DEFEAT COUNTY DIVISION.

(Albany Herald)

"There are no less than eight applications for the creation of new counties to be voted upon by the people of Oregon at this fall's election. Though there may be one or more of these new county schemes possessing some degree of merit and are prompted by good faith, it would appear that in the main they are not entitled to the favorable consideration of the people at large, and as a matter of expediency and good public policy all of them should be defeated.

"In the first place the Herald believes that the creation of a new county is a matter devolving upon the legislature and should not be submitted to a vote of the people at large, who cannot possibly have any intelligent idea of the demand for such proposed new counties and are, therefore, in no sense competent to vote upon the measures. What does the average voter of the northeastern part of the state know about the practicability or wisdom of the clamor of the southwestern portion of the state for the creation of a new county? Certainly, in the majority of cases, he would not be able to cast an intelligent vote on the proposition.

"The submission to a vote of the people of the whole state of these various county division schemes, therefore, would seem highly impracticable, if not unwise. Moreover, the success of these various division schemes would establish a bad precedent, which might tend to retard the healthy growth and reasonable prosperity of many counties of the state.

"There are doubtless counties in Oregon which should be divided into two separate county divisions, but these, the Herald believes, should be taken care of by the legislature and not voted upon by the people of the state at large, who cannot possibly judge of the merits or wisdom of the proposed division of a remote section of the state, and in which the voters at large can have no reasonable interest.

"Many of the county schemes up for consideration this fall are without question ill-advised and prompted by impure motives, and the Herald suggests a negative vote on all county measures as the most practical remedy for the present county division epidemic."

Some Political Ruminating.

The Bulletin prints the following communication as its columns are always open for discussion or the expression of opinion.

BEND, Or., Oct. 23—Editor Bulletin:—Kindly print the following which I do not claim any authorship or originality in, but simply reiterate what has been handed down through the ages by human nature and human effort:

Politics is a much greater force morally than actually. Every individual is a political unit whether he votes or takes any part in governmental affairs or not. The most ignoble savage of the South-Sea Islands is influenced by Shakespeare—can he tell why? The Portland Oregonian says that political principles cannot be analyzed. One believes concentrated power to be best for mankind, or a tendency to concentrate government, and he forthwith embraces the Republican party; another believes, or has that tendency, that the ordained right of social man rests in the individual unit of society, the head of the household, man, and he embraces Democracy. Both Republicanism and Democracy are subject to and acknowledge a condition of government, a country or an environment, to be a priori essential. So between the two great parties we have a balance of power.

Democracy believes in the spirit of the law, Republicanism in the letter of the law; and in that both are essentially right. Republicanism with morals would mean Romanism and monarchy; Democracy at zero morally would be nothing short of anarchy. However, we all are subjects of our environments and that is diversified and varied enough to enable everyone with ordinary intelligence to distinguish private and public propriety and to conduct themselves in a civilization.

It is further manifest that neither party will stand for the curtailment of individual liberty or rights of a citizen. Therefore the object of democratic government is to uplift the environment and to enforce the laws—to purify that which the individual demands.

Man is a social being, cast into the political mould without regards for his own volition, therefore everyone is responsible to government without regards for one's own mind or self. Politics is as deep as the elements and as profound as the sea. ELLIS L. KIRK.

FRESH PROJECT

IRRIGATION ENTERPRISE IS PLANNED NEAR CRESCENT.

Hunter Land Company may Reclaim 100,000 Acres with Water from Nearby Lakes—All Surveying Practically Finished.

L. F. Wakefield, F. Robinson and J. L. Ringo of Crescent have been in Bend the latter part of last week. Mr. Ringo, who has had charge of the engineering work in connection with the irrigation project there, states that practically all necessary surveying is accomplished and that the actual work of reclamation may be inaugurated in the early spring.

Some 100,000 acres of land will be irrigated, according to Mr. Ringo, with water to be taken from Crescent and Fish lakes. The project, it is understood, is fathered by the Hunter Land Co. of Portland, who own about half of the land affected. The rest, says Mr. Ringo, will be watered in conjunction with the government reclamation service. About 100 miles of canal will be required. All the land lies west of Crescent, and it now is covered, for the most part, with black pine. The country is said to have great promise as a dairying region.

whose postoffice address is Bend, Oregon, did, on the 15th day of June, 1910, file in this office Sworn Statement and Application, No. 6047, to purchase the SW 1/4 Sec. 24, T. 17 S., R. 12 E., W. M., and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1908, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised, the timber estimated 20,000 board feet at $1.50 per M, and the land $20.00; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 15th day of December, 1910, before H. C. Ellis, U. S. Commissioner, at his office at Bend, Oregon.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.
