LIDLAW MAKES FINE EXHIBIT

West Side Ladies Get Together Attractive Collection of Farm Products and Relics--Veterans Hold Annual Reunion

The large number of Bend people who went down to Laidlaw Saturday were well entertained and came back with many praises for the agricultural and domestic science exhibit which the West Side Ladies had got together. It was the consensus of opinion that this was by far the best display of products ever got together in this part of Crook county.

The women did not decide until two weeks before the date that they would attempt to make such a collection, but they at once got busy and the result was a most attractive and well arranged exhibit. Among the fruits and vegetables shown were watermelons, citrons, apples, corn, tomatoes, and cucumbers, all of which were raised without any artificial covering to protect them. The exhibit was tastefully arranged. It will be brought to Bend and shown on Railroad Day.

In addition to the farm products, the women had collected a large number of family relics and heirlooms. Some of these are 100 to 150 years old. The ladies also gave the visitors some evidence of their culinary skill. For instance, carrots were shown prepared in nine different ways to be served on the table.

A large community cake baked by Mrs. C. J. Mock had a place of honor, and in the afternoon it was decided to auction it off for the benefit of the church. "Dick" Smith was roped in as auctioneer and showed his ability in this line by securing a bid of $16. A. M. Lara was the highest bidder and "took the cake." He will exhibit it at the celebration here.

The ladies, knowing the best way to reach a man's purse, served delicious cake and ice cream and sold candy. In this way they netted a good-sized sum for the church. The evening was given over to dancing.

The Crook County Veterans' Association met at Laidlaw Saturday morning, there being 13 of the "boys" present. The day's program as given in The Bulletin last week was carried out. A bountiful dinner was spread on the island at noon and everybody had an enjoyable time. All the officers of the association were re-elected and a Relief Corps was formed with the following officers: President, Mrs. G. W. Shiner, Bend; vice president, Mrs. Dan Smith, Laidlaw; secretary, Miss Iva West, Bend.

At night the old soldiers gathered around a campfire. The next meeting will be held here on Flag Day next June.
