerman has been nominated by the Republicans for Governor, watch the Democratic Os West give him a run for his money. And we shall not be surprised if West beats Bowerman. West's record of public service is certainly better to date, but he has a heavy normal Republican majority to overcome.

The Deschutes country ought to be well represented at the district fair to be held in Prineville October 18-22. It will pay to exhibit there the products of this region. Nothing else will so convince the skeptics. Westenders should attend the fair, too. It is worth while to cultivate neighborliness. Premium lists may be had at The Bulletin office.

The dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times, whereby a score of innocent workmen lost their lives and property worth half a million dollars was destroyed, is another blot on American civilization. It is utterly repugnant to the spirit of American institutions. Labor has suffered under many disadvantages, it still suffers and always will, but such outrages will not remove them. While there seems ground for strong suspicion that the violent and long-continued hostility of the Times toward union labor provoked this fiendish crime, it is gratifying to see the responsible officers of labor unions condemning it and joining in the movement to discover the offenders. Vengeance cannot be permitted to supersede law and fair play.

The Arnold irrigation system is another illustration of the truth of the aphorism that "Great aches from little toe-corns grow." William Arnold entered a desert land claim seven miles from the Deschutes river seven years ago and then began to devise means of watering it. He found that a considerable problem confronted him. However, he was instrumental in organizing the Arnold Irrigation Company which struggled along and has finally surmounted all obstacles and achieved success far beyond anything at first contemplated by Mr. Arnold. This system now provides a means for reclaiming 12,000 acres of dry land, the water rights for which alone are worth today $120,000; the plant is now easily worth $200,000.

Publicity is a great cleanser of government—about the greatest we have. There ought to be more of it. If a corporation desires to make an indefensible contract with a State Board it goes quietly and gets the matter through before the public knows anything about it. If special contracts and privileges are desired from the County Court or City Council the matters are presented and worked through before the general public knows anything of them. If a few people ask for a new school district the Boundary Board proceeds, without any notice whatever to the old district, to dismember it. These things ought not to be. The public ought to have notice of all these matters before, not after, they are accomplished, so there would be opportunity for protest if found necessary or desirable. There should be more light on all such transactions. No contract involving public rights should be entered into without opportunity for hearing of all interests affected. The laws should be changed to require it, but in the absence of such mandatory statutes there is nothing to prevent present officials from acting upon this wholesome principle.

Ex-Senator C. W. Hodson of Multnomah county starts the rush of the "Old Guard" to get aboard the good ship Insurgent flying the Statement 1 flag. There will be no more "Assemblies" in Oregon to perpetuate the rule of the old machine. But it is small credit to anybody to discover this at so late a day. Anyone having the sense that God gave geese must have foreseen the result that has come as easy and natural as a summer sunrise. Abuses will creep into the new system as the Old Guard gets to pulling it around to the service of special interests and private cliques, and another renovation may then be necessary; but for the present the old-smoothies, the plug-uglies, the political parasites and pilferers and schemers who have for so long run the Oregon machine, are in a boat afar at sea without oar or compass or even bible, and the cause of popular government takes another step ahead.

Albert Abraham is All Right—Free Press and Liberty.

LOOKING GLASS, Or., Sept. 29.—[Editor The Bulletin.]—In your issue of the 21st inst. appeared an editorial wherein you spoke of Senator Albert Abraham's decency and worthiness of the nomination for the office of governor. I wish to express my gratitude to you for this just statement. Mr. Abraham's father was born in Poland, and his mother was Miss Julia Hinkle of Douglas County, Ore., and a daughter of one of Oregon's most prominent pioneer families. I have known Mr. Abraham since childhood, and I have always known him to be a man of sterling worth and integrity and a big-hearted whole-souled gentleman, "one whom no one can buy." Many papers throughout the state were afraid Mr. Abraham's issue would be rejected by the masses, and in part it was, but the vote of the three anti being divided gave it to Bowerman, a man who did not receive his nomination in a manner suitable to me. I like your independent attitude of expressing yourself so freely, and I feel that we would have a better state were all newspapers conducted on the same basis as yours. All is not lost while we have a single newspaper that is free. Given a free press, we may defy the insidious enemies of liberty. It instructs the public's mind and animates the spirit of patriotism. Its loud voice suppresses everything that would raise itself against the public liberty and its blasting rebuke causes incipient despotism to perish in the bud.

Ballots Were Wrong.

LAIDLAW, Or., Oct. 3.—[Editor Bulletin.]—The election returns for Crook County are not as they should be for Representative for the 21st district. We are entitled to two Representatives in the Legislature. The Republican ticket read "Vote for one" and giving the names H. P. Belknap and W. Lair Thompson when it should have read "Vote for two." The Democratic tickets were correct, "Vote for two," but they had no candidates. The majority of voters thought Belknap was running against Thompson and so marked their ballots. This is not a fair showdown for Mr. Thompson. In this case no harm was done, but the result would have been disastrous if the Democrats had run a man good and strong. We must do better next time. Prepared Roofing

As to Quality.

All manufacturers of prepared roofing have two or more grades, the cheaper grades being made of the less expensive materials. While making a serviceable roof, these cheaper grades do not have the lasting qualities of the first grades, and should not be accepted by a builder on the understanding that he is getting first grade material.

We have the first grades of the two largest manufacturers of roofing in the world—the RUBEROID and the GENASCO. These brands are required in government specifications, which is a guarantee of their superiority over other roofings.

As to Price.

By buying a full car of prepared roofing direct from the manufacturers we save the middleman's profit, and also the difference between the carload and the less than carload freight rates.

This is why we can sell the first quality roofing at the price usually made on cheaper grades; and we can sell the cheaper grades at correspondingly lower prices. We carry both grades and can save you money on either.
