AFTER BIG TRADE

PRINEVILLE MEN MOVE TO OPEN OLD ROAD.

Private Subscriptions Being Raised to Aid in Work—Bend Merchants Must be on Alert—Notes of the Settlers.

MILLICAN, Ore., Feb. 7.—Bend must be wideawake if it is to capture the extensive trade that will result from the rapid settlement of the sagebrush plains to the south-east. The business men of Prineville have their eyes on that section of country, and have already started a move to influence the homesteaders to trade in the county seat.

This is an effort to have the old Silver Lake-Prineville road reopened by the raising of private subscriptions. For some time this highway has been impassible owing to washouts, but when it is put in good shape many of the settlers will be as near Prineville as Bend. The homesteaders say, however, that they will continue to do their buying at Bend if the road is improved as it should be. They point out several places between here and town where there is needed work.

Mr. McGillivray says that Road Supervisor Richardson has announced that the difficulty encountered in the hill at the McGillivray ranch will be eliminated within a short time. He has already made plans for grading down this hill and it is expected that work will be started soon. The hill will be cut down and a fill made at the foot. The sharp curve will also be done away with.

Not only are outsiders coming in, but residents of Bend are becoming more interested and taking up homesteads also. Among this number is Assistant Postmaster R. M. Sanders, who last week picked out a 320 acre claim in Millican Valley. He intends to take up his residence on the claim in the summer.

E. R. Post returned Monday afternoon from Lake County where he took H. Solberg of LeSuer Center, Minn., to look over the country. Mr. Solberg was so well pleased that he closed a deal for a section and a half of school land in Township 24 south, Range 22 East.

In speaking of the crop prospects in the Glass Butte and Wagon Tire Valleys, Mr. Post said:

"The outlook is good in every respect. I saw grain six or seven inches high under the snow and well stooled out, insuring a fine yield. There will be other crops raised besides grain. For instance, Joe Street, in the Hampton Butte Valley, raised on twenty acres the second year's plowing sixty loads of alfalfa by dry-farming methods."

U. N. Hoffman went in Monday from his Tar Heel Ranch near Millican's to be initiated by the Bend Lodge of Odd Fellows. He will return tomorrow with supplies.
