

TAKING THE NORTHWEST TO THE PEOPLE

"The way to get people into the Northwest is to take the Northwest to the people." This is the firm belief of L. W. Hill, President of the Great Northern Ry., and that he has the courage of his 100,000 copies of literature were distributed describing the various districts. The Great Northern will start three exhibition cars on a circuit of Eastern States within the next two weeks.

convictions is demonstrated by the aggressive "homeseekers" campaign, the opening guns of which were fired at Pittsburg, Pa., during the Western Pennsylvania Exposition. The Great Northern secured space in the main building and installed an exhibit of fruit, grains and grasses from Montana, Oregon and Washington. Nearly

In addition to these cars, permanent exhibits are maintained at St. Paul, Chicago, St. Louis, Boston and Philadelphia. For the first three days of the Boston Exhibit the attendance ranged from 10,000 to 12,500. It will require about two million pieces of advertising matter to meet the demand for literature created by these exhibitions.

Leaders in Doll Contest.

The voting contest for the prizes offered by A. M. Lara & Company is being watched very closely by the little girls in and about Bend. The contest started November 10th and will close at 10 o'clock, Christmas Eve.

The Bend Library

The Ladies Library Club will not give the dance scheduled for next Saturday evening, as it was unable to secure Linster's Hall on that date. It expects to give a dance about two weeks hence.

The Club is now keeping the library open Sunday afternoons as a reading room, and desires that this become more generally known. The Club will meet again on December 6.

Wrestling Tonight.

Phil Thompson of Bend and A. R. Dorris, son of the Deputy State Game Warden, will wrestle tonight at Linster's Hall. The contest will be the best 3 falls out of 5, the strangle hold being barred.

Lived a Long Life.

M. J. Morrison this week received news of the death of his father, John Morrison, in Eastern Canada, at the age of 106 years. He enjoyed rugged health until a few days before his death. M. J. Morrison comes of a long-lived family, it being not at all unusual for both his father's and his mother's people to live 100 years. One of his maternal aunts lived to be 128 years old.

Water Users Meeting

The Water Users' Association will hold a special meeting next Saturday afternoon at the hall over the Bend postoffice.

W. E. Scott, Secretary.

Gist Locals

Gist, Nov. 21.—E. L. Gist, of Sisters, expects to build a modern hotel at Sisters. He has contracted with the Burkhard mill for 45,000 feet of lumber for that purpose.

Sisters has another sawmill which is located about 1 1/2 miles east of town.

Bob Davis is going to farm on a large scale next year from all appearances, as he has two farms rented and expects to rent another.

Jake Dinkle, of Sisters, is repairing most of the machinery for the Burkhard sawmill which was destroyed by fire last September.

There will be three logging teams employed at the Burkhard mill.

Dave Tryrear has charge of the Squaw Creek Irrigation Company's two ditches for the winter season. W. E. Burkhard and Frank Arnold have been to Prineville on a business trip.

Walter Case has returned from Madras where he has been for the past six months.

