

You Can Save Money on everything you buy if you watch The Bulletin for our "Specials" every week. The careful housewife wants to know where her dollar will give her the best results. Get the habit of reading our "ads" and taking advantage of our "specials." THEY ARE ALWAYS BIG VALUES.

Ladie's White Waists.

Right at the beginning of the season we are offering you exceptional values in warm weather waists.

$2.00 Waists for	$1.35
$1.25 Middy Blouses for	95c
$1.50 Middy Blouses for	$1.10
$1.50 White Waists for	$1.05

Ladies' Summer Skirts.

All tailor made and "Queen Quality." Blacks, blues, browns, tans and grays. An unusual opportunity in this line.

$6.00 gray stripe Serge	$4.95
$9.50 brown Voile	$8.10
$9.50 blue Serge	$8.10
$14.00 black French Voile	$12.10

Ladies' Petticoats.

The best quality gingham and chambrays. Don't overlook these special bargains. Tans, blues, grays and pinks.

75c Petticoats for	55c
85c Petticoats for	65c
$1.25 Petticoats for	95c
$1.75 Petticoats for	$1.35

Men's Hats.

Light weight Cravanette, tan color	$1.25
Rough Felt, gray or brown, regular $1.75---special	$1.25
"Shower Proof" Straws, fine quality Milan, regular $3.50---special	$2.75
"Conformable Shape", fits any head, entirely new in straw hats, regular $3.50---special	$2.75
Split Straws, blue band, very nobby, regular $3.00---special	$2.25

These are real bargains, and we can fit you out with just what you want in the hat line.

SUMMER COMFORT

is not complete without easy, comfortable shoes. The recreation hours are happier, and you can be assured of comfort and contentment. The materials and workmanship and the advanced ideas of the style makers insure you comfort and pleasure in and worth every cent of it.

THE Packard SHOE

$4.50, $5, $5.50

Our Stock is Replete with Summer Styles.

Men's Shirts.

Corduroys---tan, gray, olive---best wearing shirt made, regular $2.75---special	$2.10
Black Sateens, mercerized, extra quality, regular $1.25---special	95c
Khaki, heavy weight, extra large body, long sleeves, Reg. $1.25---Spec.	95c
Light Weight Gray Flannel, something good and servicable regular $1.75---special	$1.45

We have the very best line of shirts obtainable and the special prices now in effect will save you money. See our window display on Wall street.

THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES

Lara's always gives you more for your $ Lara's

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

Rasmus Peterson of Redmond was a visitor here Saturday.

John B. Wimer of Tumalo was in town Friday on business.

Mrs. W. B. Sellers has gone to Montana to visit relatives.

Mrs. Wheelock, mother of Mrs. F. M. Ray, left Friday for Portland.

Burr Black, who has been sick of pneumonia, is again able to be out.

L. F. Wakefield of Crescent registered Saturday at the Pilot Butte Inn.

Mrs. E. D. Wilson was ill several days last week with an attack of grip.

V. D. Harris came in Thursday from his homestead in the Glass Butte country.

Ralph Poindexter returned Sunday from a ten-day vacation spent mostly at Spokane.

William E. Douglas expects to leave this week to spend several months at Culver.

There was no meeting of the School Board Saturday evening owing to no quorum.

F. F. Post left Friday for Portland where he will be engaged in civil engineering work.

John Montgomery, Bivens Montgomery and Jean Hoss came over from Prineville Friday.

The annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer association will be held in Portland Wednesday, June 21.

Frank B. Clark will leave Sunday for Portland and Seattle on a combined business and pleasure trip.

J. L. Byrne is preparing to leave Bend for Anacortes, Wash., where he will engage in the salmon canning business.

Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Deuber of Silver Lake were here Friday on their way to Portland to attend the Rose Festival.

E. D. Sharp of Lodi, Cal., spent several days here last week looking over the field with a view to establishing an agricultural college.

A. Segal of the Red Cross Drug Store left last week on a business trip to Portland and San Francisco. He will be gone several weeks.

Charles F. Underwood returned the first of the week from a ten days' surveying trip in the homestead country to the southeast.

Mrs. Ovid W. B. Riley and daughter left yesterday for Portland. Mrs. Riley will undergo a surgical operation for cancer of the face.

The new street sprinkler was put to work Monday morning wetting the streets. It was used first on Sunday to sprinkle the baseball diamond.

The first carload of shingles ever to be shipped into Central Oregon was for The Overturf-Davis-Miller Co. They are now being hauled in from Opal City.

A. D. Katz, president of the Oregon, Washington and Idaho Finance Co., and O. Laugaard, chief engineer, were here from Portland last week on business.

Elmer Wood, the famous potato man of the Willamette Valley, who last year sold 1170 carloads of spuds, was here last week, going up to La Pine Friday on business.

A. T. Frame, it is understood, will put up a roadhouse, with store in connection, on the Bend-Burns road 62 miles out from here, in order to accommodate travel.

The Crook County Bank has placed an order for 90 barrels of lime with The Overturf-Davis-Miller Co. to be used in building its new banking house in Prineville.

Frank B. Clark has been engaged by Martin B. Donovan of Portland to draw the plans for a two-story brick business building which Mr. Donovan will erect at Redmond.

Mrs. W. G. Dickinson and daughter, Miss Dorothy, arrived Sunday night from West Seattle. They will join their son and brother, who has a homestead in Whitaker Valley.

