

Quality Goods

It Will Pay You In dollars and cents to inspect our men's wear department before buying. We are now in a position as never before to fill your every want.

Sole agents for the famous Keiser neckwear at prices ranging from 50c to $1.75

Our line of Packard Shoes for men needs no introduction. They speak for themselves.

THE PEY HAT

Once worn you will wear no other

PARK MILL HOSIERY

In blue, grey, brown, black, red and green lises. Per pair 35c

Pure Thread Silk Hose

In six colors. Per pair 65c

A Full Line of Men's Fall Caps just arrived $1 to $2

Remember we stand behind our goods. A satisfied customer is our best advertisement

Lara's

"THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES."

NEGLIGEE SHIRTS
In an endless variety of styles and patterns 60c to $4.00

MEN'S UNDERWEAR
Get into a suit of our underwear. Cooper's Spring Needle, Derby ribbed unions. Per suit $3.00
Cotton Derby Ribbed. Brown, two piece. Per suit $1.00
Cotton, Blue Fancy Ribbed. Per suit 95c
Very light cotton, two piece suits, white with black cross bar. Suit 60c
Men's Tan Mercerized Union Suits. Per suit $2.25

William, W. S. and C. T. Ladd, Kingman Brewster and F. C. Blatch, all of Portland, were guests Saturday at Hotel Bend, returning home by auto from a trip to Crater Lake.

Miss Mary E. Coleman has entered the Lara-Thompson piano contest on behalf of the Bend Schools. If she secures the greatest number of votes the piano will be placed at the school.

Work has been started on the bungalow of Miss Gertrude Markel in Wiestoria. Charles Niswonger has the contract. The building will be similar to the Frank Robertson bungalow.

Mrs. L. R. Grimes and Miss Helen Watrons of Burlington, Kansas, are visiting at the Pilot Butte ranch. M. E. Grimes and Miss Marion Grimes of Salem also are visiting R. E. Grimes.

Evert L. Jones, who was associated with Sylvester Staats in the law firm of Staats & Jones, has skipped out, according to Mr. Staats, and has taken up the ministry as a profession.

Jesse O. McKinney of Gist was in Bend Monday for medical treatment. A few weeks ago he severely lacerated the index finger of his right hand and infection has set in to such an extent that he may lose the digit.

John Morton of the maintenance department of the Oregon Trunk was in town Sunday. Mr. Morton says the Crooked River Bridge will be completed in two weeks and ready to handle regular traffic a week later.

The Portland Live Stock Reporter of August 21 contains an article upon Lee Davenport's recent letter to The Bulletin in which Mr. Davenport urged that Central Oregon ranchers pay more attention to the profitable hog raising industry.

C. B. Allen was in town Monday. Mr. Allen reports excellent hay crops on the Little River meadows. Next month Mrs. Allen and their daughter Ethel will go to Corvallis, where Miss Allen will continue her studies at the agricultural college.

Willis Noland and mother, Mrs. Jessie Boughton, of Mapleton, Ore., came in last week to take up their residence on their Millican Valley homestead. With them was Miss Della Merrifield. They drove over the mountains by the McKenzie route.

A party composed of Fred Hunnell and family, L. A. Brandenburg and family, Miss Mabel Gertson and Miss Clara McCulley left Saturday for a pleasure trip to the Willamette Valley. They went in wagons, crossing the Cascades by the McKenzie pass.

C. A. Martin of Terre Haute, Ind., was in Bend last week. He was sent out by a number of Eastern business men to look the Bend country over. He said that he was very favorably impressed, and his visit may result in a number of investments. He was entertained while here by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Thompson.

Among those who filed on Government land before Commissioner Ellis the past month were J. R. Hartoon, Orcas Island, Wash.; W. L. McHoney, Bellingham, Wash.; C. W. Fitzmore, Victoria, B. C.; W. S. Dinsmoor, Port Angeles, Wash.; George E. Curry, Seattle; Peter Penne, Helena, Mont., and two foreigners. These were all located by E. R. Post.

BIG PRIZES OFFERED

Some Central Oregon Rancher Has Chance at Rich Awards.

Through F. W. Graham of the Great Northern, Secretary Sawhill of the Commercial Club has received information concerning the big land exposition to be held in New York early in November. Central Oregon farmers are urged to compete for the big awards; these include J. J. Hill's $1000 silver cup for the best individual wheat exhibit, a similar cup for potatoes, offered by President Stillwell of the Kansas City, M. & O. Ry., and $1000 in gold, put up by President Shaughnessy of the Canadian Pacific.

STREET PREACHING

Rev. Mr. Hupp Conducts Services in the Open Air in Bend.

Preaching on the streets of Bend was the novelty introduced here last Saturday evening by Rev. J. M. Hupp, the Baptist evangelist who is conducting services here. He was heard by a good sized crowd. Next Saturday night he will again hold an open air meeting.

During the week services are being held every night at the School Supplies

Save money by buying your Tablets, Pens, Pencils, Ink, Etc., of us. We have the finest assortment in town, and it is COMMON TALK THAT OUR PRICES ARE LOWEST.

DRINKING CUPS--The aluminum collapsible ones--only. 10c

FREE--A child's handkerchief given free with every purchase of children's stockings.

Rowe's Store

NEXT DOOR TO POSTOFFICE, BEND
"The Same Goods for Less Money."