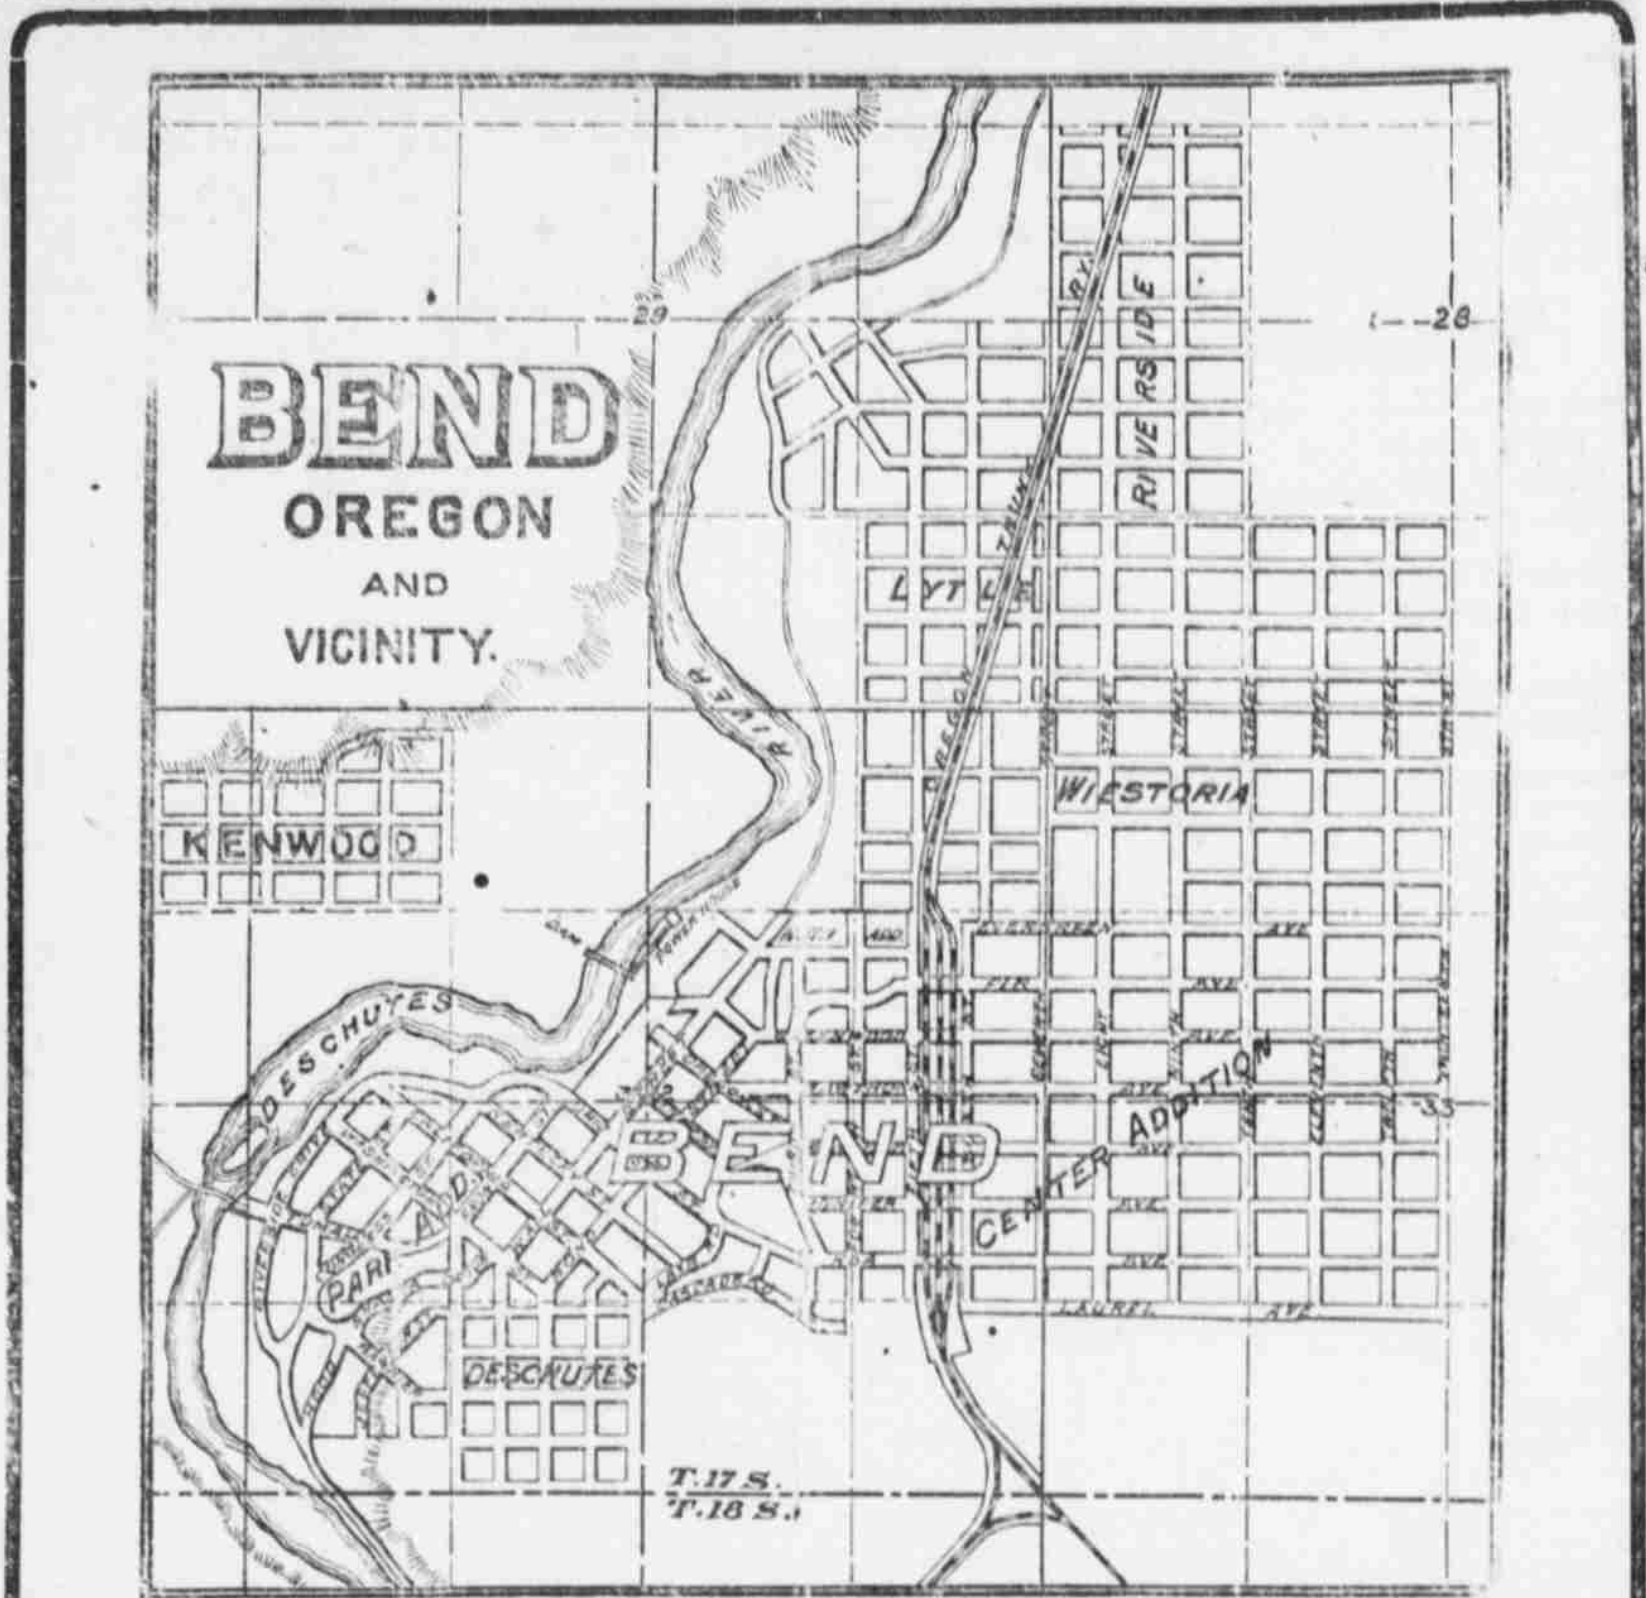

Laidlaw Notes

Laidlaw, Nov. 21.—Mr. Fryrear, of Desert Springs, was a Laidlaw visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hansen, of Redmond, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bart Nichols Thursday.

Messrs. Reddin and Erwin Couch, of Cunningham, Wash., arrived here Thursday to attend the funeral of their sister, Emily Couch.
