MID-STATE DAY

CENTRAL OREGON IS TOPIC

Portland Ad Club Addressed By Bend, Redmond, Burns and Lakeview Men—Engineer Budd Tells of Building of Railroad Line to This City

(Portland Oregonian)

Central Oregon was the sole theme at the weekly luncheon of the Portland Ad Club Wednesday under the direction of Wilbur E. Coman, chairman of the day, general freight and passenger agent of the North Bank, Oregon Trunk and other Hill railroads.

A. O. Hunter, of Bend, realty manager of The Bend Company, in a whirlwind address of ten minutes, told why Central Oregon will grow. He declared that from a purely business standpoint the interior is bound to expand. His own experience, he said, has proved that Central Oregon land is capable of returning 44 per cent per annum on the investment. He closed his address by predicting that Bend is destined to be the second city in size in the state.

J. W. Brewer, president of the Bank of Commerce of Redmond and president of the Commercial Club of that city, declared that if Bend is to be the second city in size, Redmond will be a healthy suburb.

Ralph Budd, chief engineer of the Oregon Trunk, said that engineering on the Oregon Trunk had not been difficult as the Deschutes River provided a natural right of way, making it possible to build a railroad for 100 miles south of the Columbia River with no grade to exceed 6 per cent. He said that from the present terminus of the Oregon Trunk at Bend it is possible to build a road to any other portion of Central or Southern Oregon without engineering difficulties.

V. L. Snelling, a farmer and livestock raiser of Lakeview, declared that Goose Lake Valley was the original Garden of Eden, and that Adam, when he was tempted by one of the native apples, was "up against it" and could not win.

"Bill" Hanley, the millionaire ranchman of Burns, offered a remedy for the high price of land by urging that more land be placed on the market. He also argued for soil surveys that the settler may

CLAIMS are easily made; but not always easily proven. We would not make the claims we do for the high quality of our stock if we were not convinced of their truth, and if we didn't have so many compliments from customers on the superiority of our trees, and the most excellent manner in which they were packed, enabling them to arrive at destination in prime condition. This last item, good packing, is easily overlooked by many, but is one of importance, and is one of the many instances where our attention to detail keeps up the high standard of our trees.

TUMALO NEWS NOTES

TUMALO, Oct. 27.—C. Pederson is very ill and is not expected to recover. He has been having stomach trouble for some time.

Willard Houston of Bend has taken the contract to clear and prepare for the plow 100 acres of land for G. W. Wimer & Sons.

Forest Ranger Smith is stopping here while estimating the amount of timber which was burned over in the fire near here last summer.

I. E. Wimer and Charley Spangle have just finished baling their large crop of hay.

A threshing machine is expected in this vicinity soon.

Elephants of Siam.

What is an elephant worth? A Yonkers feed dealer who once attached the pachydermatous part of a circus, which ate up a week's profits in one day, wouldn't give a canceled stamp for one, but in Siam it's different. A consular report says that "roughly estimated the number of domesticated elephants in Siam is about 3,000. The supply has been decreasing yearly, and prices have advanced until now a full grown male timber elephant is worth about $2,500 and a female $1,000. An elephant is full grown at twenty-five years, but not in full vigor until thirty-five. The length of life is 80 to 150 years, and the average weight is about three tons."—New York Tribune.

Money For Herculaneum.

The Italian chancellor of the exchequer has granted a million lire for excavations to be made at Herculaneum. The king himself has promised to give 500,000 lire for the same purpose. It is curious to note that sixty houses have been built right over the streets of the old town. These will all have to be pulled down. Considerable treasure, it is said, lies hidden beneath the ruins to be examined.—London Globe.

Walked on the Water.

Herr Kleber, a German inventor, recently took a three mile walk over Starnberg lake, near Munich, using "water shoes" of his own construction. Despite the wind and the rough surface of the water, he covered the distance in an hour and a half. The "water shoes" are of cylindrical form and are six feet long. They are constructed of brass frames and sailcloth.

