

PRACTICAL HELPS FOR CHRISTMAS BUYING

A LREADY the advance guard of Christmas shoppers has reached our store, and each and every one of them has found it the most desirable place in which to do their Christmas buying. They find it filled with many, many articles suitable for gift purposes ranging from the finest hand painted imported China down to the two-for-a-nickel toy. Each day sees more and more of these busy people flocking our way. The crowd steadily increases as the news spreads throughout the community of the many remarkable bargains to be found at Bend's youngest and newest store, the store that has created a sensation---a sensation due partly to its artistic coloring and arrangement, but most of all a sensation due to the surprising values to be found here at such reasonable prices.

We offer below a few practical helps for Christmas buying, and in passing we would ask you if it is not more pleasant and profitable to shop in a place where everything is absolutely brand new---not a single shelf-worn article---everything spic and span and clean and new. The suggestions below are only a few of the scores of Christmas articles that you can see at our popular store---space forbids a full enumeration.

JUST A HINT

We often hear it remarked that it is so hard to buy a Christmas gift for a man. To one thus bothered we suggest an examination of our gentlemen's fine kid gloves, each pair in a handsome holly box---a very appropriate gift. We also have some hand-some silk neckties in the latest shades, each tie enclosed in a pretty gift box. Or if either of these do not satisfy, what would be better than a fine pair of cuff buttons?

Other articles in our notions department that would make suitable presents are handsome hair combs and barrettes at from 25c to 40c; stocking caps at 35c and 40c; sweater coats for the little lad, 75c; hand-some bear skin hoods for the babe at 70c; and many, many other items.
