KAHN TAILORED CLOTHES.

are just that kind, nothing flashy, nothing loud, every suit or overcoat in perfect taste. And every one tailored to your individual measure.

Our Mr. Bennett has handled these clothes for years and knows exactly what they are. Every sample shown is wool, all wool, pure wool, and nothing else. You might think that cost a great deal more than the "ready-mades." Not so. The prices on these perfectly tailored suits are from $20.00 to $45.00

and every one carries an absolute guarantee of a PERFECT fit. We positively will not allow you to accept a suit that is not perfect in every detail.

We are exclusive agents for

THANKS MR. GRAY

City Council Will Present Resolution to O. T. President.

The City Council held a short session last night presided over by Mayor Pro Tem Allen. A vote of thanks was extended President Gray of the Oregon Trunk Railway for rushing the completion of the line to Bend, Messrs. Forbes and Sawhill being instructed to draft a suitable resolution.

The usual bills were ordered paid. C. E. Murray was appointed night police officer for one month, and Day Officer Roberts was reappointed. He reported the collection of $139 the past month in fines, etc.

The police and fire committee was ordered to request all merchants to keep one light burning in their places of business at night so as to aid the police officer in preventing thieving.

The council adjourned to meet October 24.

MEETS TOMORROW NIGHT

There will be a meeting of the Commercial Club tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, at which the Railroad Day committees will report.