Flattery.

"Odd thing about flattery." "What?" "It makes everybody sick except those who swallow it."—Exchange.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior. U. S. Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon. September 22nd, 1911. Notice is hereby given that Robert Z. Davis, of Sisters, Oregon, who, on November 23rd, 1906, made Homestead Entry No. 15415 Serial No. 1024, for 80 acres, and 25 acre section 26, township 15 south, range 10 east, Willamette Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make final five year proof to establish claim to the land above described, before H. C. Ellis, U. S. Commissioner, at his office at Bend, Oregon, on the 25th day of November, 1911. Claimant names as witnesses: W. A. Witt and Dan Winkler, of Sisters, Oregon; Alex Levering and Henry Schumacher, of Galt, Oregon. H. C. ELLIS, City Recorder, Bend, Oregon, October 21, 1911.

SEEK BIG TRACT

CHICAGOANS WANT 100,000 ACRES OF LAND

Syndicate Plans Large Development Enterprise, Which Would Make Homes for Many People—Splendid Opportunity for Central Oregon

General Passenger Agent Wm. McMurray of the O-W. R. & N. Co. has received a letter of inquiry from Chicago which will interest all Central Oregon, and especially holders of large tracts of land. The letter is as follows:

"A syndicate in Chicago is endeavoring to locate 100,000 acres of land in one tract, if possible, and which can be purchased for less than $10 per acre, which they propose to subdivide into eighty acre tracts, break up five acres of the land, build a house on same, furnish two horses and a wagon and one cow, and then sell same on the installment plan.

"Parties have looked over land in Michigan and Wisconsin but claim the land does not suit them, and will you not kindly advise if there is any such tract along our line which could be purchased at the price indicated?"

It would be a fine business stroke for Central Oregon if the capital necessary for a development enterprise of this magnitude could be induced to come here. Any one knowing of available land should write to Mr. McMurray at Portland.

COMET IS VISIBLE

Number of Bend People Report Having Seen It.

Brooks' comet, which was discovered in July, is now said to be visible at Bend early in the morning. It is best seen about 4:30 or 5 o'clock. It appears in the eastern sky, northwest of the morning star Venus. Several Bend people who report having seen it say the tail is visible to the naked eye. It has now passed beyond the extreme star in the handle of the dipper constellation and appears for several hours before daylight. It will remain visible several weeks yet, according to the astronomers.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to an ordinance of the City of Bend, there will be submitted to the qualified electors of said city, a proposed charter, for their adoption or rejection, at a special election to be held for that purpose on Wednesday, November 22nd, 1911, between the hours of eight A. M. and seven P. M. of said day, said election to be held at the house shown, the usual polling place in the City of Bend, and that C. S. Benson, (chairman), W. B. Sellers and E. A. Sather act as judges and C. D. Brown, J. D. Honeyman and Sylvester Staats act as clerks at such election.

A Knights of Pythias lodge was instituted at Redmond Monday night. A delegation went down from the lodge here to assist in the work, and there was present also a team from Prineville. An enjoyable time was reported by all who attended from here. The trip was made by auto, those who went being: S. H. Snyder, O. A. Thorsen, Joe Innes, M. A. Palmer, Karl Ludewig, Tom Murphy, Gene Getchell, Ralph Poindexter, S. C. Caldwell, N. P. Smith, C. D. Rowe and M. S. Lattin.

LECTURE NOT DELIVERED

The lecture which Col. John Sobieski was scheduled to give here last Wednesday evening was not delivered owing to the fact that the speaker did not reach Bend till 10:30 p. m. A large audience waited patiently for several hours, some of the young men and women present entertaining the gathering with piano and vocal selections. Col. Sobieski will be secured for another date or another number substituted in the winter lyceum course. The Ricketts family, musical entertainers, will be here about Dec. 1.
