PARENTS' NIGHT

BOY SCOUTS ARE HOSTS

Fathers and Mothers Get Insight of What Aims of Organization Are and Work That is Being Done—Lodge Being Equipped By the Boys.

Parents of the Bend Boy Scouts were given an insight of the training which is being given their sons and what the aims of the organization are at a meeting at the lodge Thursday evening.

Two big camp fires were built and over these the boys made coffee. This, with sandwiches brought by the Scouts, was served to the fathers and mothers. Scout Master Lara spoke of the purposes of the Boy Scout movement and outlined what instruction was being and would be given the members. Several of the lads recited from the manual and gave exhibitions of tying knots and so forth. They also gave their yell in lusty tones. The lodge room was decorated especially for the occasion.

Dr. U. C. Coe has promised to give the boys a talk tomorrow evening on some first aids to the injured. They are getting started off well and learning rapidly. The lodge has been fixed up neatly and some chairs and camp stools bought. What money the Scouts earn by doing odd jobs around town they contribute toward getting equipment needed.
