PLAY ON JULY 13

LOCAL TALENT TO APPEAR ON STAGE

"Among The Breakers" Will be Presented at Linster's Hall—Comedy and Dramatic Situations Abound—Good Performance Promised

What promises to be one of the most interesting events of the summer program of entertainment in Bend is the play, "Among the Breakers," which will be given at Linster's Hall on the evening of Thursday, July 13, by local talent. It will be under the auspices and for the benefit of the Royal Neighbors.

The play chosen to be presented by Bend aspirants for honors before the footlights abounds in dramatic and comic situations. The scene is laid in the home of a light-house keeper and there is the fresh breath of the sea from first to last. A shipwrecked party spends the night with the light keeper, with the result that there are a number of important discoveries made. Old lovers meet unexpectedly and new courtships are started. Some amusing complications arise, to the embarrassment of the lovers and the enjoyment of the audience.

According to reports of those who have seen the company rehearse, the members of the cast have their parts well in hand, assuring a good performance. Several who have leading parts have appeared on the stage before, and hard drilling has transformed the others into players whose work will be worth seeing.

The Laidlaw Development League has arranged for a basket picnic to be held on the island adjoining the bridge the Fourth. Committees have arranged for different sports, insuring everyone a good time.

Evangelist Gregg of Culver, who conducted a meeting here recently, preached here Sunday morning and evening. In the afternoon he held services at the Pinehurst school house.

The new road grade between here and Cline Falls, constructed by County Commissioner Bayley, is reported by those who have traveled it to be one of the best in Central Oregon.

Misses Edna and Ethel Davis of Cleveland, Minn., who are making an extended trip through the Northwest, have been visiting the J. L. Couch family and relatives here.