BUYS BEND LAND

NORTHWEST CO. TO PLAT 40 ACRES.

George M. Bailey, Head of Philadelphia Company, Makes Purchase from Bend Company--City Will Be Advertised Extensively by the New Owners.

George M. Bailey, president of the Northwest Townsite Company, a large land owning organization of Philadelphia which has extensive holdings throughout the northwest, and at Redmond and Madras, has purchased from the Bend Company 40 acres of land adjoining Center Addition.

The land in question is the S. E. 1/4 of Sec. 33, 17-12. The price paid is not stated. Mr. Bailey, who is in Bend now, says that his engineering crew will be here in a few days and will immediately plat the forty, after which it will be placed on the market. The company, which operates upon a very extensive scale, conducting an enormous advertising campaign, will now give to Bend the benefits of its publicity work.

Double Amount Of Votes on WALL PAPER
Thompson-Lara Piano Contest
E. M. THOMPSON
Wall Street Bend, Oregon

Boys' Suits

We have just received a very fine line of boys'

Knickerbocker

Suits. Good, strong, well made garments from

$2.50

to

$7.50

per suit.

W. C. Bredenhagen

BITS ABOUT TOWN.

D. M. Davis returned last night. J. L. Sumrall went to Culver yesterday on business.

Max Richardson is still in bed, after a five weeks illness.

J. N. Hunter and family will return from Newport tonight.

Miss Nona Richardson returned last week from Berkeley, Cal.

Mrs. J. T. Smith and Miss Frances returned to Tacoma yesterday.

Lee Davenport was in town yesterday from his Powell Butte ranch.

Walter Jones of Portland is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dimick.

R. F. Averill returned Sunday night from a brief business trip to Portland.

H. J. Eggleston has bought a large part of the harness stock of John Legat.

Miss Deering, who has been visiting Mrs. H. E. Allen, returned to Portland yesterday.

During the week much street improvement work has been done by the city in Park Addition.

J. R. Kelly, of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, and party arrived at the Pilot Butte Inn yesterday.

J. S. Parminter and M. S. Lattin went up to La Pine and Crescent Friday on business, returning Monday.

Arthur Johnson, son of J. P. Johnson, is home from Portland where he has been at work during the summer.

The new siding saw has been installed at the Bend Company's mill and now is in operation, turning out drop siding.

Miss Katherine Troutner, who will teach in the Bend school, arrived Friday night from her home in Winona, Minn.

Peter Reisdorfer left last week on a business trip to the Willamette Valley. He went across the mountains by wagon.

F. H. Sherwood was in Bend last week.

Mrs. Rosecoe Howard returned to Bend Saturday.

Hal Rossman left Monday for North Yakima.

On Saturday morning a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bartlett.

Little Lenora Morris is suffering from an attack of acute rheumatism.

B. W. Fitch, a printer, recently of Los Vegas, Nevada, arrived last week.

The "U-go I-go Club" is giving a dance at Linster's Hall this evening.

Mrs. H. W. Skuse was sick for several days last week but has now recovered.

Clyde McKay and family have moved into the D. E. Hunter house in Park Addition.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Straight, recently of Iowa, are now living on the Ten Bar ranch.

Mrs. Riderow from Montana, sister of Mrs. William Arnold, is visiting Mrs. Arnold.

Miss Ethel Borden, one of the Bend High School teachers, arrived Friday night from Minneapolis.

Joe Buckholtz' watermelon patch is reported as looking splendid, with the promise of a record crop.

John Steidl is still experiencing much trouble with his foot, which was crushed by a rock several weeks ago.

J. H. Haner and family of Prineville spent Monday night at Hotel Bend on their way up river on an outing.

According to George Bates several apple trees on the old experiment farm are heavily laden with good fruit.

P. P. Thomas returned Sunday night from Onell where he has been doing surveying work for Tom Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock, parents of Mrs. F. M. Ray, and sons arrived last week. They drove through from North Dakota in an auto.

George U. Janata of California has opened a tailor shop in the building on Wall street next to Taggart's.

During E. N. Hurd's absence at Seaside Fred LaFollette has been in charge of the La Pine Inter-Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bond, after a visit to Mrs. Bond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Caldwell, left Sunday for their home in Eugene.

Mrs. R. F. Averill and children have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lara at the Heyburn homestead for the past week.

George Osborn and family, for many years well known in the Culver country, returned yesterday from a camping trip up river.

Anna, the seven-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson, died this morning. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 11 a. m.

Carlyle Triplett and family, who left here recently, have located in Eugene, where Creed Triplett also is. The latter's family is still in Bend.

Mrs. J. D. Saylor, her two sons and daughter, have been visiting her father, J. N. B. Gerking, at Laidlaw. The Saylor's live in Free-water.

Miss Tolvia Carlson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Z. W. Lindborg, for several weeks, will return to her home in Portland probably next week.

The Whatsoevers will hold a business meeting at the church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This will be an important session and all members are urged to attend.

W. D. Barnes, F. R. Barbour and T. G. Becker of Laidlaw were in Bend yesterday afternoon on their way to Crane Prairie on a two weeks' fishing and hunting trip.

J. W. Irwin of Bellingham has purchased from the Bend Company, through H. J. Douglas, lots 4 and 5 of block 29, Center Addition. R. G. Bowser bought lots 13 and 14 in the same block.