FATAL WRECK ON O. T.

One Passenger Killed, Others Fatally Injured Monday.

The first passenger wreck on the Oregon Trunk Railway occurred Monday afternoon at Dyke, about 15 miles south of Moody, and resulted in the instant death of one person and the injury of nearly a score more. The engine left the rails on a curve and rolled down an embankment, the passenger coaches going over on it. There were 40 or 50 passengers on the train. A sun-kink is supposed to have caused the wreck.

Louis Rising, a storekeeper of Warm Springs, was killed outright and five others were fatally injured. These were: Mrs. Rising, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Baker and son Morris, Sheridan, Ore.; Mrs. J. W. Rasmus, Ellsworth, Ore. About a dozen received minor injuries. They were all taken to The Dalles hospital.

Hal Hoss, who was returning to Bend from a visit to Salem, and P. H. Blossom of Cleveland, Ohio, a newcomer to Bend, were on the train but escaped unhurt. They reached here shortly before noon yesterday, not getting to Opal City until 6 a. m. Tuesday.

ACCEPTS NEW PLATS

Bend Park Passed on—Deschutes, Once Wesley, is Now Centralo

At the meeting of the County Court last week the chief action was the accepting of a number of plats.

After the representatives of the Bend Park Co. had presented the permission, for the use of that name, of the Bend Company and the Pilot Butte Development Company, the plat of Bend Park was accepted. Plat of an addition to Bend Park, that of the three Batten forties, east of town, also was passed upon.

The Central Oregon Irrigation Company's townsite, between Bend and Redmond, first known as Wesley and later changed to Deschutes, received still another nomenclature jolt at the hands of the county solons, who ruled that "Deschutes" could not be used as a name, the word already being employed elsewhere in the county. Finally the name "Centralo" was fixed upon.

An addition to Sisters, platted by the Oregon & Western Colonization Co., was accepted.

OGDEN MAN BUYS HERE

Hotel Proprietor Becomes Bend Property Owner and May Move Here.

Another enthusiast has been added to the ranks of the Bend Boosters in the person of H. Brummell, of Ogden, Utah. Mr. Brummell, who has purchased from The Bend Company lot 10 of block 22, is the proprietor of the Helena Hotel, Ogden's best known hostelry.

"Am I enthusiastic over Bend's prospects? Well, I paid cash for Bend property, and money talks pretty loud, you know," said Mr. Brummell last Thursday. "Bend looks the best to me of anything I have seen in Oregon. If I can arrange an advantageous sale for my Ogden property I shall come here at once and erect a big modern hotel."

FIRE UNDER CONTROL

Forest Blaze, in Tumalo Country, Apparently Set By Camp Fire.

A fire that is supposed to have originated from a camp fire, which has been burning in the Tumalo country since the latter part of last week is today reported by Forest Supervisor J. R. Harvey as being under control. About 3,000 acres of yellow pine timber have been burned over. Practically all of this is outside the forest reserve, chiefly in township 17, range 10.

Under the direction of Fire Warden J. H. Haner 22 men have been at work on the fire for several days. The blaze is said to have started about three miles southeast of Tumalo.

JOLLY COUNTRY PICNIC

At the home of Mr. Schultz, 17 miles east of Bend, a delightful celebration was held on the Fourth by neighbors. There was a big picnic dinner, races of all kinds in the afternoon and a dance in the evening. The racing program resulted in much fun. There were no prizes to be won but every participant—boys, girls, men and women—took part with enthusiasm.

Among those carrying off first honors were: Ada Terry, children's race; Berna Schultz, tots' race; Lillian Terry, slim ladies' race; Mrs. Terry, fat ladies' race; L. O. Williams, men's foot race; Alton Rasmusen, in another foot race; Miss Edna Pyatt, egg race.
