

BIG SAVING IN NEWSPAPERS

The Bend Bulletin has made arrangement with the Portland Oregonian for clubbing the two papers at a great reduction from the usual prices. In addition to such reduction, each yearly subscriber will receive free a set of the well known Rogers silver plated teaspoons, which usually sell for $2.50.

Daily Oregonian (regular price) per year	$6.00
The Bend Bulletin (regular price) per year	$1.50
Total	$7.50
Both papers (through The Bulletin) per year	$6.25
Saving	$1.25

Daily and Sunday Oregonian (regular price) per year	$8.00
The Bend Bulletin (regular price) per year	$1.50
Total	$9.50
Both papers (through The Bulletin) per year	$8.00
Saving	$1.50

The illustration shows the design of the teaspoons, which are of the popular Narcissus pattern, French gray finish and will last a lifetime. There are six of these spoons in a set and they go absolutely free to yearly subscribers at the rates above quoted. Send orders, accompanied by remittance to Announcement.

To our many friends and patrons of Laidlaw, Crook County, Ore.

Another busy year is ended and we pause for the pleasure of greeting our customers with our heartiest wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

In our review of business given us in the past we are pleasantly reminded of the valued favors received from you, and only have one regret for the past which we will speedily correct.

We have injured our customers as well as ourselves by extending credit in some instances beyond their ability to pay, thereby inducing and encouraging the credit system which is wrong.

We have spared no expense that our financial strength would permit in order to have an up-to-date, economically conducted, with honest prices and faithful service.

Now, in our New Year's resolutions, we have incorporated one which will be strictly adhered to. No account shall run over 60 days from date of beginning; cash or bankable 90 day note bearing 10 per cent interest will be our only terms of settlement.

Soliciting your patronage only when value and service given merits it, I remain

Very truly yours,
G. W. HORNBERG.
