Portland, Oregon, Sept. 21, 1911

Mr. Patterson,
Bend, Oregon.

Prospects good for railroad to be in Bend Oct. 5, both Mr. Hill and Gray doing all possible to accomplish this result. Present plans would indicate that it would be Oct. 6 before Mr. Hill reaches Bend. Ought to know definitely today.

[Signed] A. O. HUNTER.

The celebration will be a two-day affair and something bigger than Central Oregon has yet seen. The committees appointed to arrange for it have been busy and announce an attractive program. Among the entertainment features will be: Broncho busting, log rolling contests, tub, horse, foot, novelty and children's races, football, prize-fight, dance, concerts by the band, pillow fights, climbing a greased pole, drill by the school children, parade, addresses, and other features not yet arranged.

A special feature of the celebration will be the exhibits. Already the exhibit committee has secured or arranged to get enough products for a wonderful display. Booths will be erected along Wall and Bond streets and the visitors will be shown, not merely told of, the products of every kind found at Bend. Liberal prizes will be awarded for farm products by the celebration committee, in addition to the prizes given by the First National Bank through the Commercial Club. Invitations will be sent to all the towns of Central Oregon.

In reply to the telegram sent by the Commercial Club to James J. Hill, the following message was received this morning:

"Many thanks for your kind invitation to our chairman (J. J. Hill). Have delayed reply on account of perfecting plans to make most of our time in Central Oregon. Have just wired Carl Gray.

"Have mailed our itinerary. Will probably have evening meeting at Prineville Oct. 1, all day at Burns the 3rd, spending night of 4th at Prineville. Arrive Bend noon of 5th, remain two hours and have spike driving right after lunch. Will you kindly advise parties interested.

GOVERNOR WEST AND PARTY HERE RAILS CLOSER

State Executive Will Be On Hand For Celebration If He Can Possibly Get Here--Speeches On Good Roads

"If it is possible for me to get away from the Capitol, I certainly will attend the Bend celebration," said Governor West, who spent last night in Bend. "You have a right to be happy over the coming of the railroad, for it means prosperity for Bend."

Accompanying the Governor were Sam Hill, R. H. Thompson, of Seattle, S. N. Bowlby and other Good Road enthusiasts. They spoke to a packed house at the Commercial Club.

The party is on its way to Medford by way of Crater Lake.

TWO MILES ARE BEING LAID DAILY

At This Rate, Track Will Reach Bend By October 1--Force of 200 Men at Work--Crooked River Crossed Sunday--Redmond to Celebrate Sept. 30

Rails on the Oregon Trunk-Deschutes line are being rapidly laid toward Bend. Work was started on this side of Crooked River Sunday and a mile laid that day. A force of about 150 men is at work and two miles of ties and steel are being put down daily. Hillman was reached Monday afternoon and Redmond yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The celebration there has been set for Saturday, Sept. 30. At the rate at which the track-laying machine is being operated, rails should be into Bend by Oct. 1.

It is understood that the Hill road will run its passenger trains out of this city in the morning and the Harriman in the evening. The running time, after the road is ballasted and got in good shape, will be cut between here and Portland so that passengers leaving there in the morning will get here by 6 p. m. Six conductors and their families will make their residence here, it is understood, as well as others connected with the two lines.

The first load of stone for the depot was placed on the ground Monday afternoon. From 15 to 20 perch will be hauled daily. Stone cutters of the Oregon Trunk are here at work.

Arrives for Celebration.

James Hill Eggleston arrived in Bend last night to attend the Railroad Celebration and is and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Eggleston. James Hill is a 9-pound boy and "Dad" is smiling as much as if trains were here already.
