JAIL AVERTED, ACTORS RETURN

Prineville Attempts to Collect License Money From Amateur Theatians But Ordinance Exempts Them—Hearty Welcome at Redmond

Having barely escaped being thrown into jail for their persistence in refusing to pay what they call an unwarranted license, the local amateurs who recently presented here the play, "Among the Breakers," returned Sunday noon from a trip to Prineville and Redmond. The untoward incident occurred at Prineville Friday morning when the city marshal demanded payment of $5 license fee for the show the night before. At Redmond the troupe received the heartiest kind of welcome. "Among the Breakers" being given Friday night and "Down in Dixie" Saturday evening.

Learning from handbills that home talent from Bend was to give a theatrical performance, the Prineville City Council, according to the statement of the city marshal, instructed that officer to collect a $5 license fee. On the ground that this was unjust inasmuch as the performers were amateurs and the play had been got up by and for the benefit of the Royal Neighbors lodge, the Bendites refused to pay. A further reason for the objection of the players was that a few weeks ago "Down in Dixie" was given in Prineville and no fee was asked for. Neither the mayor nor the city recorder was in town and the matter was discussed with the city attorney and marshal, both of whom declared the money must be paid or the company go to jail.

When a copy of the ordinance was called for, the marshal dug up one dated 1908 which was marked

"Repealed." Whereupon the city attorney hastily explained that this ordinance had been drafted into a new one. When the latter was finally brought forth it was found that one paragraph read, in part, to this effect: Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to apply to any amateur theatrical productions or performances given by educational or charitable institutions. This closed the incident, and with the $5 still in the jeans of their manager, the west side Theatians departed in peace.

The Prineville audience gave the play a generous reception and the orchestra furnished splendid music.

At Redmond the city officials turned over the keys of the town to the visitors, and on every hand they received courtesies from the citizens.

The party making the entire round consisted of Mrs. K. D. McIntosh, Mrs. G. W. Shriner, Mrs. George S. Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Orcutt, Miss Anne Markel, J. L.

Sumrall, H. W. Bosworth, U. N. Hoffman, Fred Lucas and Willard Houston. Those who went to Redmond to complete the cast of "Down in Dixie" were Misses Grace French and Hattie Dickey and John Linster and Clarence Youngstrom.

CITY IS LIBERAL

Much Money Spent on Municipal Improvements in Seven Months.

Indicating the substantial improvements that have been made in Bend since the first of the year, the amount of money spent by the city in the last seven months, in municipal improvements, is of interest.

In all, Bend has spent about $3520. This does not include items which might be classified under "up-keeps," as police, water, lighting etc. In this amount is included $2140 put into street work. Beside the greatly improved streets that have resulted from the generous expenditure, other results are that Bend now has the best street sprinkler to be had and a modern chemical fire engine. The cost of the former was about $490, of the latter about $850, delivered in Bend.