The Crook County Summer School began at Prineville Monday. A thorough review will be given in all subjects required by the state examination, which will be held at the close of the school.

The following books have been donated to the library by friends of the institution: "The Port of Missing Men," by Meredith Nicholson; "The Lion's Share," Octave Thanet; "The Tides of Barnegat," F. Hopkins Smith; "Hylow Hill," George W. Cable; "The Aristocrats," Gertrude Atherton; "Holy Orders," Marie Correll; "Bar 20," Clarence Mulford.

E. R. Post now has an office with J. Ryan on Oregon street.

W. J. McGilvray left Sunday for Seattle on a business mission.

After June 1 the postoffice will be closed daily at 6:30 p. m.

J. M. Lawrence returned Monday from a business trip to Portland.

E. H. Dundas of Portland was in Bend the first of the week on business.

Allen Thompson, who spent the winter in Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Winniford of Roseburg are Bend visitors, staying at Hotel Bend.

The "500" Club will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Minor this evening.

George Millican was in town yesterday, leaving this morning for his river bed ranch.

E. T. H. A. and Mrs. F. Wares of Seattle are here looking for a homestead location.

Prof. J. C. F. Harrington left Saturday for Decatur, Ill., where he will spend the summer.

R. A. Puett has completed his bakery in Park Addition and will open for business tomorrow morning.

Dr. F. S. Sandborg has gone to Bellingham, Wash., on business. He will be away for six weeks or two months.

George P. Putnam, who went to Portland last Wednesday on a business trip, will not return before June 10.

A. L. French is having the material placed on the ground for the building of a five-room cottage 26x38 feet, in Deschutes.

C. M. Richards returned Sunday from a trip East. He was accompanied by M. A. Garrett of Oklahoma, who may invest here.

Mrs. C. E. Morse and Mrs. W. P. Smith went out Thursday to spend several weeks on their husbands' homesteads in Whitaker Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kulp will leave tomorrow morning for Portland where they will visit the Rose Carnival. From there they expect to go east.

Mrs. George S. Young is preparing to have built a four-room bungalow on lots 10 and 11, block 7, Wiestoria. It will be modern in every respect.

The regular meeting of the Episcopal Guild will be held tomorrow at the home of Mrs. E. D. Wilson. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Misses Dora Campbell of Seattle and Maude Pierce of Marysville, Wash., who recently filed on homesteads, have come in to establish their residence on them.

Miss Nettie Cast of Redmond, who came up for the High School exercises, returned home Thursday. While here she was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wiest.

The fifth and sixth grade baseball team went to Prineville Saturday and played an exciting game with the public school boys. After 14 innings the score stood 11 to 12 in favor of Prineville.

W. F. Walters and family, Peter and Arthur Zackrisson, all of Seattle, were in Bend Friday on the way to their homesteads in 20-18. They brought teams, wagons and household goods with them.

The first meeting ever held by the graduates of the Bend High School was that last Friday. The early part of the evening was spent on the river boat riding, and later an informal time was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. H. J. Overturf.

Mrs. J. H. Wenandy and Mrs. Frank Sutherland left this morning for Portland and Seaside to be gone two weeks. While in Portland Mrs. Wenandy will receive instructions in voice culture from Prof. Robard, one of Portland's foremost vocal teachers.

The High School wishes to thank Mrs. L. W. Lindborg, Miss Iva West, Miss Eva Graves, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hudson, Millard Triplett, the band and all others who helped make the class day and commencement exercises last week such a great success.

Mrs. Millard Triplett will entertain the Whatsoevers next Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. So far as possible all members will please respond to roll call by a scriptural verse. As this will be the regular monthly meeting and several important matters will come before the Society it is desired that all members be present. Strangers are cordially invited to attend.

Attorney S. P. Ness left last evening for Bend, where he will resist the cancellation of the homestead of a client in that neighborhood, within the Cascade forest, by the United States Government. He will be gone a week or ten days.—Eugene Register, 25th.

Sheriff T. N. Balfour sold at public auction Saturday afternoon the saloon stock of J. R. Williams, which brought $551.50. It was bought by Henry Fleckenstein & Co. of Portland, who had brought suit. Judgment and costs against Williams totaled $550.50.

Fulkerson & Barnard, lessees of Linster's Hall, are giving a good line of entertainment now. The weekly program is varied with moving pictures, roller skating and a dance on Saturday evening. Bend people seem to enjoy the bill, judging from their large patronage.

MISS CALDWELL WEDS

Daughter of Bend Merchant Bride of Eugene Man.

A wedding of interest to Bend people was solemnized at Eugene, Ore., Tuesday, May 28, when Miss Hazel F. Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Caldwell of this place, became the bride of Paul G. Bond, the ceremony being performed by the groom's father. The wedding was attended by Mr. Caldwell, who returned Friday night.

Miss Caldwell has been a student at the University of Oregon, where Mr. Bond is assistant in the physics department and taking post-graduate. Both are popular young people.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for a honeymoon trip. They did not let it be known what their destination was, but it is understood that they will spend some time in Southern California. They will make their home in Eugene.

Half of Our New Stock of

Rocking Chairs

Were sold three days after we got 'em.

Why?

Because they are the BEST LOOKING, the BEST LASTING and BEST PRICED Rockers you've seen.

E. M. THOMPSON

Successor to Thompson & Kennedy

Where your dollar does its duty.

Wall street, near First National Bank, Bend, Oregon.